McDowell man charged in agricultural thefts

Kathee Baird

A man who was charged with receiving stolen property connected to agricultural thefts in Barry County in 2010 is now facing similar charges in Greene County.

Howard Lee Perryman, 63, of Verona, has been charged with 60 felonies since 1967 and has served time in Missouri and federal prisons after being convicted 20 times.

The Missouri Highway Patrol says his arrest was the result of a lengthy investigation carried out by the patrol's Division of Drug and Crime Control, and the Barry and Greene County sheriff's departments.

Court documents say that took almost a year for the crime lab to allegedly link Perryman's DNA to a May 2012 cattle theft in Greene County. Investigators collected a used paper towel that was found near tire tracks where 13 head of stolen cattle were loaded.

That DNA profile was also linked to other outstanding cases.

Two are tied to two 2006 Greene County farm thefts; the other two were being investigated by the Missouri Highway Patrol Division of Drug and Crime Control.

A stolen truck from Jasper County was recovered in a farmer's field in Greene County in 2006 after a reported attempted cattle theft. Inside the truck, detectives found a jacket and a towel. Lab tests say those items also allegedly contained Perryman's DNA.

On June 12th, detectives were conducting surveillance on Perryman's 1995 Sonoma truck parked at CTI Trucking when he allegedly pulled alongside his vehicle in a white flat bed truck.

Court documents say when Perryman left the facility, investigators ran the Vehicle Identification Number of the flat bed truck and discovered it had been stolen in Jasper County in July of 2011.

KY3 to celebrate 60th anniversary at RRSP

Rachael Freeman

KY3, of Springfield, will be celebrating their 60th anniversary this October. The news channel is celebrating their anniversary with a tour through the Ozarks, stopping at 10 communities to broadcast the news starting July 31 at the Ozark Empire Fair.

Cassville has been chosen as one of the communities KY3 will travel to. Many people saw reporter and anchor Jerry Jacobs walking around Cassville on Tuesday preparing for the broadcast event.

KY3 will hold their 5:00 p.m. and 6:00 p.m. newscasts from Roaring River State Park on Wednesday, August 21. The news is said to feature only news about Cassville that day, besides the weather report.

Hwy. C closed Saturday in conjunction with Purdy Festival

The Purdy Police Department announced that State Highway C in Purdy will be closed on Saturday, July 20th, starting at 9:00 a.m. until approximately 11:00 p.m.

The Missouri Department of Transportation will be erecting barricades at Front Street and at Fifth Street that will prohibit the movement of vehicular traffic on State Highway C.

"This is being done for the safety of pedestrians that will be walking alongside the roadway and crossing over the highway during the festival," stated Jackie Lowe, Purdy's Chief of Police.

Barricades will also be placed at the sound ends of Commercial, Third and Fourth Streets, which intersect with State Highway C.

"Motorists are urged to use Washington Street as an alternative route of travel through town during the festival," stated Lowe.

The Purdy Police Department also asks that no on attempt to move any barricade that has been placed upon the State Highway or upon a city street to control traffic or as a safety matter.

Any person caught tampering with any barricade or posed traffic sign will be issued a citation.

"Motorists are also reminded not to block any public street, alley or provide driveway. Violations may result in a citation being issued and the motor vehicle being towed at the owner's expense.

If you have any questions, contact the Purdy Police Department at (418)-442-7429.

Recent construction on the new Cassville McDonald's has started, with hopes of opening in the middle of September. After the fire on March 10th, many workers and utility trucks have been spotted cleaning up the area. Before the fire took over McDonald's it was completely renovated, costing upwards of $700,000.

With the new fast food restaurant going up it will cost an additional two million to finish the project.

The new food chain will be 700 square feet bigger than the original McDonald's. It will also include a larger kitchen, larger dining hall and larger rest rooms.

Although the play area will not be included in this McDonald's, there will be electronic games set up for children. Ten Cassville employees stayed with the fast food chain after the fire and are working in the Rogers and Bentonville area until they can return to their hometown McDonald's.

Bill and Walter Mathews bought the Cassville McDonald's six years ago from their nephew, Dean Mathews. Together they own 34 McDonald's, only one in Missouri, most in Arkansas and a few in Oklahoma.

Barry County gains work ready designation

Barry, Barton, Lawrence and Newton counties in southwest Missouri joined the ranks of the 33 counties in Show-Me State with the Certified Work ready Community in Progress designation. The Missouri Workforce Investment Board at the Department of Economic Development approved the second round of certified counties at its meeting in Jefferson City Friday, July 12th.

