Springfield man arrested for Golden man's murder

Beatty

Charlea Mills

A Springfield man is in custody for allegedly murdering a man at his Golden home yesterday.

Michael Beatty, of Springfield, was arrested yesterday afternoon and booked into the Barry County Jail for the murder of Ed Smith, 68, of Golden.

According to Barry County Sheriff Mick Epperly,, the Sheriff's Department was dispatched at 11:18 a.m. yesterday with the report that there was a "deceased person in a trailer with possible suspicious activity."

When officers arrived, Epperly said that there was a lot of blood at the scene and that Smith had multiple gun shot wounds to the head and possibly the chest.

Epperly confirmed that Deputies Angie Cole and Bill Watkins secured the scene while officers set up a roadblock near the Golden Post Office and stopped each vehicle looking for the murder suspect

Officers were on the lookout for a white Chrysler 2000. Epperly said that, while officers were working the road block and securing the scene, he went to the Mayo Beach area where he found the car wrecked into a tree.

Epperly said, "We had a person call in and say that the car had wrecked and that the driver had fled on foot and was hiding in the woods near their house. The Missouri State Highway Patrol and Barry County took him into custody at 12:44 p.m. without incident."

SUV hits train at Seligman crossing

On Monday afternoon, an SUV drove into the side of a train passing through Seligman at the Roller Ridge railroad crossing. There were no reported injuries related to the incident at the time of the crash.

Charlea Mills

On Monday afternoon, an SUV hit a train in Seligman, but miraculously, the driver walked away with no reported injuries.

According to Seligman Police Chief Terry Burgess, Royle Wiseley, 31, of Cassville, was driving a 2000 Ford Explorer east on Roller Ridge when he approached the railroad crossing. According to a statement made by the driver at the scene, he saw the train, but when he tried to stop, his brakes were not working, and he rolled into the side of the train.

According to Burgess, the SUV was dragged around 110 feet before coming to a stop at the railroad switch. At the scene, the driver had no reported injuries.

The train that runs through that intersection is with the Arkansas Missouri Railway and did not stop after the crash. It is not clear as to whether the conductor of the train was aware of the crash when it occurred.

The Seligman Police Department, Barry County Sheriff's Department and Missouri State Highway Patrol all responded to the incident.

Friday Squared out, 5K in: Chamber opts to cancel event

Charlea Mills

After discussing issues with the July Friday Squared event originally slated for July 10, the Cassville Area Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors unanimously decided to do away with the event in favor of a 5K only later in the year.

According to Mindi Artherton, Chamber director, the event turnout was declining. She said, "Friday Squared has been a fun summertime event for our community. Unfortunately, our attendance numbers have declined. Due to the expenses associated with the event and the low attendance numbers, we decided it wasn't a great fit for our community."

Other factors that played into the decision was the extreme heat experienced in July. Instead of continuing the Friday Squared tradition, the Chamber is electing to host just a 5K at some other point during the year instead.

Friday Squared was first held in July and August of 2010. Then, they added a May event in 2011, as well. By 2012, the Chamber had dropped the event back to just July and August before finally going to just July in 2013 and 2014.

Each year, the Friday Squared events focused around community fun with an evening movie on the courthouse lawn and extended hours for businesses downtown. Businesses would stay open late, food vendors set up and the Cassville YMCA and Cassville Library held events for kids to participate in.

One aspect of the Friday Squared event that did make it a popular community experience was the SnoGlo 5K the Chamber added to the roster in 2013. Artherton said, "We love the idea of an evening 5K. We think that is something a little different than other races. However, we think it is just too hot in July."

For the future, the Chamber plans to change the 5K to a less sweltering time to make it more friendly for area runners. Artherton explained, "Last year, we had over 100 participants sign up to run the race. However, due to extreme head, we only had around 60 that were able to attend and complete the race. We want to have an event that is not just miserably hot for our participants, not to mention the heat can be dangerous, and we always want to make sure our events are safe for our community members and out of town guests."

