Barry County has 36 percent of voters turn out

Charlea Mills

According to unofficial figures from Barry County Clerk Gary Youngblood's office, 35.87 percent of the county's voters turned out in Tuesday's General Election. Of the 20,319 registered voters in the county, 7,288 cards were cast.

While the election for local races was determined by the Primary in April with no local officials facing opponents, state-wide issues drew the focus for voters. Barry County voters sided with the statewide opinion on all four Constitutional Amendments presented on the ballot.

In Barry County, voters supported Amendment 2, which allows previous crimes to be admissible in court in child sexual crime cases, with a large majority of 77.96 percent favoring the initiative.

For Amendment No. 3, Barry County had 74.82 percent vote no. Amendment No. 3 proposed that teachers salaries and tenure be dependent on state-wide assessment standards of their students and was heavily opposed by schools and school boards.

On Constitutional Amendment No. 6, voters turned down the proposal with 75.38 percent of voters casting no votes Tuesday. Amendment No. 6 would have opened an early voting period for Missouri elections.

Amendment No. 10 was supported with 65.44 percent of Barry County voters in favor. This amendment prevents the governor from estimating revenues for the budget taking into account pending legislation and prevents withholding revenue from education and other state services.

Local voters also supported Tom Sweich (R.) as State Auditor and incumbent Billy Long (R.) as U.S. 7th District Congressman.

Barry Sheriff recovers $40K in stolen property

After an investigation by the Barry County Sheriff's Department, three were arrested in connection with area thefts. The department recovered approximately $40,000 in stolen property, including two trailers, a diagnostic box, lawn mowers, equipment and various tools.

Amanda Shelby, James Kramer and Jason Kramer were all arrested as suspects of the crimes and have each been charged in connection with the crimes. According to the affidavit of probable cause, Shelby admitted that the items were stolen from both Lawrence and Barry Counties from vehicles and inside and outside residences. All owners of the property have not yet been identified.

Shelby and Jason currently face charges in both Barry and Lawrence Counties related to the various thefts. James faces charges in Barry County. The Barry and Lawrence County Sheriff's Departments are working together to identify victims that the property was stolen from.

Shelby and Jason Kramer both face additional child endangerment charges because they took Shelby's juvenile child to commit the crimes, and officers found mouse feces in the child's bedroom on the dresser and

Fire Auxiliary raises money for cancer patient

The Butterfield Firefighters Auxiliary sponsored a softball tournament on Saturday, October 18, to benefit Sandra Brown, a woman battling Stage 2 Invasive Ductal Carcinoma Breast Cancer. The tournament was held at the Cassville City Ball fields with four different teams. The teams consisted of Butterfield firefighters, auxiliary members and other members of the community.

The funds raised through sign up fees, Diva Bling donations by Jennifer Privett, public donations, baked goods and a donation by Representative Scott Fitzpatrick, allowed the ladies to donate $1,185 to Sandra.

Sandra was diagnosed with cancer earlier this year and underwent an immediate mastectomy. She is now making several trips to her oncologist and is having chemotherapy treatments. The auxiliary decided to raise money for her because she is a member of the community and family of some of the Butterfield firefighters.

Three injured in head-on collision

Charlea Mills

Three Cassville residents were injured in a head-on collision on Tuesday, November 4, around 4:40 p.m.

Dennis L. Cole, 55, of Cassville, was driving a 2000 Chevrolet S10 northbound on Highway 37, five miles north of Cassville, when he crossed the center line and struck a 2012 Chevrolet Sonic head-on. Cole and his passenger, Victoria McFarland, 58, of Cassville, were both airlifted to Cox South Hospital in Springfield with serious injuries.

The driver of the other vehicle, Olivia M. Autrey, 29, of Cassville, was taken by ambulance to Mercy Hospital in Cassville with moderate injuries.

Both vehicles were totalled.

Three arrested in area drug busts

Steve Chapman

Three people suspected of manufacturing methamphetamine were arrested on Wednesday, October 22, during a collaborative effort between the Barry County Sheriff's Department, the Missouri Drug Task Force, and the Wheaton Police Department. Four methamphetamine labs were also seized.

Two of the methamphetamine labs were found in Wheaton. One of them was in the apartment of Jason Clark. According to a probable cause statement, a search of the apartment uncovered two jars of a liquid and a small bag of a crystalline substance, all of which tested positive for methamphetamine, a small amount of marijuana, and items from the lab.