The In Progress designation is a provisional approval of the Work Ready status allowing these counties to meet their goals for employer participation and volume of the National Career Readiness Certificate (NCRC) by July of 2015. Progress on the goals may be monitored online with specific pages for the new counties. Barry: <http://workreadycommunities.org/MO/009>, Barton: <http://workreadycommunities.org/MO/011>, Lawrence: <http://workreadycommunities.org/MO/109>, and Newton: <http://workreadycommunities.org/MO/145>.

Friday’s approval officially brings in to CWRC five of the seven counties of the southwest Missouri workforce region. Jasper County achieved its full certification in November 2012 and received formal recognition March 8, 2013. The WIB continues to assist current goals in growing and achieving goals. The Joplin Regional Prosperity Initiative and the WIB teamed up to assist neighboring counties in Southeast Kansas to enter CWRC as part of Tri-State area-wide for Dade and McDonald counties for potential CWRC efforts.

CATTLE from FRONT

As the investigator was photographing the stolen truck, he was made aware of a nearby cattle theft. Tire tracks in a mud puddle on the property where seven head of cattle were stolen matched the tread on the stolen white truck, according to the probable cause statement.

During the course of the investigation, a GPS tracking device was placed on the stolen truck and on July 8th the vehicle began moving. Authorities tracked it to a tire business where Perryman was changing a tire. When authorities attempted to arrest Perryman, he fled and led authorities from several different agencies on a chase that lasted nearly a full day.

Perryman, who was out on bond while he awaits trial in Barry County next April, had been under investigation for about a year, according to Barry County Sheriff Mick Epperly. “He’s connected to a lot of thefts in our county and all over southwest Missouri,” said Epperly. “It’s going to come down to a bunch of agriculture items from skid steers to hay rakes and rolls and rolls of hay netting and a lot of cattle thefts.” “It’s been a great combined investigation between all the agencies involved. I assigned an investigator as needed to assist the rural crimes division in this investigation,” said Epperly.

Testimony underway in McCullough wrongful death suit

Kathee Baird
Opening statements began Monday afternoon after a jury of nine men and six women were seated in the wrongful death trial of Gary McCullough, who has been missing since 1999. Neither Sandy McCullough-Klemp or Kristopher Klemp, who could be held civilly liable for the wrongful death of McCullough, were present at the proceedings.

Attorney Richard Anderson, who is representing McCullough's daughters, told the jury that Sandra Chapin married Gary McCullough's brother, Albert, in 1994. Part of the reason for the couple's divorce was that Sandy was having an affair with Gary McCullough.

After Gary McCullough was told he would no longer be allowed to live on the family's property if he continued the affair with Sandy, they "camped in the woods" with her six children.

Anderson told the jury that Sandra McCullough swore that she did not have any interest in any real estate holdings in her divorce proceedings with Albert McCullough, even though she and Gary McCullough were in the process of buying a house and 80 acres in Barry County.

It was inside that house that Anderson alleges that Sandra McCullough killed

Gary McCullough on May 11, 1999. Not long after the new couple moved to the farm near Cassville, one of McCullough's daughters (he had been married twice before his marriage to Sandy) told him that Sandy was verbally abusive towards her and asked for permission to move to her grandparent's home near Shell Knob. Life with Sandy was like treading water, according to Anderson.

McCullough was arrested in Arkansas on charges of writing bogus checks. Anderson says Gary McCullough knew Sandy was responsible for the bad checks and that she was selling off livestock without his permission. The downward spiral continued when McCullough attended a calf sale and spotted some of his herd. When he inquired who put them in the sale, he was told "Gary McCullough." McCullough told sale agents he did not authorize their sale and demanded a "no sale."

Gary also believed his new wife was having an affair and placed a tracking device on a truck. His suspicions were confirmed after he discovered Sandy and her lover Kristopher Klemp in the vehicle. It was no secret that the McCullough family and Sandy didn't care for each other; however, the contempt Sandy harbored for her in-laws was revealed when Gary told his family he had to hide his truck when he went turkey hunting at the family farm on May 9th. He told family members he had to hide the vehicle or he would face the wrath of his wife when he returned home. That was the last time anyone in Gary McCullough's family saw him alive.

On May 10th, friends of McCullough's, Jeff and Nikki Allen, say Sandy pulled into their driveway and made an obscene gesture toward the missing man. McCullough left and returned to their home about 11 p.m. Anderson told the jury the friends asked him to stay, but he left again "because he was concerned about what Sandy would do to his dogs and cows."

