Judge Head celebrated for years of service

Steve Chapman

Barry County's Judge Victor Head was honored for his eight years of service as an associate circuit judge at a ceremony that was attended by over 100 people on Friday, December 19. Judge Head's retirement, which takes effect on January 1, caps off a 37-year career in the law.

Head's retirement ceremony was a combination of humor and some tears. Several of his family members were present, including his wife, Becky; mother, Jane; his brother Heno, Jr.; his children Jennifer Head-Steingraber and husband, Jason, and Nathan Head, and his wife, Julie; and his grandchildren, Emma, Kate, Sara Beth, and Jake.

Those who spoke at the ceremony told of how pleasant and considerate Head was as a judge, and also praised him for his role in helping to establish the Barry County Drug Court. Shara Martin, assistant public defender in Monett, told Head, "We will miss the way you made a person think he won the lottery, when in fact he was going to jail" and Barry County Prosecutor Johnnie Cox, who will succeed Head as associate circuit judge in January, praised him as, "A gracious and considerate judge, even when he ruled against you." During his speech, Cox presented Judge Head with a retirement gift, a handsome wooden rocking chair engraved with the Seal of the State of Missouri.

Sharon Sater sang "Better than a Hallelujah" at the ceremony while accompanied by Scott Stearns on guitar. A volunteer at Celebrate Recovery, an outreach that many Drug Court participants attend, Sharon told those gathered that the Drug Court participants she meets think very highly of Head. "They speak so respectfully of him," she said. "He doesn't realize what an impact he's made on their lives."

Marty Stearns, a clerk at the Barry County Courthouse, grew slightly emotional as she spoke of how honored she was to have worked with him. "He has shown respect to all who enter his court room. And by this display of respect, he has

Joplin woman charged with Barry County burglaries

Charlea Mills

One Joplin woman was taken into custody and charged with multiple Barry County burglaries and property damage earlier in the year. Meredith Anne Gould, 37, of Joplin, was booked into the Barry County Jail on Monday, December 22, and is being held on an $80,000 bond.

Gould was wanted in connection with four different burglaries and thefts. The first incident was reported on May 26 when a residence on Highway 86 was damaged and collector items and jewelry were stolen. Barry County Sheriff's Deputies found a sock and aluminum window frame with blood stains on them. Two other homes on Highway Z and Farm Road 2010 near Verona had each around $500 worth of music equipment and items stolen in August. There were also two other residences in the county with similar thefts.

On August 6, the Newton County Sheriff's Department investigate Joseph Nolen and Meredith Gould for thefts, and Nolen's DNA came back on the earned the respect of all of us, the clerks, the attorneys, other judges, and even the defendants who have stood before him. I have actually heard defendants say 'thank you' after he has sentenced them to DOC. He is a kind man and a true gentleman," she said.

Gould is charged with five counts of burglary in the 2nd degree, five counts of stealing and two counts of property damage in the 2nd degree.

Other speakers included Missouri Senator David Sater and Missouri Representative Scott Fitzpatrick, who both praised Judge Head on his work in Drug Court. Each man also presented Head with resolutions from their respective legislative houses, which praised him for his accomplishments and congratulated him on his retirement. Jack Goodman, presiding judge of the 39th Circuit Court, also praised Head and presented him with a marble plaque in recognition of his years of service.

RETIREMENT from FRONT

When it was his turn to speak, Head thanked all of the well-wishers who came to his retirement ceremony and spoke of what a blessing his family was to him. During his speech, he also greeted those present he had worked with during his time in the 39th Circuit. When he had finished speaking, Judge Head received a standing ovation from those in attendance.

Though he is retiring as a circuit court judge, Head is not leaving the law. He will continue to serve as a senior judge and preside over extra cases in the 39th Circuit. Head also plans to continue serving on the Drug Court, though he will eventually transition out of that role.

Head said he will continue to make his home in Monett, and plans to spend more time doing the things he and Becky enjoy, including boating on Table Rock Lake. "We have a little place at the lake by Shell Knob where we spend about every weekend," he said. Head also said he would take golf back up, and maybe fishing as well.

Head was born on April 10, 1948, the second son of Heno Head, Sr. and his wife, Jane. He graduated from Mississippi State College in Starkville, Miss. After he graduated from law school at the University of Mississippi in 1977, Head and his wife, Becky, whom he married in 1972, moved to Shell Knob, where he practiced law while Becky taught. They remained there until 1980 when Head joined the United States Air Force, where he was a member of the Judge Advocate General Corps. He served for four years, earning the rank of captain.

After leaving the Air Force, Head joined the Garrett and Woods Law Firm in Monett.

He remained with the firm until 1989, when he became the District Public Defender for the 39th Circuit. Head served as public defender until January 1, 2007, when he took office as Associate Circuit Court Judge.

Despite all he has accomplished during his time as an attorney and a judge, Head remains most proud of Drug Court, which he helped to establish in 2008. The program provides alternative sentencing and intensive therapy to those convicted of drug or alcohol-related offenses. "When you turn somebody around and they become a clean, productive citizen, that means more than any one case," he said.

