Table Rock makes difference in assessed valuations

E.M.

Barry County Clerk Gary Youngblood and Stone County Clerk Judy Berkstresser completed their aggregate assessed evaluations of all property in their respective counties. A public hearing was held in Barry County, and the Stone County Commission will hold its public hearing on Tuesday, September 16, according to the legal notices published in the August 28 issue of the Stone County Republican/Crane Chronicle.

To compare the two counties with the 857 miles of shoreline of Table Rock Lake (the dam is located at the east Stone County line just over in Taney County) we have obtained information on the effects of Barry and Stone County 2014 County tax collectors.

Roughly one-third of the lake is located in Barry County and two-thirds in Stone County.

For comparison, Barry County is comprised of 773 square miles. Stone County has 451 square miles. A state estimate for the 2013 population of Barry County is 35,597 and Stone County with 32,202.

Yet Stone County has a total assessed valuation of $564,408,662 while Barry County has a total assessed valuation of $442,984,371.

Each of the municipal subdivisions (such as ambulance districts, road districts, school districts and various subdivisions of the county government) sets their own levies which will be applied

Drug bust yields marijuana plants in Seligman

Charlea Mills

An anonymous tip last week led to the arrest of one man after officers found eight marijuana plants growing outside his trailer in Seligman. Kenyon Ray Johnson, 60, was taken into custody on charges of possession of a controlled substance with intent to distribute and two counts of possession of a controlled substance. Johnson is currently held in the Barry County Jail in lieu of $17,087 bond.

According to Sheriff Mick Epperly, Deputies Chris Hutson and Alvin Zabala were dispatched to assist Seligman Police Officer Ray Earnest to investigate a tip made regarding a drug operation. Epperly stated, "When they arrived on the property, Johnson had the marijuana plants just growing right there by the trailer." Officers confiscated eight plants that were each seven to nine feet tall during the search on Wednesday, August 27, around 10 p.m.

Once officers received consent to search the residence on Fair Street in Seligman, they also found several marijuana pipes in Johnson's

Southwest Schools advance technology use

To keep up with the demands of modern technology and learning, Southwest Schools implemented one-to-one technology for students at the middle school and high school levels this year. The move, according to Superintendent Bob Walker, is to improve instruction.

The one-to-one technology initiative refers to each individual student having access to a tablet or notebook during school. Walker stated, "Technology has become so much more a part of our students' lives, it is only logical to assume when it is used correctly, it can enhance learning." High school students each have Chromebooks to use during their school day, and middle schoolers use Promethean Kuno tablets. A final decision is yet to be made on what will be provided for the K-4 students, according to Walker. Elementary students still have access to the computer lab and workstations set up in the individual classrooms, as well until the switch is made.

The total project cost the district approximately $255,000 for the notebooks and tablets. The Chromebooks were $320 each, and the Kuno tablets were $500. Those prices also included the storage and charging carts. Currently, the policy for use is for high school classrooms to be equipped with the Chromebooks and students use them in each room. For the middle school students, they are each assigned a Kuno at the beginning of the day, then return it during final hour. As it stands, students are not allowed to take the technology home to use. Walker said that the cam-bedroom. He was found to be in possession of two glass pipes that field tested positive for the presence of methamphetamine, as well. Johnson has a previous criminal history.

County Horticulture Fair slated for Sept. 6

Charlea Mills

For the first time in recent memory, Barry County will have a horticulture fair for county residents to show off their produce, flowers and canned goods. The fair is slated for Saturday, September 6, in conjunction with the Farmers' Market on the Square in Cassville and is to run from 8 a.m. until 3 p.m. with entry check-in from 6:30 a.m. until 9 a.m.

The Horticulture Fair is sponsored by the Cassville Main Street Association and the Garden Sass Farmers' Market Association. Along with judging in various categories, there will also be music during the event beginning at 11 a.m. with the Possum Holler Fiddlers and Ozark Mountain Revival at 1 p.m., a dunk tank, a watermelon seed spitting contest at 10 a.m. and more.

This year's produce and goods will be judged in a variety of categories, but all items must be grown, made or gathered in Barry County to qualify. The contest is open to all Barry County residents and Garden Sass Farmers' Market Association members in good standing.

Categories for judging will be produce, cut herbs, cut flowers and foliage. In the canning judging, categories are jams, jellies, pickles, salsa and other. There will also be a competition for honey, eggs, cut flower arrangements, dry arrangements and mixed arrangements. Mixed arrangements

Looking at the figures, one can readily see the vast difference Table Rock Lake makes on the two counties as far as the value of residential real estate has made over the years.