Gary McCullough worked his last shift at George's on May 11th and was seen on a road he typically took to and from work about 2:30 p.m., according to Anderson. When McCullough failed to show up for his shift on May 12th, his supervisor called and was told by a female child that he had left for work that morning. After failing to show up for work again the next day, the supervisor called again and reached Sandy. Sandy said Gary had "gone to Diamond on the 11th to see a Mexican about a rooster and had not returned."

According to Anderson, Sandy McCullough met her children at the door to the farmhouse as they returned from school shortly after her husband disappeared and told them that one of the family's animals had babies and to go check on them. That was all the kids except for Liehnia (Lena) who she took inside to allegedly help her clean up the crime scene.

When some of the children discovered the truck that Gary had allegedly taken to Diamond in the woods on the farm, Sandy McCullough told them they were wrong and Gary was missing. That truck was moved and eventually discovered on a dead end road in a neighboring town, according to Anderson. Knowing authorities were eventually going to knock on her door after being alerted to her husband's disappearance by co-workers, Anderson says Sandy gathered her children around the family dinner table and rehearsed with them what to say if police asked them what happened to their stepfather...even down to what they had for dinner the night he went missing.

At that point, the proceedings were stopped and the jury sent home after defense attorneys for the now Sandra McCullough-Klemp and Kristopher Klemp raised concerns about the taped "confession" of Lena Chapin and asked for a ruling on whether that evidence would be admissible and asked for an offer of proof.

Judge Carr Woods granted the motion and an evidentiary was heard. Defense attorneys Dale Wiley and John Lewright want the taped confession thrown out because Lena Chapin has also disappeared and argued it should be considered be hearsay.

Albert McCullough testified that the mother of a boy that Lena Chapin had been drinking with said the 13 year-old allegedly "spilled her guts" about what happened to her stepfather.

McCullough said he met with Lena, who was mad at her mother over her refusal to purchase a truck for her, when she was 17.

They first met at a store but moved the meeting to his home after Lena expressed concerns about her mother spotting them together at the store. None of the first meeting was recorded, however, the second meeting was audio taped.

McCullough starts the tape with "1, 2, 3.....bring it on."

Chapin tells McCullough that her mother had actually planned to have her husband killed the day before the actual murder but that something happened and it was pushed back a day. She said when she returned home from school Gary was on the floor of a bedroom, dead.

When asked how her mother moved the 6' 3," 240 pound man to a burn pile on the farm, Chapin says he was cut up in the bedroom and transported there. After McCullough's body was burned, Chapin says his remains were put in buckets and spread.

"There's no proof anywhere," according to Chapin's tape recorded statement. Lewright asked Deputy Brian Martin why he hadn't talked with Chapin after the recorded statement surfaced.

"You had the opportunity for many years to question her after the statement, didn't you? She was mad at her mom...did you ask her about that...what about her receiving money for her statement," Lewright hammered at Martin.

"She recanted that statement, didn't she?" Lewright bellowed.

"She did to Sheriff

Epperly," Martin responded. "Toward the end of that statement Lena is backtracking isn't she," Wiley asked McCullough. "She didn't want to get her mom in trouble."

Wiley then asked if there was ever any concern that Albert McCullough was the "real" father of one of his brother's daughters.

Lewright then asked McCullough if the real reason for Lena Chapin's change of heart wasn't the money she needed to purchase the truck. "You told her what to say in order to get that truck, didn't you?"

"I didn't tell that girl what to say...that girl was terrified, sir. She came to give my family some closure."

"No one on that tape says [Kristopher] Klemp had anything to do with Gary's disappearance, did they," asked Lewright.

"Do you think Sandy and Klemp would have moved his stuff into Gary's house if he was still alive," McCullough responded. "I think Sandy and Klemp killed my brother."

"Barry County told you they didn't have enough to prosecute, didn't they," Wiley asked Albert McCullough.

"They said they needed more," McCullough conceded.

"And you went and got it for them, didn't you," Wiley shot back.

Sheriff Mick Epperly will be called to the evidentiary hearing tomorrow (07-16-13) morning and asked about the recanted statement.

Judge Woods will issue his ruling on the admissibility of Chapin's statement after that.

Following the testimony of Sheriff Mick Epperly on day two of the trial, Judge Woods ruled that Lena Chapin's taped statement would not be allowed to be played for jurors.

Counts two and three of the lawsuit, which pertained to property, were dismissed after Anderson failed to mention them in his opening statement.

Shell Knob Senior Center to offer computer classes

Paula Andersen

The Shell Knob Senior Center has been seeking an individual that would be experienced and skilled in the teaching of computer basics. Seniors interested in these classes wanted to learn how to keep their computers running the way they were designed to run and minimize their risk of getting viruses.