As far as a future plan, the 5K dates are up in the air for now. Currently, Artherton is seeking volunteers to serve on a 5K committee that will organize the event. She said, "We are considering have a 5K in the fall but have not made a decision as to the exact

Seligman sees spike in revenue from Walmart sales

Charlea Mills

When Walmart nounced that they would be opening a store in Seligman, there was a lot of speculation as to how much revenue the new market would generate for the city. After five months of collecting revenue, the city is up $43.993.20 in sales tax revenue over last year's num-

In 2014, the first five months of the year yielded between around $6,000 and $20,000 monthly. However, the lowest amount in revenue collected so far in 2015 was $16,743.81, but totals have been consistently between $21,000 and $25,000

For the month of May, the city collected $28,931.68, which was almost $10,000 more than 2014's revenue of $19,595.31 in May.

With all of the additional revenue generated by stronger sales at existing businesses in 2015 and Walmart's presence in the community, the city council will be able to plan other projects within the city with the extra rev-

The 2015 budget was set off of prior trends. Now that significantly more revenue is coming in with the addition of Walmart in December 2014, the city will be able to allocate the funds and have a better idea of what revenue will continue to be in the future. Until taxes were being collected, the city was unaware of how much extra revenue they would see with the addition of the chain

The tax collected by the city is 2.25 percent. Of that, 1-cent goes to General Revenue, 1/2-cent goes to capitol improvement, 1/2-cent goes to streets and 1/4-cent goes to parks. City Clerk Brian Nichols hopes that the council approves to use part of the funds going to general revenue to clean up the city. Nichols also said that they are fixing up the bathrooms and putting on new siding.

Epperly continued, "We got a search warrant for the trailer. The suspect was apparently living there with Smith. He did get into it with someone because the suspect had strangulation-like marks with bruising around his neck." Officers also found a .22 caliber rifle at the trailer, but Epperly said, "The rifle was laying there in the yard, but consistency with that doesn't appear that it was the weapon used." Epperly said that they are obtaining a search warrant for the car and will continue to look for the murder weapon.

To add to the oddity of the crime, Smith was stripped of his clothing and it was piled on his bed in the trailer and soaked in gasoline. Epperly said, "There was a gas can in the bedroom, and the bed was saturated. They tried to set a fire, but it went out. We think it was to make it look like a house fire."

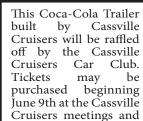

MURDER from FRONT

When officers found Beatty in the woods, he was inebriated, according to Epperly. He said, "Detective Henry read him his Miranda Rights, but we will be interviewing him today now that he has sobered up and see if he will tell us what happened."

Epperly added, "It went well taking him into custody. He planned to get out of there and had a bag with him. We were lucky that the didn't head toward Arkansas or we might still be looking for him."

The investigation is still ongoing, and no formal charges have been filed. Beatty is being held in the Barry County Jail on a 24-hour hold for murder. Smith's autopsy is scheduled for tomorrow, Thursday morning, at 8:30

Access provides dental care at area schools

As part of its mission to serve the underserved populations of Southwest Missouri, Access Family Care Medical & Dental Clinics provided in-school dental care to 1,342 children, during the 2014 - 2015 school year. This care was provided through the Portable Dental Program. The Portable Dental Program is a full service Dental Clinic which is actually taken into schools to ensure children have access to quality dental care.

The Portable Dental Program provides a wide array of services from basic dental screenings to providing dental fillings and tooth extractions. The program is staffed by dentists and dental hygienists who are employed by Access Family Care.

The Portable Dental Program served children in the following school districts and agencies: Joplin School District, McDonald County School District, Shell Knob School District, Exeter School District, Southwest School District, YMCA-Heritage Youth Development Center, Mt. Vernon United Migrant Opportunity Services (UMOS), and Mt. Vernon Head Start. Through the Portable Dental Program, Access Family Care Medical & Dental Clinics supported $130,753 in charity care.

Kristi Dobbs, a dental hygienist, said; "Serving the children of Jasper, McDonald, Lawrence, Newton and Barry counties through portable dental services is truly a great honor and pleasure. These children rely on our potable dental teams to be there year in and year out, because we are their dental home. For this reason alone, it is absolutely essential to make sure that we are providing the ultimate in dental care to all the children that we care for under portable dental services. Whether we are only providing preventative services, helping them on their way to dental restoration, or providing care to make them decay free, we make them the number one priority of the moment. We have the best teams that give so much of themselves to help the program run smoothly, as well as, give their best talents to encourage the children to maintain good dental care for life. It is vital that children understand we are there to help them create a beautiful smile that will last them a lifetime. When we start early we start right."