When Table Rock Dam was built in the late 1950s, Barry County had a 1960 population of 18,921 and Stone County had 8,176 residents. In other words, Stone County population today is four-times what it was when Table Rock Dam was built and Barry County's population has doubled.

While the program is still new and teachers and students alike are getting accustomed to the newness of the program, Walker said that there is a lot of potential with one-to-one technology. "Obviously, we have just begun this process, but we are very excited about how things are progressing. Some noticeable practices that are already being established after only a few weeks include high school and middle school students becoming more proficient in communicating with their teachers through their devices, assignments, quizzes, and details pertaining to upcoming activities are being exchanged in a paperless format," he said. Walker went on to mention the benefits of education videos, researching being completed more quickly by students and the helpfulness of different applications for enhancing teachers' lesson plans.

So are computer labs being phased out in the Southwest District? Not any time soon. Walker said, "In a sense, every classroom has become a computer lab that is available every day. We're not planning on phasing out our computer labs anytime soon. I'm sure there will still be certain activities or tasks that will be best addressed through a lab setting."

The main goal for the program is to help children learn through more efficient instruction that keeps up with the pace needed for kids born in a technology-driven world. Walker said, "Our overall goal is to improve instruction. We want to more effectively the archer through a medium that kids are accustomed to, in addition, we believe by providing individual decides to students, their opportunities for twining and practical applications will be greatly increased, whereat they enter higher education or pursue a vocation that requires a technology background."

The Chromebooks and Kuno tablets we're purchased through a $300,000 funding lease purchase that also included 11 smartboards and other miscellaneous items. The purchase is a series of bi-annual payments made over three years.

Allison will run Security Abstract and Title while Dan continues in his role at Angel and Co. CPAs. Allison has been the financial manager of Dan's accounting business for 20 years and has a degree in marketing and business administration.

"With both of our boys grown, I was looking for a new challenge and when Dan told me Donna wanted to sell her business and retire, it sounded just like the challenge I was looking for. I love the history and level of detail involved in the title business. Each search is a history of the land and the people who owned it," stated Allison.

"When Tammy Littleton, who has more than 30 years experience in the title business, agreed to come on board as manager, it all fell into place. I am also really blessed to have the rest of Donna's employees staying with me. The skill and professionalism of both Crystal Boyer and Diane Inman are testaments to Donna's commitment to accuracy and integrity," she said.

Security Abstract and Title is located at 110 West 7th Street, Cassville, and can be reached via phone at (417) 847-2063. They are open Monday-Friday, 8 a.m.-4:30

CLEVA ELLEN DOUGLAS

Cleve Ellen Douglas, 106, died August 29, 2014, at Red Rose Health and Rehabilitation, Cassville, Missouri. She was born November 22, 1907 to Harmon and Dora (Dawson) Williams at Glade, Arkansas.

She attended Coal Gap School, completing the eighth grade. She married Harry Douglas June 25, 1924. In 1927 they both accepted Jesus as their Lord and Savior and made it their practice to follow his teachings. They lived in the Glade community until 1944, moving to Gateway, Arkansas, to provide better educational opportunities for their children.

After their four children were grown, they raised three grandchildren who kept them active. Harry died in 1980 and, for the first time in her life, Cleve was faced with spending the night alone. Her faith didn't fail her, and she continued to live alone on the farm until she was 94. At age 101, she chose to move to Red Rose and remained content with that decision.

Cleve and Harry were well known for their gift of hospitality and were always ready to help anyone in need. Even through tough times and hard work, they took time to sing, read, tell stories and play games with their children. Cleve's lack of formal education never stopped her from learning. If she had free time, she spent it reading, crocheting and quilting. Beside her love for gardening, she enjoyed traveling, having covered most of the states and several foreign countries. Her middle name was "Go".

Preceding her in death are husband, Harry; son, Dean; grandson, Terry Douglas; brothers, Virgil, Omar and Liss Williams; sister, Clema Wilson; and son-in-law, Chalmers Porter. Cleve is survived by daughters; Betty Porter, of Fargo, North Dakota; Glenda Hanna and husband, John (Bill), of Quitman, Arkansas; and son, William (Bill), and wife, Susan, of Cassville; ten grandchildren; nineteen great-grandchildren; eight great-great-grandchildren, and many loving nieces, nephews and friends.