Other concerns were learning how to protect their data from people who should not have access to it.

They believed the classes needed to be taught at a pace that could keep the information flowing while allowing everyone to keep up.

The Senior Center staff have identified Dan Rice of Trusted Tech Services as someone who could take on this task. His first class will be held Thursday, July 25th, at 6:30 p.m. at the Senior Center on YY-15 in Shell Knob.

Cost for the class is $35 per session and seniors will also receive a free plus one with their ticket purchase.

All attendees will be going home with a CD as well as some helpful installs for some of the software discussed in class.

County sales tax revenue up for June

Rachael Freeman

Barry County saw a rise in sales tax revenue for the month of June. During June 2013, the county received $160,184.79. This was nearly a $10,000 increase compared to June 2012.

With the 6.55 percent increase for June, the County has gone from being 10.70 percent under budget to 3.66 percent under budget.

The City of Cassville saw a 1.5 percent drop in June's sales tax revenues bringing in $73,808.79 compared to 2012's $74,925.14.

Year-to-date, Cassville is operating at 2.2 percent under what was projected for the 2013 budget.

Library holds Dig Into Healthy Eating program

Samantha Barberio

On July 11th, the Barry-Lawrence Library in Cassville held an event for kids called "Dig Into Healthy Eating." This event was hosted by Tanya Wogoman and Jacquie Howell from MU Extension. The event started with Wogoman reading "Dragons Love Tacos" by Adam Rubin, then Howell taught the children how to make a healthy snack, salsa.

This program was one of several that the library has had during its summer reading program "Dig Into Reading."

Each year, libraries all over the United States hold summer reading clubs to encourage children, teens and adults to read and utilize resources at their local library.

It's meant to help children stay sharp in their reading skills and learn about different topics in a fun setting.

No MOre Trash! Bash

Missourians from every corner of the state worked together in April to collect almost 130,000 bags of litter during the 2013 No MOre Trash! Bash.

The Bash is an annual event where volunteers and others clean up litter all across state – from roadsides and parks to rivers and streams.

With the final reporting now complete, the Missouri departments of Conservation and Transportation report 129,255 bags collected in April during the Bash.

“On behalf of our state’s forests, fish and wildlife, and the millions of Missourians who enjoy them, we offer a great big ‘Thank You!’ to the almost 1,000 groups and more than 16,000 volunteers who bashed trash by picking up litter and educating others about the dangers of littering,” said Conservation Department No MOre Trash! Coordinator Joe Jerek.

“Animals get tangled in litter, such as plastic six-pack holders and discarded fishing line, and it hurts and kills them.”

“Litter is a big problem because it’s unattractive, costly, and harmful to the environment,” said Armstrong. “If more people would keep their trash and properly dispose of it, or, better yet, recycle it, we would reduce the amount of litter we need to pick up in the first place.”

Local author visits Cassville’s Library

Samantha Barberio

Local author Heather Huffman visited the Barry-Lawrence library on Thursday July 11, 2013.

Heather has written and published eleven books, all romantic suspense novels.

When asked why she chose this genre, she replied, “I don’t really know that I chose my genre so much as it chose me. These are the stories swirling around my head. But I guess the genre makes sense. I love, love, I love adventure, and I love to laugh. All three of these traits permeate my books.”

Huffman grew up in the Ozarks and she uses her small town roots as a basis for most of her story lines.

She also gives her readers the chance to learn about problems with human trafficking, not only in other countries but in ours as well.

Heather came to speak to our library patrons and community members about her path to becoming an author.

She gave participants a chance to ask her questions, and gave advice about how aspiring authors can work toward getting their own book out to the public.

At the end of the presentation, Huffman gave all who attended a copy of “Ring of Fire”, one of her most popular books.

FOR IT IS WRITTEN

Hebrews 11:1-- Now faith is the substance of things hope for, the evidence of things not seen.

Hebrews 11:6-- But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

Romans 10:14-- How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher?

Romans 12:3-- For I say, throughout the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think soberly, according as God has dealt to every man the measure of faith.

Hebrews 4:2-- For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the work preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.

Engagements

Horton-Meads

John Horton and Jena Smith, of Cassville, are proud to announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Misti Horton, to Seth Meads, the son of Mischelle Mendiola and stepfather David Tiblow, of Windsor.

The wedding is planned for September 7, 2013, in Joplin.

The couple will reside in Grand Forks, North Dakota.

Did You Know?