Jennifer Wall, a dental assistant, said, "Serving on the portable dental team this last year, has made me realize the services that we are providing outside our clinic walls. You really can't understand all that goes into running the program until you are thrown in. It takes hard work and dedication, long hours and sacrifice. Now knowing what gets poured into the program, it gives a newfound respect for working with children each day. It's also the heartwarming stories of the children that help us get through each day as well. From those children that have never been able to get to the dentist until now, to the others that have been unable to have their front teeth repaired due to lack of care. We are actually helping these children realize that we can help them create a new smile. It is truly overwhelming."

Rogelio Crespo, also a dental assistant, said, "Being a part of the portable team had given me a new outlook for the need we help fulfill in the southwest Missouri area. We are truly just as grateful as the children are to have had an impact on their lives. The care we provide and the education that is given to the children is something that we hope will stay with them for a lifetime. Caring for children in an unconventional dental setting allows us to reach out to them in ways that we would not be able to in the clinic. It is much more personable, and we are able to adapt to multiple situations that arise on a daily basis. We have an exceptional team that is unexceptionally

CCC Lodge renovation to be completed by spring

Charlea Mills

According to Missouri State Parks, the renovation of the CCC Lodge at Roaring River State Park is underway and should be completed in the spring.

The announcement that the lodge would be renovated and turned into guest rooms and meeting space came at the park's informational meeting in September of last year. Missouri State Parks director Bill Bryan made the announcement that the $1.25 million project would be completed and taken out of a $20 million fund given to the department out of General Revenue by the Missouri Legislature. When State Parks did not use the full amount by the end of the fiscal year, the funds were not reappropriated, leaving the project up in the air tempo-

However, State Parks opted to go ahead with the project and chose a bid by the Construction Services Group out of Neosho. The construction company's estimate for the project was one of nine bids received and came in at a base bid of $1,075,500. Construction Service Group also plans to subcontract part of the work.

According to Steph Deidrick, information officer for Missouri State Parks, the project is on track to be completed by the spring. Bryan initially hoped the renovations would be complete before Opening Day 2016, but that is yet to be determined.

According to Deidrick, "The completed lodge will have six units that sleep up to four and include a bedroom, kitchen and a living room. A seventh unit will feature a second bedroom and will sleep six. Plans also include a meeting room with commercial kitchen on the lower level for special events. Work on the outside of the building will include repairs and restoration, but will not chance the rustic character of the structure."

forts in the community. This year's winner was Cassville High School's Grace Gouvion. Gouvion told the group about her efforts in the community before Soroptomist member Jill LeCompte gave her the award.

The club also has other grants, including the Live Your Dream award, which is gifted to a woman who is pursuing a higher education as the head of her household, and the RUBY Award, which is given to a woman in the community who spends a lot of time volunteering.

Live Your Dream used to be called the Women's Opportunity Award. This grant is an international program that is offered through local clubs worldwide. This year's Live your Dream award was given to Miranda Wright for her continuing education.

This year, Diane Shiveley was selected as the RUBY award winner for her efforts volunteering in the community. She chose to donate her $300 to the National Multiple Sclerosis Society.

When asked why Soroptomist is important to the Barry County community, this year's club president Leslie Smith said, "We can help non-for-profits that otherwise would not have the opportunity to help the individuals within our community."

In line with that train of thought, the club also selects different local organizations to donate to each year. Barry County non-profit organizations apply for money for specific programs that help women and children within the community, then the club selects which ones to donate. This year, the club was able to go above and beyond, giving more funds than requested by a few of the groups.

This year's award recipients for funds were Lives Under Construction (LUC) Boys Ranch, Kornerstone, Cassville YMCA, Sigma Epsilon Sorority, Cassville Schools Bright Futures and the Barry County Youth

The Barry County Youth Camp received $600 for their camp. Each year, The Barry County Youth Camp takes kids from the different Barry County school districts to a special one-week camp who might not otherwise be able to go camping. The camp was held last week at Camp Smokey at Roaring River State Park.

