KISS Rebreathers summary of 2021 dives at RRSP Missouri DNR renews permits for 2022 exploration

Adriana Keeton

KISS Rebreathers CEO and exploration leader, Mike Young, has released the following summary of the 2021 dives into the spring at Roaring River State Park.

May 8-10, 2021- This month the team ran a survey line to the entrance of the restriction. The water flow was too heavy to allow divers to pass through the restriction. Heavy Spring rainfall had the spring flowing very hard. General familiarization with the cavern began and many survey markers were established as were survey lines. The dome room was also visited and an initial survey was started there.

June 18-20, 2021- This month divers were able to place the gold line also known as the main line with a tie off at 220 feet. Divers were able to get a closer look at the restriction and discovered there were actually two small restrictions. The flow was still very heavy as it was the month before. The air chamber known as the "Great Cavern" was located approximately 150 feet from where the waterfall area is at the caves entrance. The first clear video was taken by divers as well.

July 16-18, 2021- On July 17, at 930 a.m., Mike Young became the first diver to ever breach the restriction at Roaring River Spring. He did not penetrate very deeply past the restriction sticking to the dive plan. He did report that he was amazed how large the cavern past the restriction actually was. Jon Littestolen provided the first maps from his previous two months of diving. Heavy rainfall on the evening of July 17 prevented passing through the restriction on July 18.

August 27-30, 2021- This month three divers passed through the restriction and video was taken for the first time of divers passing through it. The plan was to determine the size of the cavern and the depth if possible. The cavern was so large it was decided at this point that safety bottles would have to also be placed on both sides of the restriction. The use of safety bottles have always been used on each dive as well as safety divers and a surface manager. The deepest depth dove this month was 305 feet.

September 24-26, 2021- This month a new depth was established by Mike Young to 344 feet. Randall Purdy began getting video past the restriction and another 120 feet of survey line was pushed beyond the 200 feet of survey line already laid. Survey also continued in the dome room above the restriction by several divers. On the evening of September 25, there was a meet and greet for the divers at the park pavilion. Over 60 interested visitors along with park personnel and park rangers attended. A presentation was presented and the visitors asked many very good questions.

October 22-24, 2021- This month Mike made an amazing dive to 454 feet. Randall dropped down to 280 feet to video Mike’s descent, while Jon continued survey work beyond the restriction. The bottom was not found but Mike could see more than 12 feet below his depth. Knowing for sure that Roaring River cavern was the deepest in the United States.

November 12-14, 2021- On November 13, Mike Young and Randall dropped down to 472 feet, officially making Roaring River cavern the deepest in the United States. The importance of this historic event for the Missouri State Park system cannot be overstressed. American history was made. At this depth, the bottom has still not been reached.

The Missouri Department of Natural Resources has renewed the permits for KISS Rebreathers exploration of the Roaring River State Park spring for 2022.

Mike Young and the exploration crew completed their first dive of the year February 11-13. Due to the high flow of water, they were unable to pass through the restriction site. They used the time to continue surveying the upper cavern for mapping.

The second dive of the year was completed March 11-13, during the snowstorm which dropped several inches of snow in the area. Due to the continued high flow of water the team was unable to pass through the restriction site. They used the time to install “habitats”, designed by KISS Rebreathers CEO Mike Young.

“We placed two habitats in the upper cavern, one at 24 feet and one at 40 feet.” Young stated, “Habitats are like air bells, they have a breathable gas mixture in them to help accelerate the decompression session. It allows us to talk to each other, have some hot chocolate, warm up and even watch movies on our waterproof phone.”

When asked how long it normally takes for decompression, Young said, “It can take several hours. It took three hours of decompression for the record setting dive last year to 472 feet.”

The March dive also allowed new safety divers in the exploration crew to get accustomed to the deeper parts of the cave.

The KISS Rebreathers exploration crew are scheduled to return to the spring on April 7-10, 2022. The third dive of the year will be used to continue surveying the upper cavern for mapping. Due to the current high water flow, they do not plan to pass through the restriction site.

Bowfisher swipes first state record of 2022

Josh Lawmaster, of La Russell, shot an 8-pound, 5-ounce quillback from Table Rock Lake.

The Missouri Department of Conservation (MDC) confirms Josh Lawmaster, of La Russell, is the first state-record holder of 2022 after shooting an 8-pound, 5-ounce quillback from Table Rock Lake. Lawmaster was bowfishing March 15 when he shot the fish. His current record breaks the previous record of 7-pounds, 10-ounces set in 2015.