There are many different reasons couples opt to get married in a particular month. Warm weather and the best chance for good photo opportunities spurs many couples to tie the knot during the summer months. Although June has long been the most popular month for getting hitched, times are changing. Numbers indicate that July and August have had more marriages than June for the last several years. In North America, the most popular month to walk down the aisle is July, followed by August, June, May, September, October, December, November, April, February, and March. January has the least number of weddings. Couples who are looking to save money or avoid competition for vendors with other couples can use this information when choosing a date for their weddings.

Sherwood-Isabell

Jaden Danielle Sherwood, daughter of Jonathan and Cindy Sherwood of Wheaton, and Joshua Matthew Isabell, son of Matthew and Susan Isabell of Gravette, Ark., will be sealed for time and all eternity on Thursday, July 25, 2013, in the LDS Temple in Kansas City.

Local shelter a sanctuary for cats and dogs

Stormy Holtzman-Pierpont

A labor of love for abandoned Barry County dogs and cats is what it is all about. When you drive up to the "Haven of the Ozarks" at 26117 Farm Road 2190, Washburn (about 2 miles southeast of Exeter), you realize the scope of the operations of the enterprise. Its a sanctuary and not just a shelter.

Approximately seven million pets enter animal shelters nationally every year--nearly half of those are euthanized. The Haven is truly a NO KILL shelter and only in extreme situations will an animal be euthanized. Only suffering animals with untreatable conditions and those rare, unpredictably vicious dogs (average less than 1 per year) are put down.

A common misconception within the community has been that you can just drop off any stray you find. That isn't the case. The Haven of the Ozarks has a waiting list and they can accommodate approximately 140 dogs and 50 cats. They have to work down the list. Mike stated, "People call and get upset when we can't take a dog that they found along the road. We wish we could take them all but we just can't." Some of the animals have been here since the late 90's and they will continue to provide them a home.

The Haven of the Ozarks is a non-profit 501 c3 facility that offers long-term care to dogs and cats until they can be found a loving forever home. Part of the Haven's mission statement is to provide a sanctuary to those deemed "unadoptable." When asked, Mike Steffen, Director of Operations, if this facility was close to his heart, he stated, "It is my heart." Mike started volunteering in March of 2001 and is still working tirelessly to keep the Haven going strong. Mike stated that he "couldn't do it without the help of staff, Andy and Angie." Andy Breeden lives on site and introduced me to his newest adopted pet, Buddy. Buddy was a very aggressive "unadoptable" dog that, after countless hours of attention, now obviously adores him.

I noticed how they interacted and gave specific personality traits of the individual dogs. All of the animals were gently cared for and the more aggressive dogs were coaxed to the fence for a quick head pat as we were walking along.

The facility is located on 11 1/2 acres near Cassville. The dogs live in large, outdoor pens - most 16' X 16' for 2 dogs, and 30' X 90' fields holding 3 dogs each. They enjoy access to fresh water, food, shelter, and shade, with swimming pools during warm weather. The shaded areas within the pens are carport covers donated by two individuals. Carol Creyer donated 8 of the covers. The 40'x40' metal building was made possible by Barbara Williams. She was said to be passionate about the Haven and upon her passing donated the funds to build the Barbara Williams Training Center to provide training for adopted animals. Ongoing Basic Dog Training classes are now offered with Trainer Tristan Jolivette on Saturday afternoons. Start dates are staggered and both beginner and intermediate classes are available. Price per dog is $89.99 and Haven adoptees get a discount. The cats live in Community Rooms with space to climb, play, and hide, and an outdoor area. Adoption prices range from $25-$75 per animal. Special rates may apply for special needs orphans, and dedicated pairs.

Steffen, stated, "Costs aren't cheap and relying on volunteers is a big part of staying open." Right now volunteer help is a little scarce and they are asking the community for help. They are in the process of building more pens and could use some additional manpower to complete the project. Keep in mind the Haven operates with one Director and two staff members, and exists because of a handful of dedicated volunteers and the good will and generosity of people who care about the welfare of animals.

The Haven is always in need of volunteers. There are all kinds of jobs, big and small, that they need help with. When asked what they needed, they say "Volunteers are needed most to brush, feed, walk, and visit with the orphans. Organize our office, wash some dishes, answer the phone or make some calls. have a garage sale, chili supper, car or dog Wash. Approach your employer to match donations, sponsor orphans or events, or share our facebook page.

"We try to make use of donations of any kind, but what is most needed is, of course, cold hard cash. We can always use bleach, laundry soap, cat flea collars and toys, copy paper and card stock paper, printer ink, and your time. If there isn't an orphan needing costly treatment at the moment, the next could turn up tomorrow. Any donation earmarked for a special purpose WILL be used for that purpose."