Letter to the Editor

I called Senator Mc-Caskill's office, Senator Roy Blunt's office, and Representative Billy Long's office. I wanted to express my thoughts and feelings on the illegal, unconstitutional, unchristian and outright lies that the American people have had to endure these past six years.

Just a few examples of this are health care costs, Obama's newly formed organization center for Medicare and Medicaid Innovation, which will determine what health care options senior citizens will receive, clergy can no longer pray with our servicemen, Bibles can no longer be passed out, the illegals receive more benefits than many of our hard working tax-paying of this country. I could go on but you get what I am saying.

In closing: Roy Blunt's and Billy Long's offices were very cordial and receptive to my telephone call. However, it was entirely different with Claire McCaskill's office. The person who answered her phone did not let me finish what I had to say. He was very rude and interrupted me and disconnected my call by hanging up on me. Please think about this in the next election.

Thank you, Marvin Pottorff, Golden

Barry County Emergency Services

When should I call 911?
911 is for emergencies or things that could become emergencies.

- Is there a threat to life or property?
- Are you or someone else the victim of a crime?
- Do you have a police emergency?
- Do you or someone else have a medical emergency?
- Do you need the fire department?

If the situation seems urgent and has the potential to become dangerous, call 911.

If I call 911, what will they ask me?

- What is the location of the emergency?

This is the address where the emergency is actually happening. When asked for a location, we need you to be specific. If you don't know the actual address, tell the dispatcher and then:

- Give cross streets
- Provide landmarks, business names or parks near the emergency.
- Look at the house numbers in the area.
- If you are calling from inside a home or business, look on a piece of mail.

Why do the dispatchers ask so many questions when I call 911?
Emergency dispatchers need to get accurate information to allow responders to make the best decision on how to approach the situation. Callers will be asked:

- Where
- What
- Who
- When
- Why (maybe)

What if I call 911 accidentally?
If you accidentally dial 911, do not hang up. Stay on the line and tell the dispatcher that everything is alright. If you don't, the dispatcher may think that something is wrong. The dispatcher will call you back, and may send a police officer to check on you.

For more information contact the Barry County E 9-1-1 office at 417-846-4911 x 221 during regular business hours.

A Celebration of Life

When we depart our earthly home for God's resting place, it is not how long or brief our stay, but how we lived our lives that counts. Though we may mourn the passing of a loved one, we should also take comfort in the memory of the many kindnesses he or she has performed.

We conduct every funeral service as to be a source of comfort and inspiration to the living as well as a worthy and memorable tribute to the departed.

Rose retires after 16 years with the Washburn Post Office

Steve Chapman

Shirley Rose, a postal service employee at the Washburn post office, is preparing to retire after 16 years with the United States Postal Service. Almost 40 of her family members, friends and co-workers gathered to honor her for her years of service. The celebration took place on Sunday, December 21, at the Southwest R-V Elementary cafeteria. Shirley is a postmaster relief, whenever Sherry Stephens, the acting Washburn postmaster, must be gone, Shirley steps in and assumes her duties. Though she will miss her job at the post office, Shirley said she felt it was just time for her to move on. "The postal service has really been good to me, and I hate to give it up, but I'm going to," she said. Her retirement becomes official on January 1.

Shirley was born in Washburn on January 20, 1937, the fourth of Ora and Maye Catron's seven children. She grew up on her parents' dairy farm and attended school in Washburn, graduating in 1954, the year before the Washburn School District became Southwest R-V.

She married Jimmy Rose on August 20, 1953, and they ran their own dairy

Sherry Rose is retiring after 16 years of service with the Washburn Post Office. With Shirley are some of her fellow employees over the years. farm together for over 50 years while raising their four children, Bill, Sue, Bobbi and Steven. Her children went on to have families of their own, and Shirley now has 10 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.

After Jimmy passed away in 1997, Shirley eventually turned the management of the dairy farm over to Bill and then began working at a variety of jobs. She was a substitute cook for the Southwest R-V and Cassville

R-VI Districts for a year before beginning with the postal service. "When you operate a dairy farm for over 50 years, there's not much else you're qualified for," she said with a laugh.

Future plans for Shirley include a return to farming. She owns a 370-acre farm, and now plans to partner with her brother, Raymond, in raising beef cattle.

Keep safety on standby.

A standby emergency generator is convenient during a power outage, but only if it's installed and used safely. Never connect a generator directly to household wiring without the help of a licensed electrician. Voltage feedback from improper installation could electrocute co-op members or line crews.

Keep generators outdoors and install a carbon monoxide detector in nearby inclosed spaces. And always keep children away from generators. Ask your co-op for more advice on operating your generator safely.

invisalign®

LEARN HOW TO SMILE AGAIN.

Invisalign is clearly your best choice for a better smile.

Your Invisalign treatment will consist of a series of aligners that you switch out about every two weeks. Each aligner is individually manufactured with exact calculations to gradually shift your teeth into place. And since your Invisalign system is custom-made for your teeth and your teeth only, with a plan devised by you and your dentist, you know you'll end up with a smile that truly fits.

Invisalign has been proven effective in dental practices worldwide

• Invisible

• Removable

• No metal or brackets to irritate the mouth

• Able to brush and floss normally during treatment