Lawmaster said he was out with his bowfishing team the day he shot the record.

“We were actually fishing for common carp that day when I had just come across this little dude,” said Lawmaster. “We knew it was pretty good size, but it wasn’t until the next morning we were thinking about it and decided to contact the department.”

Quillback is a non-game species that’s often confused with river carpsucker. This species is widely distributed, and most common in the clearer prairie streams of central and northeastern Missouri. It’s also fairly common in the upper Mississippi River and in large reservoirs of the Ozark Uplands.

MDC staff verified the fish’s weight on a certified scale at MDC’s Southwest Regional Office in Springfield.

“I wasn’t at all expecting to get a state record, so it’s pretty neat,” said Lawmaster. “Now I can say I actually accomplished something!”

Missouri state record fish are recognized in two categories: pole-and-line and alternative methods. Alternative methods include: trotline, throwline, limb line, bank line, jug line, gig, bow, cross-bow, underwater spearfishing, snagging, snaring, grabbing, or atlatl.

On Sunday, April 3, at 6:10 p.m., Tol Thompson, 45, of Washburn, was traveling northbound in a field on Farm Road 2270, approximately three miles south of Washburn, on a 2011 Yamaha 450 dirt bike, when he experienced a vehicle malfunction and ran into a tree. Thompson received serious injuries and was transported to Mercy Hospital in Rogers, Arkansas.

On Monday, April 4, at 9:25 p.m., Martin Marshall, 23, of Rocky Comfort, was traveling eastbound on State Highway 76, one mile east of Rocky Comfort, in a 1994 Ford Escort, when he struck cycling pedestrian Charles Peterson, 50, of Rocky Comfort, on the roadway. Peterson was pronounced deceased at the scene and was transported to Fohn Funeral Home.

MDC invites you to celebrate native trees through Arbor Days in April

The Missouri Department of Conservation (MDC) invited people to celebrate the value of Missouri trees and forests during Arbor Days in April by planting native trees and practicing proper tree care. Missouri Arbor Day was Friday, April 1. Missouri has been observing the state's official Arbor Day on the first Friday in April since 1886 when the General Assembly declared that day be set aside for the appreciation and planting of trees. National Arbor Day is recognized on the last Friday of April, which is April 29 for 2022.

Savvy SENIOR

How to Get Help as an Elder Orphan

Dear Savvy Senior,

I need to find someone honest and reliable to look after my estate, health and long-term care when I'm no longer able to do it myself. I'm a 67-year-old recent widow with no children and one sibling I rarely talk to. Any suggestions? Solo Ager

Dear Solo,

This is big concern for millions of older Americans who don't have a spouse, children or other family they can depend on to watch out for their well-being. While there's no one solution to this issue, here are some tips and resources that can help you plan ahead.

Essential Documents

If you haven't already done so, your first step, before choosing a reliable decision maker, is to prepare a basic estate plan of at least four essential legal documents. This will protect yourself and make sure you're wishes are carried out if you become seriously ill or when you die.

These essential documents include: a "durable power of attorney" that allows you to designate someone to handle your financial matters if you become incapacitated; an "advanced health care directive" that includes a "living will" that tells your doctor what kind of care you want to receive if you become incapacitated, and a "health care power of attorney," which names a person you authorize to make medical decisions on your behalf if you're unable to; and a "will" that spells out how you'd like your property and assets distributed after you die. It also requires you to designate an "executor" to ensure your wishes are carried out.

To prepare these documents your best option is to hire an attorney, which can cost anywhere between $500 and $2,000. Or, if you are interested in a do-it-yourself plan, Quicken WillMaker & Trust 2022 ($199, Nolo.com) and LegalZoom.com ($179) are some top options.

Choosing Decision Makers & Helpers

Most people think first of naming a family member as their power of attorney for finances and health care, or executor of their will. If, however, you don't have someone to fill those roles, you may want to ask a trusted friend or associate but be sure to choose someone that's organized and younger than you who will likely be around after you're gone.

Also be aware that if your choice of power of attorney or executor lives in another state, you'll need to check your state's law to see if it imposes any special requirements. If, however, you don't have a friend or relative you feel comfortable with, you'll need to hire someone who has experience with such matters.

To find a qualified power of attorney or executor for your will, contact your bank, a local trust company or an estate planning attorney. If you need help locating a pro, the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys (NAELA.org) is a great resource that provides online directory to help you find someone in your area. Another resource that can help you manage and oversee your health and

Letter to the Editor

The Cassville Senior Center, located at 1111 Fair St., has been an important part of Cassville's history. Not just to our general area, but especially to our senior citizens. Being around others can determine a quality of life they probably couldn't develop on their own.