If you are interested in volunteering, please call (417)-835-3647.

Exeter welcomes a new girls head basketball coach

Exeter High School is welcoming a new girls basketball coach, Brandon Weiss. Weiss' previous job was at Clever High School, teaching credit recovery and being a Missouri options instructor. His coaching duties ranged from being the head girls basketball coach in high school and junior high to being the head junior high baseball coach. This will be Weiss' 18th year of coaching and his 10th year as a head coach. He's received many awards such as two time conference coach of the year at Miller and two time district coach of the year. Also under his lead, the Clever basketball team finished 3rd at the State Tournament at Miller. Weiss has only had one losing season out of nine years being the head varsity coach, and is just shy of 150 wins in his career. He is very familiar with sports considering he played basketball and football in high school and while in college at Briar Cliff University in Sioux City, Iowa, he was the head assistant coach on the women's basketball team. Weiss decided to come to Exeter stating, "They (Exeter girls basketball) have a rich tradition of winning, and there is a great nucleus of talent returning." Weiss' duties at Exeter will be head girls basketball coach and he will be teaching high school physical education. Weiss has been familiarizing himself with the basketball team this summer by coaching many games with the team. He also watched a few games from last year to give him a better understanding of how the team works together. Weiss states, "I expect this year's team to be competitive this season and I'm very excited to be a Tiger!"

Cassville Tuesday Men's League

By Robert Youk There were 37 golfers ready to play. The weather allowed 8 of the 10 groups to finish play, although some were wet when they came in the clubhouse. Results were as follows: 1st place with a net 55 Bob Gaddis, 2nd place Bob York with a net 58, 3rd place Chuck Moran with a net 59, and 4th place with a net 60 was Wayne Gillenwater and Dennis Cooper. Closest to the pin shooters were #6 Allen Staats, #8 Jim Murphy, #11 Dennis Cooper and #17 Ronnie Langston. The weekly skins game produced the following winners Hal Every, Rich Meyerkord, Dale Groth, Jack Shoup, Allen Oakleaf, Jim Murphy and Bob York. Remember: since Bad shots in golf come in groups of three, a fourth bad shot is actually the beginning of the next group. The Women's League will be holding the Tri-State Golf Tournament July 22-24 so our league will resume on July 30th. See you then.

SW Athletic Booster Club Received Donation

Family and friends held a basketball tournament in tribute to Desiree Evans on May 11, 2013. The Des Evans Memorial Basket Ball Tournament raised $456.00. Desiree was only 17 years old and a Junior at Southwest when she was killed tragically in an automobile crash on May 11, 2001. Des loved all sports. She was active in volley ball, soft ball, and track but her love was basket ball. Desiree's family wanted the money raised to go toward helping our young athletes at SW to achieve their goals.

Tim's Trout Tips

Water is still low and clear, making for some really good dry fly fishing, still getting the trout on hoppers, beetles, ants, and crackle backs, and small crickets and wooly worms are still pretty good.

Adams, lt. cahills, renegades, caddis, blue wing olives and tricos are all still working well.

Good nymphs right now would be the pheasant tail nymph, the zebra midge, bur-laps copper johns, and small brassies.

Olive, black, dk. brown and ginger wooly buggers are all working well right now. With the low water it is important to use 9' leaders that are 2lb (7X) these work well right now.

If you are spin fishing 2lb maxima or P-line, lines work well right now.

If you are fishing jigs, the black/yellow, dk. olive, dk. brown, green/yellow red/orange and the white have all been working.

Plastics are always a good choice, white, brown, orange, fl. yellow and pink eggs have been good.

Worms in black/yellow, john deere green, electric chicken, cheese, orange/white and the cream colors have all been good the past few weeks.

In zone 3 night crawlers, yellow power bait paste, and corn has all been working, good luck on the river this week.

CHS Football Alumni to be honored

Since the first year of Wildcat football in 1921, thousands of young men from the halls of Cassville High School have proudly played on the field representing our beloved 'Black and Gold'. For our first home game this season, we would like to recognize certain players as our special guests and VIP's. Announcing: If you played on the 1959 season or earlier Wildcat football teams and you can attend the September 6th game, please reply with your full contact information, the year you graduated from CHS, the season and positions you played, your old Wildcat jersey number, and any post-season honors you received. We must receive your reply by no later than August 12, 2013. Please send all information as soon as possible to CassvilleWildcats@gmail.com (or by private message in the 'Cassville Wildcats' Facebook group). All specially registered football alumni will gather pre-game in the north end zone area for food and drinks. Prior to game-time, the alumni will be proudly introduced to the hometown fans. As a special treat, these special VIP's will be given sideline access before the pre-game warm-ups! This night promises to be special for those men once tasked to defend and protect Wildcat Stadium! (If you were a player of another decade, plans are underway now to provide a special night to your generation, too!)