Clark, 27, was arrested and charged with manufacturing of a controlled substance near a school, possession of a controlled substance, and three counts of child endangerment, as three children living in the apartment are under 17.

The other lab was found in an apartment occupied by Tony Ray Intessimone and Carrie Lee Intessimone and their one-year old child. According to a probable cause statement, an officer spoke to Carrie and told her he had been informed there could be a methamphetamine lab inside the apartment. She gave him permission to search the apartment and the couple's car.

The search uncovered a liquid that tested positive for methamphetamine and a number of items used to produce methamphetamine. Tony Ray, 39, and Carrie Lee, 26, were both arrested and each charged with possession of a controlled substance, manufacturing of a controlled substance and endangering the welfare of a child. The Intessimones are currently being held in the Barry County Jail in lieu of $100,000 bonds. Clark already posted bond.

In addition to the labs in Wheaton, two more were seized at a trailer park in Seligman. According to a statement from the Sheriff's office, one lab was found to have hazardous waste and residue scattered throughout the trailer park. The other lab consisted of a backpack holding four shake-and-bake bottles containing hazardous residue. It was found in the woods behind the trailer park.

No arrests have been made yet in connection to the labs found in Seligman, but officers are pursuing leads. Anyone with information can phone in anonymous tips by calling the Southwest Missouri Drug Task Force at (417) 847-5010.

Creason's celebrate 50th wedding anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. George Creason, of Rogers, Ark., formerly of Washburn and Cassville, will soon be celebrating their Golden Anniversary. George Creason and Martha Painter were married November 7, 1964, at Victory Baptist Church in Springfield by Pastor Fred Lynn. They have three children, Joe and Sherri Keen, of Rogers, Ark.,

Tom and Krista Creason, of Booneville, Ark., and Shawna Creason, deceased. They are the proud grandparents of seven grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

In lieu of an anniversary party, an outdoor picnic and bonfire, attended by close family and friends, was held in mid-October at their home to commemorate the event.

Shell Knob resident receives Mercy Hospital award

Shell Knob resident Billie House received the Mercy Signature Service Connection Award. Billie works in Med//Surg. at Mercy Hospital in Berryville, Ark.

Billie received the Mercy Signature Service Connection Award. This award was developed to honor Mercy co-workers who have provided exceptional signature service, continually going above and beyond to provide extraordinary care.

There were 130 nominations for this award system wide and only eight were chosen out of the Mercy system's 30,000 employees. Mercy Hospita-Berryville said, "We are so very proud of our Billie upon receiving this amazing and well-deserved honor. As Amber Camp so eloquently states, 'Billie doesn't live the Mercy Spirit, she simply IS the Mercy Spirit'."

Billie has been with Mercy for 24 years and lives in Shell Knob.

VERMILLION MURRAY

Irene Paula Vermillion Murray, 88, of Holiday Island, Ark., passed from this life on Saturday, November 1, 2014, at Peachtree Village Assisted Living Center in Holiday Island.

Irene was born October 20, 1926, in rural Purdy, near Stones Prairie, daughter of the late Casper and Mathilda (Schneider) Schad. She attended schools in Purdy, and, in her early years, Irene was a member of St. John's Lutheran Church at Stones Prairie. Irene lived in Monett for many years where she was a wonderful homemaker and mom, and she attended St. John's Lutheran Church in Monett. She then moved to the Tulsa, Okla. area and worked for Fred Taylor Furniture in Broken Arrow, Okla. Irene came back to Monett for several years as a home health care worker for Oxford Health Care. She then relocated to Eureka Springs, Ark., where she worked at Angel of Rose Hall Bed and Breakfast, assisting with weddings and tending to their beautiful flower gardens. Most recently, Irene lived in Holiday Island, Ark., where she was a member of the Grace Lutheran Church.

Throughout Irene's life,

she found many things that brought her enjoyment, a few of them were photography, traveling, boating, astronomy, old barns, lighthouses, antiques, and hiking the state and national parks. She also enjoyed learning about the history of Eureka Springs, Ark. and Pierce City, and she collected antique postcards from both towns. As a young woman, she learned to fly an airplane, and even made a solo flight. During her fifteen years living in Eureka Springs, Irene spent many hours enjoying the Eureka Springs Carnegie Library and the local art galleries, and walking in the historic areas of town, making friends wherever she went.

