Shell Knob woman killed by truck rolling down driveway

Charlea Estes

A Shell Knob woman was killed on Thursday when a truck rolled backward down a driveway and hit her. According to the Missouri State Highway Patrol crash report, Bobbie J. Harris, 68, was killed, and another woman on foot was also hit and suffered minor injuries.

On Thursday, June 16, a 2001 Dodge Dakota Sport 4x4 was at a residence on Villa Vinee Circle in Shell Knob when it began to roll down the driveway. Harris and Judtih A. Betts, 77, Shell Knob, were both pedestrians. The Dakota first hit Betts before continuing to roll onto Villa Vinee Circle and hitting Harris.

Harris was pronounced dead at the scene by Barry County deputy coroner Becky Davison.

Betts was transported via ambulance to Mercy Hospital in Springfield for minor injuries.

Harris’ next of kin was notified. This is the Missouri State Highway Patrol Troop D’s 2nd fatal accident for the month of June and the 51st for the 2016 year.

Rachael Freeman

The Cassville Women’s Golf Association meet every Thursday to golf. They start their golf season off with a kick-off breakfast for their members as well as new members. The ladies get out their golf clubs no matter what the heat index might bring for the day. They enjoy the company and they enjoy the competition.

When a new season roles around, they association looks forward to their time on the course together but what they most look forward to is helping bring up the next generation of golfers.

In an effort to promote the game of golf to the local youth, the CWGA has started hosting two junior golf clinics during the summer.

After the release of summer school is when the first camp begins. This year, the camp was held June 20 through June 22 at the Cassville Golf Course.

More than 20 golfers from ages 7 to 14 attended the clinic.

Libraries forced to cut hours, board and staff reevaluate failed tax levy increase

Charlea Estes

After the proposed property tax levy increase by the Barry-Lawrence Regional Library was defeated in the April 2016, the library board and staff are reevaluating how to approach voters next April to try to get the measure passed.

Director Gina Milburn said that the library has already had to start making cuts because of the levy proposal’s defeat. She said, “We’ve already cut hours at our five bigger locations to close on Saturdays and the smaller branches will only be open three days a week.” The proposed levy would have added a 7-cent increase on personal property tax levies from 15 cents to 22 cents.

As of August 1, Cassville, Monett, Aurora, Mt. Vernon and Marionville are now only open Monday through Friday, from 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Smaller branches at Purdy, Eagle Rock, Shell Knob, Miller and Pierce City are open Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

Milburn said, “No one has lost their job, the board was very careful to make sure that no one had to be let go, but if someone quits, it’ll be reevaluated as to whether they will be replaced or not. Some people’s hours were reduced, but not by too much.”

On top of the hour changes, the library has also had to cut their serials and magazine budget, said they won’t get any new databases and cut some existing databases like Ancestry.com.

When asked if the library system is in trouble, Milburn said, “I would say we’ve managed our money very well and our budget reflects that. We’re on the edge, but we’re not in the red, and we don’t want to end up there. Good budgeting means we’re not waiting until we’re needing a signature loan to make payroll.”

Now, the local branches are reaching out to their communities and patrons to ask about why the levy didn’t pass and how they can help educate the community on the need. Each branch is talking to people individually and asking

Local communities gear up for 4th of July fireworks shows

Charlea Estes

Five local communities are preparing for their Fourth of July fireworks presentations. Shows this year will be hosted in Eagle Rock, Purdy, Seligman and Shell Knob, and all are free to attend

Cassville

The City of Cassville does not have a public fireworks display nor are fireworks allowed inside the city limits of Cassville at any time. Shooting fireworks in the city is against city ordinance.

Eagle Rock

Each year, the Eagle Rock fireworks display is hosted by the Eagle Rock-Golden-Mano Fire Department. This year's show will be held the day before on Sunday, July 3, with their festivities beginning at 11 a.m.

Their famous BBQ begins at 11 a.m. with brisket and pulled pork sandwiches and all the trimmings. There will also be fun activities set up for families to enjoy. Meals will be served until 7 p.m.

The fireworks show will start at dusk at the Highway 86 bridge over Table Rock Lake. This year, the launch site has been moved up the hill below the Vikings Club, and due to the change, no parking will be available at the Viking Clubs' parking lot. This year's display is going to be bigger and better than years' past.

