KY3 celebrates 60 years at Roaring River

Charlea Mills

On Wednesday, August 28, KY3's cameras were rolling for the news, but instead of a newsroom in the background, Cassville's beautiful Roaring River State Park was the backdrop. Around 450 people in the community came out for the event, according to Dusty Reid, Roaring River's park superintendent. The turnout was better than anyone could have expected.

KY3 chose Cassville as one of the nine small communities within the KY3 viewing area to spotlight during their 60th anniversary celebration. Steve Grant, Emily Wood and a large group of behind-the-scenes news crew set up across the river from the CCC Lodge at the park.

Many from the community were featured in the 5 p.m. and 6 p.m. newscasts to showcase the personalities of the area. Emory Melton spoke with the crew and revealed one of Cassville's booming businesses is located below Melton's law office: Litho Printers and Bindery, in business for over 50 years.

Dr. Larry Quinalty cooked some of his famous peach enchiladas on camera with Steve Grant and Emily Wood. The Smiths of Smith's downtown spoke of what a joy it is to run a business in such a small, close-knit community. Perhaps that was one reason why the turnout for the Cassville broadcast surpassed all of the other on-site airings. Residents care about this area and what happens here.

Many gathered around to watch the broadcast and enter into the drawing for a free 60" TV provided by KY3; others were happy just to fish the peaceful banks of Roaring River, somewhat removed from the hustle and bustle of the news crew around them. That in and of itself showcases why Roaring River draws so many from all walks of life.

A group of local kids made signs and stood behind the anchors to earn their spot on the evening news.

The City of Cassville paired with KY3 to shoot a commercial featuring Mayor Bill Shiveley and destinations around the area. It helped to give other communities a glimpse into what makes this area so special to so many people and hopefully boost tourism and commerce.

As the evening wore on and the news crew packed up, the crowd dispersed to go home. Everyone in attendance watched with pride as Cassville got its moment in the limelight for being the great community that it is.

Rotary Club tours FEMA building

Charlea Mills

The Cassville Rotary Club welcomed speaker Richard Asbill, Superintendent of Casville Schools, to showcase the new FEMA building at their meeting on Wednesday, August 28.

Asbill opened the newly constructed building to the group for their luncheon as a show of thanks for the support the Rotary Club offered in getting the building completed. While a few details remain, the structure as a whole is finished.

2 1/2 years ago, the grant was written to request money from FEMA for a tornado shelter for the school. Asbill stressed, "We have made multiple upgrades to the security of our schools. Parents want to send their kids to school knowing that they are protected. This is designed to keep you alive and safe and should ease parents' minds that, 'Hey, my kid is safe' at school."

The project was no easy feat, nor did it come with a small price tag. The original FEMA grant was for between $1.1 million. The district had to match funds of $388,063 to comply with FEMA's requirements. However, Asbill said that money was strictly for constructing a cement box. The district provided $997,115 in additional funds for building upgrades to make the space more multi-purpose.

Asbill stated, "We felt that we owed it to the tax payers to say that we spent a dollar of your money, but this is what we got out of it." While the original FEMA grant offered up a safe structure, by utilizing additional district funds, the building was upgraded for other uses for much cheaper than if they built a new structure.

The district had run into issues accommodating all of the programs put on by the school in the space it had available. Asbill stated that often the staff was rushing to get an area prepared for a special school program, displacing students from their normal areas. In general, the elementary, intermediate and middle school were out of room for all that the district has going on.

As a tornado structure the building offers a safe zone for all of PreK through eighth grade students, school faculty plus additional members of the community. Any residents within a certain radius will be sent an official invitation from FEMA stating that the shelter is their official evacuation point in the event of a tornado warning.

When a tornado warning is issued, the new building's doors automatically unlock and the generator kicks on. At that point, the first person to enter the doors triggers the motion-activated lights, and the shelter is ready to go for anyone to use for safety.