In 1945, Irene married Kenneth Vermillion. To this union, three children were born. She later married Jim Murray. Irene was preceded in death by her husbands; one brother, Oscar Schad; and two sisters, Margaret Schad and Dora Bounous.

Irene is survived by two sons, Tim Vermillion and Denise, of Golden, and Stephen Vermillion and Donna, of Springfield; one daughter, Nancy Bass and Gary, of Monett; three grandchildren, Matthew Vermillion, Anne Phillips and Ty, and David Vermillion and Erin; and three great-grandchildren, Allison Dillinger, Colin Vermillion and Ian Vermillion. Irene was blessed to have all these years with her family and friends, as she, herself, was a cancer survivor.

Golden homeschool teen publishes book

Horst

"The light is flickering. Otapmir's downfall is at hand." Jorson Roctel, a humble citizen, knows nothing but the repetitive life of a miner. Events lead to an involuntary change in occupation. Pulled into the ongoing defense of Otapmir, Jorson must train with the sword. While learning his new duties as a soldier under The Red Lamb's banner, he acquires a new knowledge of the enemy's leader, Sirith, a seemingly matchless foe. Gaining a new perspective on the war, he throws himself completely into the conflict. Following his superiors into a desperate struggle to hold the border, a wall dividing free Otapmir from the forces of the enemy, he comes face to face with the one whom all Otapmir fears. Who can withstand Sirith's blade? "The darkness is closing in. All that remains is one candle. That candle is us, Jorson. The wind is coming."

Local author Joseph Horst, a home-schooled student from Golden, has just published his first novel, Otapmir's Last Commander. Although it is the second novel he has written, it is the first one to be published. By the fifth day of sales on Amazon, it ranked 12th best seller in its category.

With the rise of the use of computers and electronic reading devices, Joseph chose to publish it as an eBook which can be purchased directly from Amazon. To find/buy, search for "Otapmir's Last Commander" on Amazon.com. You will find a complete synopsis of the book and more information about the author. You do not need a Kindle to read or access the book. If you want detailed instructions on how to download/read it, you can email Joseph directly at Otapmir@gmail.com.

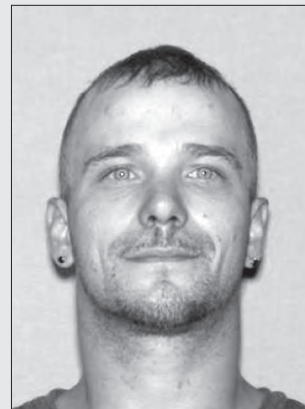

Writing became Joseph's passion at the age of 13. He completed his 148,000+ word novel in one year and has already outlined a sequel. This has been an extremely rewarding endeavor for the young author, one which he hopes to continue. He is applying as an English Major to the College of the Ozarks for the fall semester of 2015.

Rudd donates Horner painting to museum

This portrait of the home of Dr. James Rudd was painted in 1979 by the late Rex Horner, and was recently donated to the Barry County Museum by Dr. Rudd's widow, Avis Rudd, of Neosho. Dr. Rudd commissioned Rex to paint his home for the amount of $100.

Local artist presents wood turnings to Gov. Nixon

Kenney

Missouri Gov. Jay Nixon and First Lady Georganne Nixon this week received a set of hand-made burl wood art pieces designed and crafted by woodturner Kim Kenney, of Cassville. Each of the pieces is one-of-a-kind, made from Missouri Ozarks wood.

When Gov. Nixon leads trade missions to foreign countries to expand markets for Missouri exports, or meets with foreign leaders in Jefferson City, protocol calls for an exchange of gifts with those leaders.

Over the past six years, the Governor has been pleased to present Missouri-crafted artwork in these exchanges of goodwill. The burl artwork bowls made by Kim Kenney will be presented by Gov. Nixon to foreign leaders on an upcoming trade mission.

"Governor and Mrs. Nixon are delighted to have received these beautiful bowls made by Missouri artist Kim Kenney, and very much appreciate the time and craftsmanship she put into these pieces of art," said the Governor's spokesman, Scott Holste. "They strongly believe that the Missouri protocol gifts can showcase the natural beauty we have in the Show-Me State, and the Governor will be proud to present them as gifts when he meets with foreign leaders."

Kenney was recommended to the Governor as an artist to potentially use by Michael Gaines, the executive director of the Missouri Association of Community Arts Agencies.