The LUC Boys Ranch received $600 for mowing equipment and supplies at their facility. Each year, the LUC Boys Ranch helps boys who are at-risk through their Christian treatment program.

Kornerstone received $500 to go toward their fatherhood program. Kornerstone provides mothering education, doula services and support for teen moms in Barry County. Now, they have added a fatherhood program that helps teach dads how to interact and care for their baby, as well. The Cassville YMCA received $500 for their Strong Kids program which helps ensure that families and children can participate in YMCA programs regardless of their financial situation. By giving scholarships to families in need, they can use the facilities at a fraction of the cost.

Two representatives from Sigma Epsilon Sorority were also at the meeting to receive their donation of $500 for Project Prom Dress. The sorority purchases and collects donations of prom dresses for girls who cannot afford a dress. It ensures that all girls have a dress and are made to feel beautiful for their prom, regardless of their financial situation. Bright Futures is a program at Cassville School that provides help for kids in need. If a child needs shoes or clothes, they rally and get whatever they need within 48-hours of being alerted to a need. That means teachers and other faculty keep an eye out during the year for any child that needs a bit of a hand during the year. Soroptomist donated $500 for a special cause for the year, head lice kits. Assistant superintendent Jill LeCompte said, "With some kids, we may not see them for a week after they are diagnosed with head lice. The treatment kits are pretty expensive and families sometimes can't afford them right away. So this way, when a child is found to have head lice, we send them home with a kit and they'll be back at school the next day. It's much better for the kids than missing all of that school and eases the burden on the family."

Barry County's Soroptomist raises money to support the various grants and scholarships each year through fundraisers. The group members sell packaged nuts around the holidays, and they also host a potato bake each year around St. Patrick's Day. Members volunteer their time, energy and baking skills to support the events and raise money for the various awards.

However, the group doesn't just donate the funds raised through their annual fundraisers. Oftentimes, the group donates as individuals to different causes in the community selected by the Dreams in Action committee. For example, if the Cassville Food Pantry is low on an item, such as toothpaste or a particular canned good, the ladies will each bring that item to the meeting. They also did the same for Kornerstone with baby toys for new moms to pick up for Christmas gifts for their children.

Soroptomist member Cheryl Williams said, "It's a chance to give back and help out the ladies in the community."

In the end, the club is dedicated to improving the lives of women and girls in the community, and the contribution ends up being much more than just money, but also a hand up when needed the tools necessary to further their hopes and dreams.

Smith said, "There is such a need to help women and girls and be able to give them a chance to succeed."

Anybody who is interested in some farm fresh food will be excited to know that the quaint town of Purdy will be hosting a farmers' market this summer beginning in the middle of July.

The Purdy City Council gave the go ahead at Monday night's meeting and mentioned they thought the farmers' market is a great idea. Charles Fletcher and James Fuller are behind this operation and hope that it will bring people from neighboring towns to come and enjoy the fresh foods that Purdy will have to of-

The market will be held in the parking lot by the Purdy Library and is going to be sponsored by the Purdy Spanish Program.

The farmers' market will be open to anybody who wants to sell their items, and there isn't a fee to join.

People wanting to join are just asked to help donate their time to the Purdy Recycling Center for at least 7 and a half hours each year.

Fletcher and Fuller are hoping that the market will serve as a helping hand to the Purdy School District and the recycling program and vice versa. They also hope it gives everyone an idea of community service, along with getting people more involved and excited about town festivities.

The farmers' market will be held on Tuesday nights from 3:30 p.m. to 6 p.m. Fletcher and Fuller believe Tuesday nights will work well because they won't be competing with other neighboring farmers' markets, that usually take place on Saturday or Sunday.

The City of Purdy Facebook page will be posting updates and exact dates of upcoming farmers market.

MSHP to participate in Operation Dry Water

Colonel J. Bret Johnson, superintendent of the Missouri State Highway Patrol, announces the Patrol's participation in Operation Dry Water. Operation Dry Water is a national campaign in which marine law enforcement officers from across the country coordinate special patrols during the last weekend in June to keep our waterways safe from boaters operating under the influence of alcohol or drugs. Troopers will focus their efforts over the weekend of June 26 through 28 to detect and apprehend intoxicated operators.