A visitation and funeral was Tuesday, September 2, 2014, in Rollins Funeral Home Chapel. Burial followed at Ruddick Cemetery in Garfield.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Samaritan's Purse: P O Box 3000, Boone, NC 28607 or Ruddick Cemetery: c/o Dorothy Williams, 13451 Ventris Rd., Garfield, AR 72732.

Southwest’s first quarter StuCo Seligman train ride

Deborah Toler, Southwest’s Elementary School counselor, started a Student Council for fourth graders at the school this year. Each quarter, a boy and a girl will be picked from each of the fourth grade classrooms to be role models in the school and demonstrate that they are safe, respectful learners. During their time as student council members, the students will be asked to help with new students, read to younger students, run errands for their teachers, eat lunch with younger students, and more.

The Seligman Chamber of Commerce’s fall train ride will be on Saturday, October 11, and Sunday, October 12. The ride will take passengers from Seligman to Van Buren, Ark., in conjunction with the Arts and Crafts Days in Van Buren.

Travel the beautiful Boston Mountains and shop in the old Van Buren downtown district. There will also be music on the street.

Pin up that ponytail or wax that DA, and enjoy the music from the good old days with fun, games and the pie auction. Lunch will be served from 11 a.m. until 12:30 p.m. and will include Jim Fohn’s famous BBQ and desserts. The event will be held on Saturday, September 13, from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 pm. ## MariCorp sponsors Shakin' in the Shell

MariCorp U.S., LLC is a gold sponsor of this year's 9th Annual Shakin' in the Shell Festival and the 25th Annual Classic and Custom Car, Truck and Cycle Show which will take place Saturday, September 20, 2014, at Shell Knob's Chamber Park.

In response to questions concerning 2014 business levels, MariCorp CEO and Founder Scott Fitzpatrick, in conjunction with Vice President of Business Development Melanie Ashby, expressed optimism. Fitzpatrick stated, "If we keep on track where we are year-to-date, we should be well ahead of last year. We are pleased with what opportunities there are out there right now and just want to keep moving forward."

Ashby added "Continuing the same rate of growth that we've been experiencing over the past several years is a big challenge for us." Fitzpatrick said, "Since we started this business, we've grown in sales every year with the exception of one." That is a positive in an industry that specializes in working for marinas and that Fitzpatrick describes as mature with its limited number of players and increasing regulations at both the state and local levels.

Fitzpatrick and Ashby have a keen interest in the growth of the Shell Knob community. Fitzpatrick emphasized that they have a "vested interest in seeing Shell Knob grow and seeing the other businesses in Shell Knob doing well and making Shell Knob a more attractive place for younger families to move" that will in turn attract "people that have the skill set that is required and the desire to work." "We appreciate the business we do get from our community and the support we've received over the years that I've been here. I've grown up in Shell Knob. I love it here. I love Table Rock Lake, and I just want to see everybody around here do well."

Why support the Shakin' Festival? Ashby replied, "We want the community to know we are proud to be a part of the community, too, and that is why we do a lot of sponsoring of events like this."

Fitzpatrick, who is also a member of the Missouri House of Representatives, District 158, added, "The value we see in it is it provides an opportunity for the community to show itself off. I think any time you can have an event like this that you can advertise and bring people in from surrounding communities and they see what Shell Knob is like can only stand to benefit the community. On the one hand, it demonstrates how fortunate we are and on the other, it may provide more opportunities for every business to have more customers if the area grows."

Rockin' P hosts ranch rodeo in Neosho

Rockin' P Ranch & Ar-eandna held another ranch rodeo at the Crowder College Roughrider Arena on Satur-day night, August 30th. This was the fourth rodeo of the six rodeo series for the cow-boys competing on the buck-les, with a record of 19 teams. With rain all around the area, the Roughrider Arena was in great condition, and the evening started off with the opening ceremonies led by announcer Gene Robbins and the flag carried by Josh Kern from the Rafter 8 team. The Rockin' P staff changed up the events for this rodeo and had the cow-boys competing in sorting, brand, mug and load, and then last but not least, team-roping.