A LITTLE OFF THE TOP.

Tree limbs that touch or fall on power lines can cause power outages, property damage, or personal injury. Your electric cooperative maintains a tree-trimming program to help reduce these hazards. You can help by reporting locations where you see a problem with branches in the lines and by carefully planning where you plant trees.

Cassville’s season ends in district semi’s

Lee Stubblefield
CAPITALIZATION.
No, not that one.
“Capitalization”: the art or process of capitalizing; taking advantage of opportunities, etc.

The Monett Cubs blew a 14-0 lead, then capitalized on turnovers, field position, and raw speed to hand Cassville a 47-20 defeat in district semifinal action at Burl Fowler Field on Friday night. Quincy Jackson ran for 150 yards on just 8 carries and scored 3 touchdowns to lead the Cubs past the Wildcats and into the district championship game at Reeds Spring.

This contest had more storylines than a Game of Thrones highlight reel. Don’t let the final score fool you. This was a tough battle, and Cassville was still within reach until Zack Hammond’s 15-yard scoring run gave Monett a 34-14 lead with two minutes left in the third quarter.

One of the bigger themes unfolded before the game. Cassville’s River Phelps, suffering from illness, could not make the trip. While the Wildcats missed his spark on offense, it was the defense that struggled most without Phelps. The red-headed sophomore was one of few Wildcats who could run stride for stride with Monett’s sprint crew. Without him, Monett’s hands players found more space whenever they could turn the edge or break into the second level.

Without Phelps in the split backfield, Monett’s tough, gambling defense targeted Gabe Kirk and Leigh Cox on every play. With 8 and 9 defensive players in the box, running yards were a tough commodity for the Wildcats to find. Cox was held to just 69 yards on 25 carries, and Kirk gained just 31 yards on 14 attempts. Steven Hunter picked up 27 yards on 5 carries late in the final quarter when the ‘Cats drove for their final score.

Turnovers, always a key variable in a football game, bit the Wildcats right away when Monett recovered a fumble on the opening kickoff. That miscue led directly to an early 7-0 lead for the Cubs when Hammond sneaked in from a yard out at the 9:48 mark of the first quarter.

The Cassville offense went three-and-out on its first two possessions, and Gabe Kirk’s punt pinned Monett deep. On second down, Jackson turned the toss sweep into an 85-yard sprint up the east sideline to give the Cubs a 14-0 lead with 2:03 on the first-quarter clock.

Kirk ran the ensuing kickoff out to the 35-yard line to open the next Cassville drive. Leigh Cox earned the first first down of the game for the Wildcats, reaching the 47-yard line with a third-and-3 carry. Then Kirk launched a rainbow for Cade Pendergraft, and he won a jump ball against the shorter Monett defensive back. The defender slipped down and Pendergraft raced into the end zone to complete the 53-yard pass play as the Wildcats pulled within 14-7 as the quarter ended.

The Cubs were flagged on the kickoff and Hammond directed the offense from the shadow of the goal posts. On second-and-6 from the 12-yard line, the Wildcats recovered an errant pitch to set up a first-and-goal at the 5-yard line. Kirk bulled in to score on third down to tie the score at 14-14 with 10:44 left in the half.

Although Monett failed to score on the next possession, the Cubs flipped the field with a punt that rolled to the Cassville 6-yard line. The Wildcats punched the ball out to the 28-yard line in 7 plays, but the Monett defense forced a turnover. The Cubs capitalized on the turnover and marched 22 yards in 4 plays, with Jordan Hall scoring from 4 yards out to give Monett a 21-14 halftime lead.

The Wildcats gambled with an onside kick to open the third quarter, but the Cubs recovered at their own 48-yard line. Monett capitalized with the short-field gift, covering the 52 yards in just 5 plays. Jackson ran past and over the Cassville defenders on a 14-yard scoring sweep to extend the lead to 27-14.

The Wildcats were forced to punt, but the Cubs gave the ball back on a fumble on the next snap.

Then a double-reverse gadget play saw Alex Dyer throw a strike to Pendergraft for a 28-yard gain to the Monett 10-yard line. But the next four plays defined the outcome of the game. Cassville could not capitalize against the stingy Monett defense, and the Cubs took over on downs after Kirk was tackled at the 5-yard line on fourth down.