Missouri boat operators found to have a blood alcohol content of .08 percent or greater will be arrested for boating while intoxicated. Intoxicated boat operators endanger themselves, their passengers, and other boaters utilizing our many waterways.

Last year, 585 local, state, and federal agencies participated in a weekend long event of heightened BWI enforcement known as Operation Dry Water. Officers removed 318 intoxicated boat operators from the water. In addition, law enforcement officers made contact with over 146,000 boaters concerning BWI or boating safety enforcement and awareness. From 2009 to 2014, over 1,800 BWI operators have been removed from the water by law enforcement officers during the Operation Dry Water weekends.

In 2014, Missouri troopers arrested a total of eight people for boating while intoxicated, contacted 431 vessels and 1,390 boaters, and issued 72 boating violation summonses and 390 warnings on Missouri waterways. Marine operations troopers also issued 29 summonses for non-boating violations during the 2014 Operation Dry Water weekend. Special enforcement operations will continue throughout the summer months. Boaters are reminded that designating a sober skipper is always the safest bet if alcohol is going to be included in their boating experience.

Susie Jacobs, an avid golfer at the Cassville Golf Club, is very excited about the new summer golf camp that has started this year.

Boys and girls from the ages of 6-12 are all welcome to join the camp at the Cassville Golf Course that will be going on for a week in June, a week in July and for two days in August. It is $25 for one clinic, or $60 for all three clinics. Clinics run from 8:30 a.m. to 10:30 a.m.

The camp will break down the basics for the kids starting with grip, aim, setup, putting, chipping, pitching and full swing. Clubs are provided, but if a camp attendee has their own set they are welcome to bring them.

Jacobs said, "We have had about twenty kids sign up for the camp so far." There are approximately ten volunteers that help with the camp each day. "We think it is good for each kid to have some oneon-one time with an instructor," said Jacobs.

Jacobs had the idea of starting the golf camp after she heard of a camp that pro golf instructor, Rick Grayson hosts in the Nixa, Springfield and Ozark area.

Jacobs thought it was a great idea and decided Cassville needed a program similar to that. "Our purpose is to get kids more involved and excited about golf. Hopefully we can start a league and more kids will join the Cassville golf team when they get

Jacobs says it takes a little longer for the little kids to get started, but for the most part, they are all catching on fairly quick and really enjoying the camp. "Not only is it fun but it gives the kids lessons on anger management and proper etiquette on the golf course," said Jacobs.

The Cassville Ladies golf league has recently purchased two thousand dollars worth of golf club sets for the Cassville Elementary and Middle School. The student use them during their P.E. classes, and they've received some good feedback from school administration that the kids really enjoy them. This is all in an effort of getting more kids involved in the game of golf.

After issues discovered last fall regarding the new track put in at Southwest Schools, the track is finally almost complete, and this time, the right way.

The Southwest School District opted to put in a new track at the school last year with a price tag of around $350,000 from the school's general revenue building fund. The school's plans were to use the track for the school's boys and girls track and field teams as well as cross country teams and physical education classes. As an added bonus, the school was available to residents of the school district to use for walking and jogging for exercise.

The project was bid and completed in the fall, but issues were discovered with the track after it was completed by construction company Nabholz Construction Services. Southwest Superintended Bob walker said, "Last fall, it was discovered that the oval was slightly off from its required dimensions, as well as not having the necessary slope in places."

To remedy the issue, Nabholz was contacted and brought back out to complete the necessary repairs to the track so that it can be utilized once again. Currently, a sign hangs on the gate alerting students and residents of the district to the status of the track and to prevent it from being used.

The changes made to the track include fixing the dimensions and the slope. Walker said, "Extra area is being created around the entire perimeter of the oval to ensure the track will meet official specifications and measure correctly. In addition, the lack of slope and crowning problems will be resolved. The corrective measures have all been done. We are waiting for the track to receive a new asphalt overlay that will result in a smooth surface, tying in and covering the corrective base work."