The center in Cassville has been open for many decades. In 1965, the Older Americans Act was approved by Congress to enhance and up-grade the lives of seniors. That was accomplished here by providing social services through the Cassville Senior Center.

Establishing a Senior Center in Cassville, was first considered in 1981. They served the first meal on July 17, 1983, and continued for two years with monthly carry-in meals served at the Cassville City Hall, mostly to groups of elderly people.

The ground breaking of the existing Senior Center began in 1997. The building was completed in 1998. Beautiful Ozark Inspirational murals now cover the walls.

Those outstanding paintings have been enjoyed by many people. There were painting by Margaret Jump and Vida Finch and are an important part of the center.

Lovely homemade quilts have been created and displayed there over the years. Occasional fund-raising activities brought in money to provide financial help to the center. Fundraisers like square dances, garage sales and donations helped the center keep operating. Also, a yearly grant from the Barry County Senior Tax Board.

Volunteers have also played a special role in helping the seniors who come there. Very good noon meals are prepared and served daily for a suggested contribution of $3.50 for those 60 years and over.

Lunches can also be picked up and frozen meals are delivered to senior's homes by volunteer drivers. Dominos are played on Tuesday and Friday. Bingo is played on Wednesday, giving seniors an opportunity to meet, eat, and play games while enjoying each other's company.

In the past they used Senior Spotighting with articles, including pictures, to describe people who came and participated at the center. They also still observe holiday celebrations, birthdays and special dinners.

Over the years, the Cassville Senior Center has made some changes, adapting to meet certain needs, but it is still a special place where seniors can gathers to spend time with others. Seniors can also come there to have their needs met. The Cassville Senior Center offers help with many things, including Medicare counseling, free tax consulting, blood pressure clinic, exercising, benefit counseling, monthly foot clinics and art classes.

The Cassville Senior Center also needs additional board members and volunteers for other various occupations. If you are interested, go into the office at the Cassville Senior Center, or contact them at 417-847-2229. The next board meeting will be held at the Cassville Senior Center on May 20, 2022, at 9 a.m.

Every senior is welcome to come to the center to meet others, join in the activities, and find help and advice for some of the problems they may be facing. Feel free to drop in and get acquainted. The center is open Monday-Friday, 8 a.m.-3:30 p.m. with lunch served from 11 a.m.-12:30 p.m.

You will always be welcome.

Free virtual legal consultations for veterans on April 22

The University of Missouri School of Law Veterans Clinic, through its Tigers for Troops program, will offer free virtual legal consultation for veterans regarding United States Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) disability benefits, discharge upgrades and VA healthcare. The Veterans Clinic is partnering with Mizzou Extension to provide meeting spaces for veterans in select Missouri counties at either the local county extension office or other locations in order to provide virtual meeting assistance. The virtual event is offered to veterans in the following select Missouri counties: Atchison, Cold-well, Carroll, Carter, Chariton, Clark, Dade, Daviess, Gentry, Grundy, Harrison, Henry, Hickory, Holt, Iron, Knox, Maries, Mercer, Monroe, Oregon, Ozark, Putnam, Reynolds, Saint Clair, Schuyler, Scotland, Shannon, Shelby, Sullivan and Worth. The Veterans Clinic is located in the MU School of Law. Under the supervision of experienced attorneys, law students help veterans, at no charge, with their claims in front of the Department of Veterans Affairs. The Tigers for Troops program was created by the Veterans Clinic to remedy unmet legal needs of rural veterans in Missouri. Under the program, the clinic partners with Mizzou Extension to travel to rural parts of Missouri to reach veterans without access to services for veterans. The Veterans Clinic also assists veterans in receiving discharge upgrades, trains attorneys to help veterans navigate the VA system, holds annual symposiums highlighting the stories of veterans and developments within veterans' law, and contributes to amicus briefs and other advocacy projects in support of veterans. Since the Veterans Clinic's inception seven years ago, it has secured more than $7 million in benefits for veterans in Missouri and has helped more than 600 veterans.

WHEN:
8 a.m. to 5 p.m., Friday, April 22
Veterans can register for an appointment at <https://bit.ly/StatewideTFT> or call Martha Bradley at 573-882-7630. Registration for this event will close at noon Friday, April 15.
If a veteran cannot secure an appointment or is unavailable on April 22 but would still like information about the clinic or help with one of the above-described issues, please call 573-882-7630.