Monett then drove 95-yards in 9 plays to take a 34-14 lead at the 2:00 mark of the third quarter. Six of those nine plays were toss sweeps or off-tackle veer handoffs as the Cubs capitalized on their superior team speed.

That speed led to two more long scores as Jackson hauled in a pass from Hammond for a 52-yard touchdown on the first play of the final quarter, and then Witt burst through the line for a 48-yard scoring run with 8:42 remaining.

Cassville managed a late touchdown when Kirk capped a 66-yard drive with a 2-yard plunge to create the 47-20 final score.

“It got away from us in the second half,” said Cassville’s Lance Parnell. “I was super proud of the way our kids competed tonight.”

The Wildcats end their season with the loss, falling to 6-5. Monett improves to 9-2 and will play at Reeds Spring on Friday in the district championship contest.

• Samuel D. Aston, Marionville, pled guilty to theft/stealing of $500 to $25,000. Aston received a suspended execution of a three year incarceration sentence, four years supervised probation, and he must complete Lawrence County CRISP.

In September 2012, Aston was found to have a stolen trailer that was taken from Verona. When the Barry County Sheriff's Department recovered the trailer, the truck it was connected to was in possession of Aston.

Four members of the Mid South Writers Group in Cassville won awards at the Ozark Creative Writers 47th annual conference in Eureka Springs, Arkansas, on October 11, 2014.

The OCW conference is held the second weekend in October and offers two days of seminars and workshops by professional editors and published authors, as well as an average of fourteen writing contests open to conference registrants.

Prix Gautney won first place and a $125 cash award for her story entitled "When Tables Turn" in the Spooky Award contest. Gautney also won third place and a cash prize of $10 for her poem "Water" in the Poet Laureate Award, and third place and $10 for "Missouri Misery" in the Flash Fiction contest. Flash Fiction requires that a complete story be told in 100 words or less.

Susan Eschbach won first place and a cash prize of $25 for "Goodbye City Life" in the Coffee and Critique contest. Sherrie Akers won third place and $10 for "The Legend of the Ozark Howler" in the Shakespeare in the Ozarks contest and second honorable mention for the travel article "Eureka Springs After Dark." Matthew Eschbach won third honorable mention for the short story "Ghost In A Jar" in the University Press Fiction Award.

Linda Sartin submitted her novel "Bonds of Honor" in the High Hill Press Award contest, but did not place this year, although the same novel placed third in the same contest two years ago. Barbara Warren, a published author and regular attendee at Mid South Writers Group meetings, did not submit writings to the OCW conference this year.

The Mid South Writers Group is dedicated to helping aspiring authors work toward publication in all fiction and non-fiction genres. Members meet twice per month on the first and third Mondays, from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m., in Suite 8 of Show Me Plaza on Highway 112, in Cassville, to critique each others' work. Meetings are open to anyone interested in writing for publication.

More information on the Ozark Creative Writers is available from their website at www.ozarkcreativewriters.com.

Local vets take Honor Flight to Washington D.C.

On October 21, 2014, Honor Flight of the Ozarks took its last flight of the year to Washington DC. Among the 165 passengers was World War II Veteran Jack Criqui, of Seligman. The group had an amazing day beginning at with a 6am take off from the Springfield/Branson Airport. The group began their tour by heading to our Nation's Capital with a Police Escort from Dulles. Beginning with the newest monument, the Disabled Veteran's Memorial, the group then travelled to the World War II Memorial where our group photo was taken. After lunch, the group travelled to the Korean, Vietnam, and Lincoln Memorials before heading to the Iwo Jima Memorial. Ending their day at Arlington Cemetery and the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, Veterans and Guardians looked on as the wreath was placed and the ceremony was performed. Arriving back at Dulles, everyone enjoyed some R and R before flying back to Springfield. During the day, Veterans also participated in a time of "Mail Call" where they received thank you letters from friends, family, and others. Coming into to Springfield, they finished their day with a Hero's Welcome by hundreds of people, both young and old. Some just wanting to say thank you for their service and shake their hands and others holding signs of thanks and welcome. Veterans who were in the service during the time of World War II, the Korean Conflict, and the Vietnam Era are welcome to apply to fly with Honor Flight. Just go to <http://www.honorflighttotheoark.org> to find the application. This is a free trip to Washington D.C. for the veterans. Honor Flight of the Ozarks is hoping to take three or more flights in 2015 and is currently taking applications. Feel free to contact the office (417.268.9052) if you have any questions.