The fireworks show is funded solely by donations each year. To make a contribution, contact the Eagle Rock-Golden-Mano Fire Department at Station One, Monday through Friday, from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. at (417) 271-3641. You can also mail your donation to the department at 30625 State Highway 86, Eagle Rock, MO 65641.

Purdy

Purdy's fireworks show will be hosted by TRT Fireworks, the city's local fireworks stand owned by Ken and Julie Terry. The free show will be on July 3 with fireworks beginning at 9 p.m. Other festivities will begin at 5 p.m. with music until the fireworks show starts. Bring a lawn chair.

Seligman

Seligman's fireworks will be on Monday, July 4, with festivities beginning at dark. The Seligman Chamber of Commerce will have free hamburgers, hotdogs and drinks for those in attendance beginning at 7 p.m.

Fireworks will be allowed within city limits from week prior to and the week after the 4th of July until 10 p.m. each evening with the exception until midnight on the Fourth of July.

Shell Knob

Shell Knob will have a fireworks display and boat show on Monday, July 4.

Washburn

Washburn has not released any information about an official fireworks show in the city. However, fireworks will be allowed within the city limits on July 3 and 4 from 9 a.m. until 11 p.m. each day.

Wheaton

The Wheaton Fire Department will host their annual Freedom Jam on Monday, July 4, with the event beginning at 6 p.m. in the Wheaton City Park. Music will begin with local band The Wild Grease Fire and headlining will be The Black Moods, led by Wheaton graduate Josh Kennedy.

The free event will also have fireworks beginning at dark. Concessions will also be available during Freedom Jam. Bring a lawn chair or blanket to watch the show. For more information, see the Wheaton Fire Department's Facebook page for updates.

GOLF from FRONT

This year, Susie Jacobs, of the Cassville WGA, was excited to have four volunteers from the Purdy Lady Eagles High School golf team, along with their coach Eli Ernst. Breanna Keeler, a 2016 PHS graduate, Morgan Grissom, an incoming senior at Purdy, and Madison and McKenzie Renkoski, both incoming sophmores, all volunteered their time to help the young golfers in the three-day clinic.

Golfers were separated by age groups and rotated stations. Volunteers broke down the basics of golfing, focusing on: grip, aim, set-up, putting, chipping, pitching and full swing.

Many of the campers were anxious to put their full swing together at the driving ranges. Even some of the youngest campers, whose golf clubs nearly matched their own height, were driving the ball with force.

Despite the sun beating down on them, the members of the Cassville Women's Golf association were a welcoming and excited group. With hands-on coaching, they had their putters and pitching wedges on the greens right next the campers lending them tips in their techniques as well as encouragment when campers showed their frustrations.

The CWGA makes sure to provide clubs for the golfers so they can attend even if they do not own their own clubs. The clinic is $25 per camper with registration still open for the July clinic.

The July clinic will be held July 18 through July 20, from 8:30 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. The clinic is open to golfers from ages 7-14. For registration, contact Susie Jacobs at (417)-847-7482.

The Cassville Women's Golf Association is always open to new members. In last weeks meeting, 12 golfers braved the scorching heat.

The game of the day was "blind partner". First place, with a net team score of 142, went to Karry Lewis and Lynn Blanke. Second place, with a net team score of 145, went to Penny Hall and Becky Ryder. Third place, with a net team score of 152, went to Donna Richards and Pam Graham. Low putts (30) went to Jeanette Skorupski. Ann Leoppe and Penny Hall had a birdie on hole #11. Lynn Blanke has a chip in on hole #16 and Becky Ryder had a chip in on hole #17.

The Cassville Women's Golf Association meet every Thursday to golf.

The ladies get out their golf clubs no matter what the heat index might bring for the day. They enjoy the company, and they enjoy the compeition.

Horn takes over Webb City basketball

Lee Stubblefield

Jason Horn, former Southwest coach and Cassville resident, has accepted the position of head basketball coach at Webb City High School. Horn coached at Southwest for six years, and his 93 wins are the most by any Trojans varsity boys coach. In the past four seasons, he has slowly turned Neosho from doormat to a competitive program.

"I'm proud of what our staff was able to accomplish at Neosho," said Horn. "The program lacked stability, structure and commitment. Coming in, there were no opportunities for our youth to play basketball and we were able to establish the Neosho Youth Basketball Association and Neosho Basketball Skills Academy to address that situation. The kids at the high school level have begun to close the gap and compete at a higher level in the conference."

Horn leaves Neosho in good shape and is ready for the challenges and opportunities at Webb City.