The team that placed first in points in two of the five events and went home with first place was – the F4 Cat-tle Co. team (Clark Broyles, Clint Broyles, James Frazier and Nigel Schoon). Second and third places were a tie be-tween the Bailey Ranch and newcomers the Last Chance Ranch (Dylan Burns, Steven Hendrix, Brad Hickman and Chris Murray). Fourth place was won by the Rafter 8 team (Ryan Geier, Tyler Pender-graft, Josh Kern and Brandon Reynolds).

The Twisted X Boot Gift Certificate was awarded to Dakota Coberly, who com-petes on the Circle H & C team.

The next Rockin' P Ranch Rodeo is scheduled for this Saturday, September 6, at 6 p.m. This rodeo will be the benefit for Mike Goetz and the evening will begin with a Calcutta, events and a live auction.

Mountain Grove tops Wildcats, 30-19

Lee Stubblefield

Johnny Unitas belongs to history. Johnny Manziel belongs to the Browns. But at the prep level of southwest Missouri, Johnny Football belongs to Mountain Grove.

Johnny Healy, the senior quarterback, led the Panthers to an impressive 30-19 road victory over Cassville on Friday, August 29. Healy racked up 151 yards on the ground on 28 attempts, including a 20-yard touchdown on the first play of the fourth quarter that put the game out of reach. He was deadly through the air too, completing seven of nine for 181 yards and a pair of touchdowns.

Mountain Grove controlled the line of scrimmage and the clock, finishing the night just three seconds short of doubling up Cassville in time of possession, 31:57 to 16:03.

The Wildcats, impressive in their initial outing against Aurora, played solid at times but lacked the consistency to stay with the Panthers. Gabe Kirk was brilliant in the first quarter but disappeared from the stat sheet in the second half following Mountain Grove's defensive adjustments. Chase Jackson was just a yard shy of the century mark, but 60 of his 99 yards came on one long touchdown run.

Throughout the game, the Panthers came up big in critical situations, while the Wildcats failed to convert.

Turnovers, dropped passes, missed assignments, a safety, all of these factors combined equalled a long night for the Wildcat Nation.

With all the hype surrounding the first home game and being featured on KY3's Game of the Week broadcast, the Wildcats were pumped for the chance to prove themselves against the state-ranked Panthers. Healy led Mountain Grove on a 9-play, 73-yard drive to open the scoring. On fourth-and-11 at the Cassville 34-yard line, he delivered a laser to a wide-open Seth Akers for a touchdown. The two-point conversion gave Mountain Grove an 8-0 lead with 7:05 left in the opening quarter.

The Panthers gambled with an onside kick attempt that gave Cassville possession on the Mountain Grove side of midfield. Gabe Kirk carried on three consecutive plays, gaining 15, 24, and then 7 yards to reach the end zone. Kendal Branham's kick pulled Cassville within a point at 8-7, with 6:25 on the clock.

After holding the Panthers to a rare punt on the following possession, Cassville took the lead.

Leigh Cox returned Blaine Halford's punt to mid-field to set up Kirk and the offense. On third-and-4 at the 44, Kirk flipped a pass in the right flat to Cade Pendergraft. The senior wideout found a seam down the side-line, broke inside the hash-mark and was finally brought down inside the 5-yard line. A penalty against the Panthers put the ball a yard shy of the goal line.

Running from the wish-bone formation, Chase Jackson plunged in to score on second down to give the Wildcats the lead. Although the PAT failed, Cassville went in front with just 20 seconds left in the first quarter, 13-8.

But the second quarter left the Wildcats shaking their heads. Both teams wasted long drives to start the period. Healy fumbled deep in Cassville territory, and the Wildcats came up short on fourth-and-8 at the Mountain Grove 35-yard line.

Two plays later, Trystan Short shot off right tackle into the Cassville secondary and eluded the defense on a 60-yard scoring run. Healy scored on a successful two-point conversion, and the Panthers regained the lead, 14-13, with 4:24 left in the half.

The Wildcats fumbled the ball away on the ensuing kickoff, but the defense stopped Short on fourth-and-1 at the Cassville 24-yard line to douse that fire. But Cassville failed to move the chains, and Kirk took a safety after a bad snap on the punt play, and Mountain Grove led 18-13 at halftime.

Jackson's 60-yard scoring sprint on the third play of the third quarter gave the Wildcats their last lead at 19-18.

The Panthers struck quickly to regain the lead. On the 10th play of a drive that began at the Mountain Grove 25-yard line, Healy found Halford open on a hitch-and-go pattern. The glue-fingered senior hauled in the pass and raced into the end zone to complete the 38-yard scoring play. The PAT failed, but Mountain Grove had a 24-19 lead with 5:27 left in the quarter.