New CBCO campaign: “Hungry to Help”

Community Blood Center of the Ozarks (CBCO) has an exciting new campaign for April and May. During the Hungry to Help event, week-day drawings will be held to award a $150.00 grocery gift card to one lucky donor that gave the day before. Weekend blood donors will be rolled into Monday’s drawing. All participants at any CBCO blood drive or donor center will be eligible for the prize.

Successful donors during the Hungry to Help campaign will receive a colorful T-shirt that reminds donors to “Donut Forget” to donate. As a bonus, an additional vintage CBCO T-shirt will be donated to an area charity for each blood donation given.

“We are looking forward to rewarding dozens of donors during the Hungry to Help event,” CBCO Media Relations Representative Chris Pilgrim said. “The gift cards are substantial, and the daily drawings will keep the excitement flowing. We are also excited about donating our vintage T-shirts from former drives and campaigns to deserving area charities. It represents another way our donors can give back to the community.”

Message from Cassville Superintendent

Merlyn Johnson

Each year there are numerous bills filed that could affect Cassville R-IV School District and all other public schools across Missouri. Many of these bills are a result of unrest in highly populated urban areas that result in blanket statewide legislation for all schools. During the past several years, the issue of open enrollment has been debated in Jefferson City multiple times. HB 1814 passed out of the House and was heard in the Senate Education Committee last week. In the name of reform, some legislators are proposing that parents be allowed to enroll their child or children in any school district they choose regardless of where they live or pay taxes. It is a simple concept, but with some serious unintended consequences for all Missouri districts. For example, after 26 years of open enrollment in the state of Arizona, educators and parents continue to see numerous disparities in providing equity for all students across their state. Open enrollment in Arizona quickly led to high rejection rates for students with disabilities. Additionally, it became too easy for school districts in Arizona to limit admission based on ethnicity or race, national origin, sex, income level, English language proficiency, and the lack of athletic ability. In short, families with political connections and money are able to place their children in advantageous learning and extracurricular environments, while those without continue to get further behind. Arizona's public schools under open enrollment have resulted in a patchwork system of haves and have-nots. There is definitely room for improvement for public schools in Missouri, but open enrollment is not the answer.

In some states, open enrollment has created extra-curricular superpowers. Talented students are recruited to participate in highly competitive extra-curricular activities. These schools dominate activities and many local students who would normally participate are eliminated. Would talented Cassville students be recruited by other schools? How would Cassville parents feel if their student(s) were eliminated from participating in an activity by a student from Aurora or Monett?

Open enrollment has the potential to impact the financial resources of the school districts that gain students and those that lose students. Missouri does not provide the same level of funding for any two school districts and local tax rates vary greatly among districts. As students move among Missouri school districts, open enrollment could create financial chaos. There is a concern that nonresident students attending the Cassville R-IV School District may place an added burden on our taxpayers. Additionally, there is a concern that a loss of our students to other school districts will drain our financial resources and impact the ability for us to serve the students who continue to attend Cassville R-IV Schools.

The open enrollment bill (HB 1814) will likely lead to school consolidation across Missouri. Many people associate school consolidation with K-8 districts like Shell Knob and smaller rural schools like Exeter R-VI and Wheaton R-III. However, school consolidation is not limited to just small, rural districts. Even if a school district does not close and consolidate, the loss of students in the district will affect all remaining students as there will be less revenue to provide a more robust educational experience (e.g., loss of programs such as choir, band, scholar/debate teams, FBLA, FFA, FCCLA, and athletic programs).

HB 1814 will pit public schools against one another. School districts will compete for students and large sums of money that should be utilized for the education of children will instead be used for marketing and other recruitment materials. Schools will also be forced to "one up" one another for the best facilities and best sports programs which will further deplete money going into the classroom.

If HB 1814 is passed, school districts should expect a decline in community support and involvement. For example, if parents are living within the Cassville R-IV School District but sending their children to the Neosho School District, those parents will be less likely to support school improvement ballot measures in Cassville. This bill will more than likely wreak havoc in planning for school districts. Districts will be forced to hold larger sums of money in reserve in case swings in student population occur. This may result in teacher salaries remaining stagnant or the postponement of valuable educational experiences/programs.