"Webb City is a great opportunity for my family. They have the best athletic facilities in the state. I'm excited to be a part of a district with such a strong tradition of excellence in academics and athletics," he said.

Horn's resume' includes: 118 career wins, two conference championships;

four tournament titles; three-time conference coach of the year and most career wins at Southwest High School

Jason Horn was also instrumental in helping to establish the 4 States Basketball Coaches Association, and was named the President of that Association

Barry County Courts send 9 to prison in the month of May

• Carl E. Barnes, of Aurora, pled guilty to forgery and is to serve 120 days of shock time of a seven year incarceration sentence with the Department of Corrections. Barnes was already on probation for pleading guilty to forgery in January 2015, and his probation has now been revoked. His shock time for that offense is to run concurrently with the recent charge.

Barnes' charges came from a report made by Friendly Tire in Monett that a check had been forged and passed at the business in November 2014. The check was drawn on an account that did not exist and was written in the amount of $324.44. The checks were part of an ongoing investigation into Barnes and two others. Another check was stolen form a victim in Pierce City, and checks were passed at Walmart in Republic and Price Cutter in Webb City in June 2015. Barnes was identified by security video in those cases. Barnes also wrote forged checks to other locations, as well.

• John Jason Bartholomew, of Goodman, pled guilty to endangering the welfare of a child in the first degree and possession of a controlled substance. Bartholomew was sentenced to seven years incarceration for the charges of which he will serve 120 days of shock time.

On April 14, 2014, Bartholomew was arrested following an investigation of drug activity in his home in Wheaton. Statements made by the three children in his home alerted the authorities to possible drug activity and described a green camo box where Bartholomew kept his syringes.

When officers investigated, Bartholomew admitted to having marijuana, but no other illegal substances. When officers found the box that contained syringes, spoons and a melted green pill, as well as marijuana pipes with burnt residue, Bartholomew said it belonged to another person. However, there was a letter inside the box that was addressed to him.

All of the illegal drug paraphernalia was within reach of the children in the home. Officers also said the home was unsanitary for children.

• Stephen M. Brody, of Everton, pled guilty to two counts of statutory sodomy in the second degree. Brody was granted a suspended execution of a seven year incarceration sentence and five years supervised probation.

The charges against Brody originated in Lawrence County at a residence in Everton, and the case was transferred to Barry County on a change of venue. In March 2015, two girls, ages 15 and 16, made reports that Brody had touched them inappropriately while they were living in the home in Everton. The forensic interview revealed that Brody put his hands in their shirts, entered their rooms at inappropriate times while they were not dressed, and touched them inappropriately.

Brody is to serve probation until May 16, 2021.

• Michael D. Carr, of Shell Knob, made an Alford plea to theft/stealing of $500 to $25,000 in value. Carr was granted a suspended imposition of sentencing and five years supervised probation.

Carr is to serve probation until May 16, 2021.

• Jason Matthew Clark, of Wheaton, pled guilty to manufacturing a controlled substance within 2,000 feet of a school, possession of a controlled substance and three counts of endangering the welfare of a child in the first degree. Clark received a suspended imposition of sentencing and five years supervised probation.

Clark was arrested following an investigation into possible drug activity at his apartment on Hill Street in Wheaton in October 2014. When officers arrived, they found two jars of liquid that tested positive for methamphetamine, as well as multiple precursors to meth and paraphernalia. The shake and bake methamphetamine operation was done inside the apartment, which is within 2,000 feet of the Wheaton school and is public housing. There were also additional charges because there were three minor children in the home, as well.

Clark is to serve probation until May 17, 2021.

• Eddie Mack Cook, Jr., of Purdy, pled guilty to tampering with a motor vehicle in the first degree. Cook received a suspended imposition of sentencing and five years supervised probation.

On December 30, 2015, Cook was involved in a motor vehicle crash on Route H. Cook wrecked a 1999 Ford F-150 pickup in the ditch and then fled the scene. During the investigation, officers discovered that Cook had engaged in a fight with the mother of his child earlier and assaulted another person in her home. When her father attempted to find Cook, he found the wrecked truck and reported it. Authorities believe Cook failed to negotiate a curve and crashed as he left the woman's home.

The pickup truck that Cook was driving was stolen from a man whom he had been working for and living in a house on his farm for the previous 10 days. The value of the truck was around $8,500 and $9,000 of equipment and tools. The owner of the pickup confronted

Cook verbally at Terry's Café in Shell Knob in front of Barry County Sheriff Mick Epperly the next day, and Cook admitted to stealing the truck.