Shrine Club Fundraiser

By Paula Anderson

This year's theme for the Shrine Club fundraiser, the H2O Poker Run, is "Wastin' Away in Shrineville".

As many know, the Shrine Club is known for its' generosity and willingness to help the crippled children of America. Shrine members drive or fly children to Shrine hospitals that provide care and needed medical services to needy children. This July is their time to provide funding for their local unit. Shell Knob Shrine has a facility south of Shell Knob that conducts a yearly fundraiser to maintain their local facility. Donations for this event are not tax deductible but go for a good cause. The July event is a Poker Run that has proven to be a fun and rewarding event for all those that participate.

This week the Shell Knob Shrine Club is selling advance tickets to this Saturday's July 20 Poker Run.

Pre-registration is $20.00 and tickets may be purchased at T & J Marine, south of the Shell Knob Bridge on Highway 39. The cut-off time for preregistration is Friday, July 19, at 5 pm. The ticket price includes one 5 card hand and one meal ticket. If you are pre-registered, you must check in at King's River Marina and/or Big M Marina the day of the Poker Run.

If you register the day of the Poker Run, the ticket price is $25.00. There will be no registration after noon. If you have additional questions call: Randy 342-4017 or Buck 858-0380. Over $500 in prizes will be awarded throughout the day! The evening meal will be at Campbell Point Picnic area where the owner of the winning hand will be awarded $1,000. All hands have to be turned in at 4:30 pm. This should be another fun event and one that does good for the Shrine Club of Shell Knob.

Strongman Training For Sports

A competitive season has distinct beginnings and ends. Strength, on the other hand, isn't a destination; it's an ongoing and ever-changing struggle. This is true no matter your goals, from trying to increase the amount you can lift, to using strength to build speed or athletic prowess. Because those goals are so open-ended, it's easy to fall into a rut after training for an extended period.

When this happens, it's easy to just start shopping around for a newer or "better" program. Countless programs await you online and in magazines. Most of the time, they're basically a more complicated, more time-consuming version of what you're doing already. If your goal is to take your competitive ability to the next level, they're not going to get you there. In this case you need a wholly different style of training, one that reinforces the foundational concepts of strength training, but still blows up the conventional program.

I'm talking about strongman training, or dinosaur training, implement, functional, and few other names. I'm talking track stars, bodybuilders, volleyball players, golfers, soccer players, firefighters, football linemen, everyone.

No matter your fitness destination, spending a little time with strongman training can help you get there. It'll refresh a stale strength regimen. If or when you go back to your old program, you'll be stronger, leaner, and tougher than ever. Just try it!

Price Cutter to offer free ride day passes to Fair

A partnership between Price Cutter and the Ozark Empire Fair means families will enjoy an afternoon of free rides at the fair this year.

As the Free Ride Day sponsor, Price Cutter is the exclusive location for Free Ride Day Passes which get fairgoers unlimited free rides on July 31, 2013, from 1 pm – 5 pm. Customers are welcome to as many Free Ride Day Passes as they would like at no charge – a ticket purchase is not required. Passes are valid for one person in exchange for a wristband at the Carnival Guest Relations Booth at the fairgrounds.

As the popularity of the Ozark Empire Fair draws people from the entire Ozarks area, Free Ride Day Passes will also be available at Price Cutter’s sister store banners, including Ramey, Smitty’s, Summer Fresh and Branson-area Country Marts.

While Free Ride Day Passes do not include gate admission, fairgoers can save further by purchasing their advance tickets to the fair at Price Cutter and its sister stores. Adult general admission tickets are just $6 each, while tickets for children ages 6-12, are only $2 each.

“This partnership with the Ozark Empire Fair is a natural fit for Price Cutter, given we have over 40 stores located throughout the Ozarks, making it convenient for shoppers to buy their fair tickets and pick up Free Ride Day Passes,” noted Larry Hayward, Executive Vice President of Price Cutter. “We are pleased to be able to offer families the opportunity to take their children to the fair and enjoy an afternoon of free rides. It’s a great way for us to show appreciation to our shoppers and the local communities we’re so proud to serve.”

Southwest Schools Second Semester Review

Bob Walker, Superintendent

School year 2012-2013 has drawn to close with the recent completion of our summer session. Similarly to what we have done for last few years at the close of each semester, I would like to provide a review, as well as share information pertaining to our immediate future. We believe that 2012-2013 was a time of success at Southwest R-V, and we expect this trend to continue during the upcoming school year.