The Senate has the power to defeat HB 1814, but will only do so if they hear from parents and other community members. I urge you to contact Senator Mike Moon and voice your concerns about open enrollment and its implications to all the school districts within the 29th Senatorial District, which includes school districts in Barry, Lawrence, McDonald, Stone, and Taney counties. Senator Moon's phone number is (573) 751-1480 and his email is mike.moon@senate.mo.gov. Open enrollment in some form is attached to several other education bills moving through the legislature. There are a host of other concerns that continue to arise as a result of HB 1814. I encourage you to review the actual bill text in detail, which can easily be found on the internet. If you have any questions about this bill or other bills affecting public education, please contact me by phone: (417) 847-2221, or email: mjohnson@cassville.k12.mo.us

Parnell Selected for State Academic Honor

Cassville High School senior Landry Parnell has received “Honorable Mention” for the 2022 Missouri Scholars 100, a statewide program that honors 100 of Missouri’s top academic students in the graduating class of 2022. The 2022 program is the 28th Annual Missouri Scholars 100 recognition.

“Landry is, without a doubt, deserving of this honor,” stated Mr. Tyler Willis, CHS Principal. “In my short time at Cassville High School, I have found Landry to be kind, helpful and very trustworthy. Her academic achievements qualify her, but her character is what impresses me most. I am confident Landry will do great things after high school.”

Southwest to Hold NHS Induction Ceremony

The Southwest High School chapter of the National Honor Society will hold its induction ceremony at 1:30 p.m. on Wednesday, April 13 in the gymnasium.

Southwest plans to induct: Caleb Ayer, Lyric Bernard, Cally Bowyer, Shaylea Eggleston, Olivia Garner, Kameron Kelley, Jordy Long, Jordyn Martin, Faith Outhouse, Charlie Pippin, Dylan Rainwater, Alexis Raucstadt, Juliauna Sierra, Brooklynn Slye, Emily Wilson, and Lilly Wolf, and install new officers. NHS President Natalie Johnson

Missouri Scholars 100 is a program sponsored by the Missouri Association of Secondary School Principals. Schools across Missouri were invited to nominate candidates for this statewide recognition. The selection is based primarily on a formula using the student’s grade point average and ACT or SAT score.

Each student nominated had to meet criteria of an “Academic Decathlon,” which included ten “events” designed to assure the academic strength of the student. The student must have a minimum GPA of 3.750, a minimum ACT score of 29 or a minimum SAT score of 1,600, be ranked in the upper ten percent of the class and have taken high-level courses in mathematics, science, English and foreign language. The student must also have excellent attendance, be an exemplary school citizen and be involved in the school activity program.

Parnell will attend Drury University in the Fall of 2022 where she plans to study mathematics and pre-engineering. While at Drury, she will also play on the inaugural Drury University Women’s Lacrosse team. She is the daughter of Suzy and Lance Parnell of Cassville.

Students of the Quarter at CHS

Seniors Lexi Yockey and Wyatt Cochran have been named Students of the Quarter for third quarter at Cassville High School.

Yockey is a member of the cheerleading squad, Student Council, FCCLA and the National Honor Society. She is the daughter of Gregg and Kandi Yockey, of Cassville.

Cochran plays football and baseball, is a member of the CHS Cheerleading/Stunt Team and is a member of the National Honor Society. He is the son of Bryndon and Jennifer, of Eagle Rock.

Rockin’ W Excavation is proudly sponsoring the Student of the Quarter program at CHS. They have provided each award recipient with a goodie bag and a $15 gift certificate to a local restaurant.

On March 31, the Cassville Fishing Team visited Ledgerrock Lures in Shell Knob. Ledgerrock Lures is a local manufacturer and wholesaler of baits and lures that include jigs and plastics for fishing. The owner, Danny Loveland, hosted an in depth tour of the manufacturing facility describing how baits were designed, manufactured, and distributed. He also provided insight to the team on how to effectively use the baits and lures to catch fish. After the tour, he provided lunch by way of a fish fry for the team. The fishing team is made up of middle school and high school students from the Cassville area and compete against other teams at bass tournaments held at Table Rock Lake, Bull Shoals Lake, Lake of the Ozarks, Truman Lake, Stockton Lake and Pomme de Terre.

On March 30, during a press conference at the State Capitol, Governor Mike Parson announced an end to the COVID-19 crisis in Missouri and that the state will be shifting to an endemic phase of the pandemic on Friday, April 1, 2022. A whole-of-government COVID-19 emergency response was taken for more than two years, an effort that responded to the needs of all Missourians during the global pandemic and sustained state operations as more was learned about the novel virus. Vaccines, testing resources, and treatments are now readily available for all Missourians, and much of the population now has some immunity to the virus. “Over the past two years, we have learned a lot that will help us respond to future outbreaks and challenges that may come our way,” Governor Parson said. “The COVID-19 crisis is over in the state of Missouri, and we are moving on.”