Cook is to serve probation until May 16, 2021.

• Lane Aaron Curran, of Exeter, pled guilty to DWI-Alcohol as a persistent offender. Curran received a suspended execution of a four year incarceration sentence with the Department of Corrections and five years supervised probation.

Curran was arrested following a Cassville Police officer observing him make a left turn from a right-turn only lane in June 2015. Curran failed field sobriety tests and had previous DWI convictions.

Curran is to serve probation until May 18, 2021.

• Daphne C. Doty, of Monett, pled guilty to possession of a controlled substance. Doty received a suspended imposition of sentencing and four years supervised probation.

Doty was arrested after a narcotics investigation at a residence she was staying at in December 2014. In the bedroom where Doty and another woman were staying, officers found three ounces of methamphetamine, digital scales, drug paraphernalia and a fourth of a pound of marijuana.

Doty is to serve probation until May 16, 2020.

• Rochelle Denise Duncan, of Mt. Vernon, made an Alford plea to passing a bad check of $500 or more with insufficient funds. Duncan received a suspended imposition of sentencing, three years supervised probation, and she must pay restitution.

Duncan wrote checks to Monett dentist Dr. Stephan Stidham's office in the amount of $2,900 in May 2015, knowing that they would not be paid.

Duncan is to serve probation until May 17, 2019.

• James Lee Flanigan, of Hillsboro, pled guilty to theft/stealing of $500 to $25,000 in value. Flanigan received a sus-

An old-school fusebox might still function adequately, but it lacks the safety features that are built into modern circuit breakers. If your home or other building still has one of these antique devices, it's time for an update.

Consult a qualified electrician for a complete review of your electrical wires and fixtures, and replace any outdated equipment that no longer meets safety specifications. Your electric cooperative can also provide guidance and assistance.

City of Cassville’s Jennifer Evans earns CPFO designation

Julie Pruitt

Jennifer Evans is an intelligent and driven woman who has accomplished what only 12 other people in Missouri have achieved. She has graduated from the Government Finance Officers Association (GFOA) as a CPFO (certified public finance officer). The self study program is an extensive and difficult course covering five different exams in public finance. This is such an intense course students are given seven years to take the five exams which cover Governmental Accounting, Auditing, and Financial Reporting, Cash Management and Investments, Debt Management, Operating and Capital Budgeting, and Pension and Benefits, Risk Management and Procurement.

Before she could begin this arduous task, she had to have a Bachelors degree and three years in government accounting. The tests are given in the spring, summer and fall and provide no study guides or curriculum, only recommended readings. Jennifer started the program in the fall of 2014 and her first test of 175 questions covered the book, Governmental Accounting Auditing and Financial Reporting, which was over 1000 pages long. She studied for six months before taking the test. She was told it was very difficult and not to get discouraged if she failed. Jennifer proudly passed the test the first time and went on take a test a semester, passing each one the first time. This is a major accomplishment requiring weeks of study before each test, and she was able to graduate in the spring of 2016. Now, Jennifer, the mayor, council and city can have confidence the finances of Cassville will be handled correctly and efficiently and the audit will be completed with no problems.

What started Jennifer on this path to success? She graduated from Southwest Baptist University in Bolivar with a Bachelors degree in Mathematics. She taught school for a few years then took time off to raise her children. She then worked part time for 13 years in the banking business before taking the job of city clerk in April 2013. In 2014, she was promoted to the position of City Clerk/Finance Officer. At this time, she had no accounting background and knew she needed this knowledge to successfully perform her duties as a finance officer. Government accounting is completely different from the private sector, which led her to the GFOA. Now upon graduating, she only has to participate in 30 hours of continuing professional education each year to maintain her designation.

She is very grateful to the mayor and council who encouraged and supported her throughout this program. She could not have done it without them.

Evans lives in Cassville with her husband, Daron, and their three children, Jaci, Pace and Jolie.

No disrespect is intended, but I would like to meet the person who came up with the heat index. Back when I was a boy, 95° was 95°. Now with this “heat index” 95° is 95° but it “feels like 104°.” I don’t need to know that. That is just something I do not need to know.