In respect to improvements to our buildings and grounds, other than routine upkeep, nothing noteworthy was begun during the spring semester. However, with the arrival of summer, two important projects have kicked off that I'm sure will be much appreciated by our patrons. The Elementary/Middle School parking and drive areas are being completely renovated. Drainage issues will be improved, parking capacity will be increased, and a permanent asphalt surface will be applied. This will enable parking spaces and drop off zones to be more clearly defined, which should improve safety and traffic flow. Another safety improvement is the construction of a new Elementary office area. It will be located at the main entrance to the building in the northwest corner of the existing cafeteria. Not only will this location provide a more logical check-in point, it will also be much more convenient for visitors who are trying to access the office. Understandably, offices in school buildings should be as close to the main entrances as possible.

We've also had some work done on the Middle School and the Elementary cafeteria roofs. A sealant product has been applied that should resolve some leak issues, while avoiding the tremendous expense of roof replacement. Though certainly not cheap, we believe this to be a good investment in extending the life span of these roofs.

Another project that is still on the drawing board, so to speak, is the construction of a 400 meter running track. The proposed location for this will be just north of the High School. We are in the process of gathering information, but will soon be able to solicit bids on this work. Our vision is to not only provide a facility for our track athletes and physical education students, but to also have a safe exercise area available for the residents of the communities within our school district. Hopefully we will be able to begin work on this project early this fall.

One final item that could be categorized as building improvement is the installation of a new telephone/intercom system in the Middle School. When school begins, there will be new telephones similar to those that were added to the K-4 rooms a few years ago, providing a compatible network in the Elementary and Middle School buildings. This is another improvement that we felt was necessary in the area of safety prevention, while enhancing the normal day to day school business communication.

Academically, we are in a time of transition. No doubt you have heard something pertaining to the new Common Core State Standards (CCSS) that are being implemented in Missouri schools. This transition is going on in the majority of the states, and definitely raises the bar instructionally. In addition, school districts within our state are also entering into the 5th cycle of the Missouri School Improvement Program (MSIP 5), the vehicle used to accredit schools. During my previous semester review, it was my pleasure to report that our schools had progressed to finally be recognized as a Distinction in Performance for Improved Achievement district, meeting at least fourteen of the required standards stipulated by the previous MSIP cycle. In a sense, MSIP 5 is more streamlined in respect to the number of standards, but its goals for schools are quite ambitious. With the academic component being driven by the CCSS, schools across the state will be challenged more than ever before.

As I have done in the past, I would like to again mention that we have a wide range of extra-curricular/co-curricular programs that a large number of students participate in. With so much attention on raising the bar academically—and well it should be—it is also important to provide other opportunities for students. Being part of a group and striving for a worthwhile goal can be very beneficial in the growth and development of young people. This Spring semester saw several of the Southwest teams and individuals excel, including conference championships won by both the Girls' and Boys' basketball teams and Girls' Track squad. The High School trap team was state runner-up and the Academic team finished their season with a record 18 wins. A couple of individuals with notable achievements include senior Colby Ross, who became Southwest's first ever National Merit Finalist, and junior Montana Hendrix, who was named as an All-State high jumper while participating in the state track meet.

A new addition to both our academic and co-curricular programs for the upcoming school year will be a second Vocational Agricultural instructor. This person will work in conjunction with our other Ag teacher, who will also be new to the district. Having two teachers will enable the curriculum to be expanded, more students to be served, and a more effective use of the resources and equipment in the shop. A strong goal of our district is to improve our Ag program, as well as see growth in its companion Future Farmers of America chapter.

In respect to district finances, 2012-2013 was a better year than was originally projected, as state revenues were slightly up overall. Although any surplus is better than a reduction, the state formula for districts remains woefully underfunded. Regardless, quality schools must continue to move forward. I'm confident that Southwest is doing so.

In closing, I would like to mention some folks that are retiring. Janet Bose, Marcia Hendrix, Sharon Laborde, and Virginia Roller have all served Southwest well, and will be genuinely missed. Glenda Dalton is semi-retiring and will be reducing her teaching responsibilities, but we're happy that she will continue to lead our Band program. It is difficult losing quality people, but on a positive note, we will be adding some exceptional individuals whose talents will mesh well with our returning staff members.

And finally, I would like to once again thank the many folks in our communities for your support and contributions to Southwest R-V. Your efforts are much appreciated. Have a good time with your kids this Summer and we'll be looking forward to their return in August.