The SARS-CoV-2 virus, which causes COVID-19, is expected to continue to circulate in communities, meaning it will be considered endemic like many other diseases. The endemicity also means that surveillance priority will change from monitoring case numbers to monitoring disease severity and societal impact as new waves of infection come and go. This transition does not minimize the continued importance of public health surveillance, investigation, and response activities, as is necessary to mitigate any disease. “As we enter this phase of our state’s recovery, we continue to encourage Missourians to safeguard their own health and the health of loved ones through tried and true public health measures,” said Department of Health and Senior Services Acting Director Paula Nickelson. “Missourians should feel confident that we will remain vigilant when monitoring COVID-19 levels throughout the state.” In addition to vaccines, testing, and treatment options, which are some of the most effective tools to fight COVID-19, Missouri has expanded capabilities over the past two years in areas of personal protective equipment (PPE), hospital capacity, and data collection. These capabilities allow Missouri to adapt to changing needs regarding COVID-19 in the future.

Missouri’s approach moving forward will allow state and local health officials to closely monitor community level of COVID-19, determine which variants of SARS-CoV-2 are circulating through the genomic surveillance, and assess disease severity and impact of COVID-19-associated illnesses. Beginning April 1, the Department of Health and Senior Services will provide weekly dashboard updates that will include 7-day case rate data, activity by region and county, statewide data on COVID-19 hospitalizations, and circulating virus variants. This is a flexible approach allowing accommodation for future surges, should they occur, and require more frequent updates and additional datasets. More information about vaccines, testing resources, and treatment options along with the updated COVID-19 dashboard and details about this phase of the pandemic can be found by visiting health.mo.gov/coronavirus.

Your electric meter is a necessary part of the system after all, reading your meter tells you how much electricity you're using. But while looking at it is encouraged, opening or tampering with it is not.

Attempting to adjust an electric meter exposes you to two risks, the most immediate being the danger of potentially lethal electric shock. The second risk becomes clear when you realize that tampering with an electric meter is illegal. Use a hands-off approach to avoid both kinds of trouble.

Water is in pretty good shape, the CFS is 141 this morning. Water is pretty clear, not gin clear yet but getting there. I think a bit more rain is coming this next week, but right now, it is in good shape.

Dry fly fishing has been good. Caddis, adams, blue wing olives, midges, and a few sulfers have all been catching good numbers of trout this week.

Crackle backs have been very good also, as have beetles. I know its too early, but the trout have been hitting them pretty good on the warmer days.

Zebra midges were very good this week. Black, brown and red seemed to be the best colors.

Pheasant tails, copper johns, sow bugs, burlaps and hares ears all caught trout well this week. Glo-balls, and san juan worms did well also. I had lots of customers buying the mop flies this week. Yellow and the cream seemed to be working the best.

Black woolly buggers are usually a good bet first thing in the morning, but fish 'em slow and deep in the afternoon, and you can catch trout all day on one.

The plastic baits were still catching trout very well all week. The natural fish oil eggs and the new hatch brown eggs did very well this past few days. The trout really eat em up.

Power bait eggs in white, orange, and flo. yellow were good all week.

The 1" crawlers were good all week. The yellow and the pink seemed to be the best colors.

Black spinners, and blue spinners worked well all

Southwest Boys 2nd at Diamond Track Invitational

Steven Voyak

The Southwest boys track team, led by Caden Uthe, Christian Long, and Ezra Sprowes, finished runner-up at the Diamond Invitational last week. School of the Ozarks won the event that featured 15 schools with 93 points, while Southwest and Jasper followed with 78 and 73 respectively.

"We made a few changes to score some extra points and the guys really responded," said Coach Steve Voyak. "The wind was relentless all day making it challenging for all athletes."

Long won the open 800 meters and finished third in the mile and fourth in the 2-mile, while Uthe was 2nd in the high jump and anchored the 4x800 (1st) and the 4x400 (3rd). Sprowes was second in the 200 and helped the 4x100 earh silver as well.

Otis Rainer, Robert Humphries and Jerwyn Straw also were standouts at the meet.

"Otis helped us medal in three relay events and Jerwyn in two," Voyak said. "And Robert, who has been maybe our most impressive and consistent runner in the first three meets, medaled in the 4x800, 800 and mile.