It seems that people thrive on things we don’t need to know when the facts should be enough. “Then certain of the scribes and of the Pharisees answered, saying, Master, we would see a sign from thee.” “For the Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom:” Matthew 12:38; 1st Corinthians 1:22. The Jews sought a sign; additional information that was not needed. They had The Law and the Prophets. That would be enough to confirm Jesus as the Messiah.

Today we have the teachings of Jesus and the inspired writers of the New Testament. That should be enough to confirm Jesus as the Messiah. Let’s not tempt God by demanding unneeded additional information.

“According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue. 2nd Peter 1:3. Please join us at The Mill Street Church of Christ as we worship in spirit and in truth.

According to the affidavit of probable cause, Barker was near the end of his driveway on Farm Road 2300 where he was attempting to sell the meth. Barry County Deputy Chris Hutson found Barker to have a digital scale, plastic baggies and 11 ounces of crystal methamphetamine in individual baggies for sale. He also had $700 in cash.

LIBRARIES from FRONT

questions about why they personally feel it didn't pass, what others have said about the proposal, and what they can do better in the future to help voters understand the need for the increase.

The library system is working with Every Library, which is an organization that helps libraries pass tax levies. Milburn said, "We didn't use them before because, honestly, we thought it would pass, but now we have guidelines to follow."

Every Library has Barry-Lawrence talking to people individually, encouraged them to form a strategic plan for their system, and is helping them to form a Political Action Committee to encourage people to vote yes. Milburn said, "We, as librarians, can't ask people to vote yes, but a PAC can do that. It has to be run by the community."

After listening to individuals in the community, the library hopes to begin campaigning in January 2017 for the April 2017 vote. As they get closer, they'll think about the wording of the ballot, but Milburn says they'll still be asking for the 7-cent increase.

The concentrated effort to ask the community about their opinions has yielded a lot of commentary. Milburn said, "It's been an interesting conglomerate. A lot of people are saying they don't want more taxes, but one thing that sticks out is that a lot of people don't understand how property tax levies are calculated, that it's not thousands of dollars they are paying the library on their home, it's just based off of a percentage of their home's value.

"We've tried to break that down in our literature, show that its not has bad as everyone thinks, but it's a challenge."

Milburn said that another hurdle is getting people out to vote. She said, "A lot of people said they didn't vote because they thought it would pass and that they didn't need to. So we need to encourage people to get out and vote."

Other issues that arose involved smaller communities worrying that all of the money was going to be used for the larger branches, which isn't the case. Because of the small amounts of funding at the smaller branches, without the larger branches, smaller communities wouldn't be able to fund their libraries. Some don't even take in enough revenue to pay the salary of one person operating the branch, but Milburn assured that the funds are used for all of the branches based on what they need.

Milburn said, "We had a lot of people really think that Monett was going to get a new building with this money, which isn't what this levy is for. We've always had building maintenance, and we own eight out of 10 of our branches. All of those branches have been remodeled except for Monett, where we have even been taping the carpet to keep it together, but the funds are going to many different things, not building a new Monett branch."

As time passes, the library hopes that with Every Library's guidance, they'll be able to educate the public on the need for more operating revenue. Milburn said, "We're in the same boat as most other libraries."

Right now, the library applies for grants for technology upgrades and their summer reading program to help supplement their funding and keep patrons able to use their facilities.

However, even grants are a 25 percent match which has to come from tax-funded revenue.

Milburn said, "We are one payment away from being in trouble if anything major happens to one of our branches. We have no way of paying for it if there were something major like a tornado. We would be stuck."

If you would like to voice your opinion about the proposed property tax levy that was defeated in April, contact librarians or staff at your local branch.

Roaring River Healthcare and Rehab is a place to call home

Above, Heather Gusta, the activities director for Roaring River Healthcare and Rehab, watches Christopher Tackett, 5, pick a duck from the duck pool at their carnival on Saturday.

Julie Pruitt

Roaring River Health and Rehabilitation’s greenhouse is growing by leaps and bounds. There are tiny flowers grown from seeds poking through the soil along with the first jalapeño, and cucumbers and cabbage will soon be ready to pick. According to Rachel Sheets, a resident, “We have over 60 bulbs and roots in the first raised bed and there will soon be fresh cut flowers for the dining room tables.”

