

NINA RUTH FOHN
Nina Ruth Fohn, daughter of George R. and Lola A. Gann Forgey, was born November 6, 1929, near Sparta. She departed this life Wednesday, October 24, 2018, in her home in Lebanon at the age of eighty-eight years, eleven months, and eighteen days.
On October 11, 1947, she was united in marriage to Dale Fohn, and to this union three daughters and one son were born.
She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Dale, on January 6, 2012; a son-in-law, J C Benage; a granddaughter, Paula Marie Darnell; and two sisters, Louise Shipman and Edna Walters.
Nina Ruth is survived by three daughters, Judith “Judy” Benage, of Lebanon, and Jeannie Carlson and Janie Mitchell, both of Springfield; a son, Jim Fohn, and his wife, Janice, of Cassville; six grandchildren, Chris, Carrie, Shanon, Jason, Justin, and Lindsay; eleven great-grandchildren, Corinne, Colin, Raegan, Georgia, Wiley, Oliver, Max, Grant, Elizabeth, Richard, and Genevieve; several nieces and nephews; as well as a host of other relatives and friends.

She was born near Sparta and was raised in the Lebanon area, where she graduated from Lebanon High School in the class of 1947. After she and Dale were married, they made their home in the Lebanon area and lovingly raised their children. Through the years, Nina Ruth was a devoted homemaker to her husband and family and also worked as a sales clerk at various clothing stores in downtown Lebanon. These stores included Burley’s Department Store, Casey’s Ladies Wear, Fashions by Griffith, and Bonnie’s Place.
Nina Ruth was a longtime member of First Baptist Church and loved the fellowship and friendships her church offered.

She possessed a phenomenal green thumb and grew the most wonderful and amazing geraniums and ferns. She also kept her yard and lawn in pristine condition at all times. Her family was very dear to her and she especially enjoyed having time with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren.
Nina Ruth was a loving mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, aunt, and was a caring neighbor and friend. We celebrate her life and know that her family and friends will cherish the wonderful memories she created for them during her lifetime.
Funeral services were held Sunday, October 28, 2018, at Holman-Howe Funeral Home in Lebanon. Burial was at Mount Rose Memorial Park Chapel Mausoleum in Lebanon.

MAX L. BIGGS

Max L. Biggs, 80, of Greeley, Colo., passed away October 21, 2018, at North Colorado Medical Center in Greeley with his wife and family by his side.

Max was born January 4, 1938, in Exeter to Bill and Gladys (Cole) Biggs.

Max and Shirley (Luse) were united in marriage March 10, 1961, in Greeley, Colo.

He moved from Exeter to LaSalle, Colo., where he attended school at Big Bend. At the age of 17, he joined the Navy. After returning to civilian life, Max was employed by Lockwood Graders, Van Why-Massey Ferguson Implement Company as manager. He later was employed by Big R as a warehouse manager.

After he retired, he enjoyed camping, telling stories and jokes around the campfire, fishing, traveling, doing yard work, visiting with family and friends, and watching his birds and squirrels in his backyard. Max and Shirley enjoyed their trips to the mountains to view the Aspen trees and elk.

Max is survived by his wife, Shirley, of 57 years of marriage; two brothers, Rex Biggs and wife, Eleanor, of Greeley, Colo., and Bruce Biggs and wife, Sue, of Pleasant Valley; four nieces, Lisa McLaughlin, Lynne Maddox, Brenda Heckman, and Glenda Zimmerman; and one nephew, Larry Biggs; numerous great nieces and nephews; and a thought of as a sister, Kay Gies Johnson.

A special thank you to Max’s doctors, nurses, North Colorado Medical Center, friends, and family.

No services will be held per Max’s request. To extend condolences to the family, go to ncccremation.com.

HELEN LOIS DROLLINGER

Helen Lois Drollinger, age 89, of Cassville, passed away Wednesday, October 24, 2018, at Cassville Health and Rehabilitation.

She was born December 4, 1928, in Winona, Kansas, the daughter of Homer Gee and Mary (Ward) Gee. On December 4, 1949, she was united in marriage to the love of her life, Claude Edmond Whaley; later she married Ron Goodman and Billy Drollinger, who all preceded her in death. Also preceding her in death were her parents; one son, Thomas Whaley; and two grandsons, Jason and Shawn Youngblood.

Surviving are one daughter, Rose Youngblood and her husband, Rob, of Butterfield; one daughter-in-law, Kelli Whaley-Bakker, of McDowell; and a close family friend, Martin, of Butterfield; ten grandchildren, Laura Clark, Chris Youngblood, Tracy Eaton, Justin Youngblood, Crystal Dimello, Alex Whaley, Tiffany Willhite, Kala Schroeder, Brian Partridge and Cassandra Youngblood. Also surviving are twelve great-granddaughters and eleven great-grandsons.

Helen grew up and received her education in Winona, Kansas, where she graduated from high school. She then went to beauty school in Wichita, Kansas. She loved her church, reading her Bible and led many to Christ, also traveling with the love of her life. She was very devoted to her family and loved her grandchildren and her cat, “my dearest Mittens”.

Services were held at 2:00 p.m. Monday October, 29, 2018, at Fohn Funeral Home in Cassville. Russ Pendergraft conducted the services. Burial will be later at Winona Cemetery in Winona, Kansas.