Cassville could not cross midfield on the next crucial possession, and Kirk's pooch-kick rolled dead at the Mountain Grove 11-yard line.

Trailing by just one score, the Wildcats badly needed a stop. Instead, Healy raced 79 yards to the Cassville end zone on a second-and-13 play. A penalty erased the touchdown, but the Panthers still had a first down in Cassville territory. Four plays later, on the first snap of the fourth quarter, Healy ran 18 yards on a quarterback draw to create the final score of 30-19.

Mountain Grove's Panthers, with only 36 players in uniform, showed that they really do belong in Class 3.

The loss left Cassville with some questions to answer with some tough games looming on the schedule.

"We did not execute to the same level or with the same intensity as last week," said Cassville's Lance Parnell after the game. "We weren't the most disciplined team on the field tonight."

Cassville (1-1) will host the McDonald County Mustangs (0-2) on Friday, September 5. Kickoff is set for 7 p.m. at Wildcat Stadium.

Southwest School track nears completion

Charlea Mills

Southwest Schools is in the final lap of completion on the school's new track. Located behind the high school, the project will allow the students there access to an actual regulation track oval, something they have never had at the school before.

Superintendent Bob Walker stated, "Coaches have managed the best they could over the years, measuring off distances on difficult-to-find level areas for kids to train and practice. Beyond this, athletes would have to travel to Cassville to work out. Understandably, having the facility on campus will be much better. In addition to convenience, kids will have a greater chance of reaching their potential as track athletes."

The school secured funds for the project out of the general revenue building fund. To date, Walker said that the district has spent $350,000 on the project. He stated, "We anticipate additional items such as fencing, a synthetic surface and security lighting, but we have not bid these out yet." The completed aspects of the project are land development, a drainage system, and the 400-meter oval and field event areas covered in asphalt. The district has also had the area dirt work completed and seeded.

Boys and girls track and field teams, cross country and physical education courses will all utilize the track on a regular basis. Walker stated, "In addition, the track will be available to the residents of our school district who desire to exercise, limited to talkers and joggers, of course."

Walker concluded, "There are several reasons for deciding to pursue this project. Obviously, our track kids have been at a big disadvantage in not having a workout facility. Physical education classes have had limited space for outside activities. Finally, transforming a piece of unsuitable property into a safe exercise area should be beneficial to the health of many others outside of our student body."

Workers put the final touches on the oval at Southwest High School.

Exeter Corn Maze reveals maze design Ice bucket challenges continues

The Exeter Corn maze revealed their maze design for the 2014 season.

The Exeter Corn Maze, located three miles south of Exeter on Highway MM will celebrate the opening of southwest Missouri and northwest Arkansas's most popular maze on September 20 at 1 p.m. with another outspoken design.

The 2014 season will kick off with the first annual pumpkin run on September 20 at 5 p.m. with proceeds to benefit the area's backpack program. This year the maze will also feature an all new zombie paintball interactive ride with live zombies beginning opening day at 7 p.m. along with the haunted barn and haunted maze.

During your visit to the maze, you can enjoy a number of other activities including the pumpkin patch, corn cannons, pumpkin cannon, zip line, inflatables, hay ride, cow train, indoor barn swings, petting zoo and jumping pillow, plus lots of other fun fall thrills.

"We work hard every year to add and change what we offer," stated owner Artie Cole, "and always make sure to have something every age group will enjoy."

The Exeter Corn Maze second annual craft fair will take place on September 27 at 1 p.m. with a variety of vendors and crafts. A pumpkin carving contest will begin at 5 p.m. with four different age divisions and a $50 prize to the first place winner in each group.

Stumpff to compete in Kan. Auctioneer Championship

Auctioneer Donnie Stumpff from Cassville will compete in the final round of the 2014 Kansas Auctioneer Championship. Since 1992, auctioneers throughout Kansas and the surrounding states have traveled to Hutchinson, Kan., to compete with one another at the Kansas State Fair, vying for the title of Auctioneer Champion. The Kansas Auctioneers Association (KAA) hosts the Auctioneer Championship that will be held this year on the stage of the Bretz and Young Injury Lawyers Arena at 2 p.m. on Wednesday, September 10.

This public auction will give all fairgoers the opportunity to bid and buy from the best auctioneers in the state. The public is encouraged to attend and observe the contest or participate by placing bids. Anyone unable to attend in person can watch the contest live at www.kansasauctioneers.com.