Rachel also shared the story of another raised bed she calls her memory bed. She was a volunteer at Hospice Compassus and formed very close bonds with some of the patients. Rachel comforted one patient, Sarah, through the night, calmed her and sang hymns and they formed a very special friendship. She was greatly missed when she passed so one of the flowers in the memory bed is in her honor. Another patient, Jerry, is also honored in the memory bed because Rachel became close to her and her family. Together they celebrated Jerry’s life. A giant pansy was planted in honor of the oldest resident at Roaring River Health and Rehabilitation along with impatiens for another resident who is unable to come to the greenhouse.

There’s another garden in the backyard with raised flower beds, bird feeders for white and gray doves and hummingbirds, and bird houses painted by the residents which now contain baby birds. The flower beds are gorgeous and growing thanks in large part, to Rachel Sheets and Shawn Erke. They bought the flowers, planted them and are taking excellent care of them. The backyard is like a zoo with squirrels, raccoons and even an opossum.

Out front the staff and residents had a garage sale on June 10 and 11 with items that had been donated and the proceeds going to the Community Carnival and Fireworks on June 25. Raffle tickets are also available for a huge tub full of fun summer fun including flip flops, camping chairs, water guns, bubbles, $40 cash and so much more.

Another fun activity involves the staff and residents. The staff has divided into three teams: The Heat, Trailblazers, and Warriors, and, for the next three months, they are working to earn points to win $20,000 which will be divided among the teams according to 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place graciously donated by the corporate owners. The teams can earn points by going above and beyond in tasks, activities and care of patients. The residents are the cheerleaders and hand out bonus points, MVP awards, and fouls for any staff member who doesn’t answer a call light, doesn’t participate in the activities or not taking care of their duties in a timely manner. The staff is having lots of fun and sponsor bingo, rallies and even a scavenger hunt to earn points. Everyone is anxiously awaiting the results of this contest.

Roaring River Health and Rehabilitation is a place for fun and quality care. They work hard to provide activities and projects to keep the residents happy, active and motivated.

Propps to perform with All-National Honor choir

Propps

Purdy High School Senior Kaden Propps, son of Kevin and Mica Propps, recently received his acceptance letter from the prestigious National Association for Music Education (NAfME) All-National Honor Choir. Propps, who performs under the direction of Purdy Vocal Music Instructor Lauren Lee, will travel to Dallas, Tex., and attend master classes, educational sessions and rigorous rehearsals November 10-13. The experience will culminate with a gala performance on November 13 at the Gaylord

Texan Resort Hotel and Convention Center.

Propps survived an intense audition and application process, consisting of a video submission. He shared, "The selection committee chose the song, an acapella piece. I had to learn it in three days. I also opted to submit a second, elective piece, 'Lasciatemi Morire.'" In addition to his video auditions, Propps submitted a detailed application, and his teacher and mentor, Mrs. Lauren Lee, provided a letter of recommendation.

Propps was selected for the Tenor 1 part. He noted of the moment he received the email containing his acceptance letter, "I sorted through a whole list of emails that morning, mostly junk, but my heart skipped a beat when I saw the NAFME logo and the subject, 'Congratulations.' I jumped for joy after reading of my acceptance. I was shaking when I called my mom and Mrs. Lee. Only 38 vocalists were chosen for the Tenor 1 part last year. I am honored beyond description to be among this elite group for the 2016 performance."

Terrie and Kathi Zornes opened the White River Diner in Eagle Rock in August 2015 and have worked hard building a successful business. They serve many people from Holiday Island and tourists on their way to Eureka Springs or Branson. They have enjoyed forming friendships with their customers and creating a menu to fit all tastes. They serve breakfast and lunch and, of course, dessert any time.

Their menu items include pulled pork, smoked especially by Terrie, that can be served with or without a bun along with everyone’s favorite catfish and, of course, the All-American burger. If you are thinking breakfast, how about Belgian waffles, omelets or French toast accompanied by bacon?

Genealogy group to start in Shell Knob

Central Crossing Senior Center is supporting a genealogy Interest Group at the Center. Currently, they are looking for people who have an interest in looking into their families’ roots. If sufficient interest is shown, the idea is to have a group up and functioning by the end of this summer.

If you’ve ever wondered where you family originated from and perhaps what events might have triggered where they settled, this may be your opportunity to begin the research to find out. If there is sufficient interest in getting a genealogy group formed, Sharon Clute, who currently oversees the Center’s Recreational Library, will also oversee the genealogy group. Sharon has experience in genealogical research and will be of invaluable assistance if such a group can be formed.

In the meantime, if genealogy interests you, please call the Central Crossing Senior Center Administrator, Sara Patterson, at (417)858-6952 .