Walker said that the area will be reopened for use as soon as the overlay is completed. He said, "We are waiting for the asphalt overlay to be applied. Recent rains have delayed this process. As soon as we have a decent break from all the rain we have been receiving and the area can dry out sufficiently, the contractor will finish as soon as possible."

Last fall, Walker said, There are several reasons for deciding to pursue this project. Obviously, our track kids have been at a big disadvantage in not having a workout facility. Physical education classes have had limited space for outside activities. And finally, transforming a piece of unsuitable property into a safe exercise

Justin Wells, of Wheelerville, pulled off the hat trick and doubled up with the MARS DIRTcar series at Caney Valley Speedway Saturday night. The win was worth $2,000, bringing his weekend total to $4,000. Wells also won Friday night with the MARS series at Flint Creek Speedway in West Siloam Springs, Okla. Brantlee Gotschall, of

Nevada, started on the pole for the 30 lap feature and led the first six laps before Ryan Gustin, of Marshalltown, Iowa, would grasp the lead on lap seven. Gustin would lead until sixth starting Wells would get around him on lap twelve and hold on for the win. Gotschall would get by Gustin on lap twenty and finish second. Gustin, Jason Hughes, of West Plains, and Josh Hughes, of West Plains, rounded out the top five.

The MARS DIRTcar Series presented by Andy's Frozen Custard will be back in action Friday June 12th at Outlaw Motor Speedway in Oktaha, Okla.

Mercy services meeting to be held at Central Crossing

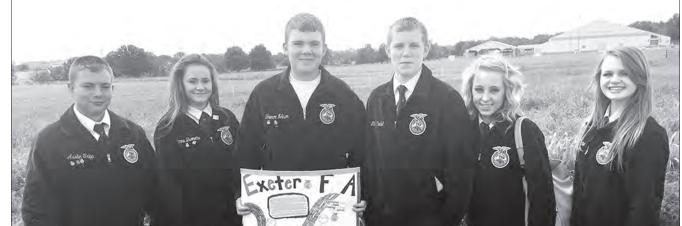

On June 17, beginning at 11:30 a.m. Chris Hoge, Director of Therapy Services for Mercy Hospital, and Nick Whelan, Doctor of Physical Therapy, will be at Central Crossing Senior Center to discuss the opening of the new Mercy Therapy Services.

Mercy Hospital entered into a lease arrangement with Shell Knob Seniors, Inc. to operate a therapy services facility in the new addition to the Central Crossing Senior Center. This will be an incredible advantage for area residents who require physical therapy and don't want to drive to other facilities in neighboring communities.

Hoge will describe the services to be offered, including hours of operation and will introduce ter FFA Officers and 186 Dr. Whelan, who will be on staff at the new facility. Both men will be available to answer any specific questions you may have and how you can take advantage of the services Mercy will cer team for their term of be offering. Everyone is in-service for the 2015-2016

Central Crossing Senior Center is located at 20801 vided team-building and Yy-15, Shell Knob. If you have any questions prior to the event, call Rita or Sara at (417) 858-6952.

Over 1,000 local Chapadvisers from 134 chapters attended the annual LEAD training. The LEAD (Learn, Educate, Advance, and Develop) training is designed to help prepare each offischool year.

The officers were probonding opportunities, the opportunity to share activities, create a code of conduct, work on a plan for chapter recruitment, and learn how to effectively implement a plan of activities. They also had the opportunity to attend breakout sessions on leading a meeting, planning events, focus on the FFA image, and time management skills.

The choice to become active team members and make a positive difference in the lives of local FFA members, school and community was evident at each site. These conferences are sponsored by the Missouri FFA Leadership Fund and were held May 26 through 29 throughout Missouri.

The facilitators consisted of past state officers, and they were divided into a north and a south team. The trainings were held at 8 different locations throughout the state. Through interactive workshops the facilitators encouraged the officer teams to reach outside their comfort zone to provide leadership opportunities for their local chapters.

The FFA is a national youth organization of over 610,000 student members preparing for leadership and careers in the science, business and technology of agriculture with 338 chapters and more than 25,800 members in Missouri. The FFA strives to make a positive difference in the lives of students by developing their potential for premier leadership, personal growth and career success through agricultural education.