The Auctioneer Championship featured a preliminary round conducted during the KAA's Winter Convention last January in Manhattan, Kan. Of the seventeen contestants entering the contest, eleven were selected to compete in the final round at the fair, Stumpff being one of them.

Stumpff

From livestock and auto auctioneers to real estate and benefit auctioneers, each bid caller's performance will be judged by presentation, chant, voice, effective auctioneering skills and the ability to be an ambassador for the KAA. While the preliminary round focused exclusively on bid calling, the final round at the fair will include bid calling as well as an interview component.

The winner of this year's KAA Auctioneer Championship will receive a belt buckle, plaque, $200 cash prize, membership to the National Auctioneers Association and an entry in the International Auctioneer Championship to be held July 2015 in Addison, Tex.

If you would like more information about the KAA, please contact Cindi Ferguson, Executive Director, at 316.208.6151 or cindi@kansasauctioneers.com.

Purdy FFA attends Missouri Leadership Adventure

Six Purdy FFA members recently attended the 24th annual Leadership Adventure, sponsored by the Missouri FFA Association, on Friday, August 1, at Missouri State University in Springfield. Attendees from the Purdy chapter included: Billie House, Ashton Young, Breanna Keeler, Andrea Humphrey, Shelby Thomas and Mikala Fletcher.

Together, the Springfield conference and a second conference held in Columbia focused on agricultural careers, leadership development, and positive role models. Over 200 members and advisors registered for the two conferences from 34 chapters across Missouri. Nearly 6,500 Missouri FFA members and advisors have attended the Leadership Adventure since its inception in 1990.

According to Conference Coordinators Marvin and Karen Hoskey, "This conference annually provides an excellent opportunity for Missouri FFA members to interact with other chapter, state, and national leaders. The sessions foster development of leadership skills and encourage students to practice teamwork and goal setting as they get motivated for the coming school year."

The leadership training was headed by Andrew McCrea, former state and national officer from Missouri, and Corey Flournoy, former state and national officer from Illinois. They were assisted by Jaelynn Bergmann, National Officer Candidate from Missouri. Current State FFA Officers from Missouri guided small groups during the training sessions, which were designed specifically for high school age FFA members' personal leadership development and planning for future success. Students wanting to learn the basics of self-discovery and understanding their leadership potential were taken through activities to develop teamwork and people skills. The training focused on helping students create an advanced plan for lasting impact on the world through utilizing personal leadership traits and healthy relationships to make their goals a reality.

Fire depts. collaborate

to extinguish grass fire

Steve Chapman

A controlled fire near Butterfield that got out of hand Thursday was put out with the combined efforts of three fire departments. The fire was set to burn out old grass in a field near the intersection of Farm Roads 2140 and 1095. According to the person supervising the controlled burn, who asked not to be identified, the fire got out of control when shifting winds caused it to spread faster than intended.

According to Assistant Fire Chief Donnie Privett, of the Butterfield Fire Protection District, the Cassville and Wheaton Fire Departments were called for assistance. Georges, Inc. also provided assistance with equipment.

Privett said the three departments working together had the fire under control in under 30 minutes, and the blaze was completely extinguished in an hour. There were no injuries or damage to nearby structures. “I would like to thank the Cassville Fire Protection District, the Wheaton Fire Protection District and George’s for their assistance,” Privett said.

“I would also like to remind and encourage everyone not to do any outside burning during dry conditions,” Privett said.

BC native Pitts

featured on magazine cover

A local woman was featured on the cover of a magazine after finding a solution to a sticky situation at a factory in Rogers, Ark. Linda Pitts, Barry County native and Southwest graduate of the class of 1977, works at the Glad plant, a subsidiary of Clorox, on a team who strives to make company improvements.

Pitts' team worked to solve an issue with the gluing system on machines used to roll trash bags at the factory. Over spray was causing the machines to get clogged, causing wear and tear on the machines. The hard work paid off and Pitts' story about the improvements was featured on the cover Clorox's quarterly magazine called Diamond. Pitts was the first ever employee of the Glad manufacturing plant to be featured.

Pitts' team used a high-speed camera to pinpoint the issue and, since then, two other plants have adapted the strategy on their manufacturing machines. Pitts was chosen out of over 8,500 employees to grace the cover of the magazine for her accomplishments.