The building will not be used for any other type of emergency because the structure must always be available for a tornado warning. If the community would need a temporary medical center or shelter for displaced residents in the event of a separate disaster, such as a flood, other school structures would be used, leaving

Man arrested for shooting at children

Charlea Mills

Troy Hinkle, age 35, was arrested on Monday, August 26, for allegedly shooting at two children in their backyard from a vehicle between 6 p.m. and 7 p.m. outside of Monett.

Deputy Kerry Hedrick, of the Barry County Sheriff's Department, was dispatched to the residence at 5683 Farm Road 1057, Monett, at 6:52 p.m. for a report that a vehicle had driven by and someone inside had shot at children playing in their yard. The parents of the children, Edna and Wesley Bricker, said they were inside their home when they heard a gunshot from behind their house.

Once outside, the couple saw an older model maroon station wagon turn north onto Farm Road 1057. As the vehicle drove away, the couple claimed they heard another gunshot.

Upon questioning, the two children told the deputy that a passenger directly behind the driver extended a black handgun with a large barrel out of the window and fired at them while they were playing.

Missouri State Trooper Sergeant Gary Horton located the vehicle at Herds Truck Stop on Missouri Highway 37 in Monett. The vehicle, a maroon Buick Century, still held the 45 caliber pistol and a magazine. Samuel Johnson, a passenger in the vehicle, claimed Troy Hinkle fired a shot while they were driving.

Another officer, Detective Doug Henry, spoke with a woman jogging on Farm Road 1057 who also claimed she heard a gun shot around the time of the reported incident. She then stated she heard a vehicle accelerate in her direction and another shot was fired while the car was in motion. The jogger said she noticed four individuals in the vehicle and that they had firearms.

Hinkle was transported to the Cassville Police Department where he gave a test that showed his blood alcohol content to be 0.15. Hinkle is charged with class B felony unlawful use of a weapon. He is currently being held in the Barry County Jail on a $50,000 cash-only bond.

Several small community meetings have been held regarding the rising number of cats and dogs roaming the streets of the Cassville area.

Cassville Alderman Jan Anthony, Cassville Police Chief Dana Kammerlohr, Cassville Alderman Ann Hennigan, Cassville city clerk Karen Jennings, and concerned citizens have organized the meetings to discuss possible solutions to improve the situation for both the community and the animals at risk wandering the streets.

"There is a lot of ground work to be done and a lot of logistics to be worked out. There will be nothing in line for at least another six months," Hennigan states. The committee is looking into enacting a leash law to deter residents from allowing their animals to run freely.

Dogs are territorial animals, and the more time a dog spends roaming and establishing its perceived territory, the more likely it is to become aggressive about defending that territory. A roaming dog will constantly expand those boundaries farther from home as it leaves scent marks.

The animal will be put under constant stress to defend that territory against other dogs. Even the sweetest dog can become more aggressive in temperament as the roaming continues. If a dog was not well tempered to begin with, it can become an extremely dangerous animal, and its territorial aggression can include attacks on wildlife, cats, other dogs and humans.

Young children are particularly vulnerable because they don't behave in ways that dogs expect, making them more likely to be bitten. Dogs who have not been raised around children may not even recognize them as humans because of their erratic behavior.

Compounding the problem in Cassville is that multiple roaming dogs tend to form packs, and dog packs can become far more aggressive than one dog roaming alone.

Concern about the number of stray dogs in the Cassville area has been an issue for years, but there is little that can be done about it. Currently there is no leash or licensing law on the books in the city, and even if there was, there is no animal shelter to house strays.

If you would like more information or to voice your opinion, please contact Cassville City Hall at 847-4441.

On Tuesday, August 27, two people were arrested for selling drugs from their home in Seligman.

Robert Gonzales, Jr. and Whitney Vardeman were each charged with possession of a controlled substance with intent to distribute, use or possession of drug paraphernalia and endangering the welfare of a child in the second degree.

Gonzales was additionally charged with unlawful possession of a fire arm.

Officer Raymond Earnest, of the Seligman Police Department, was dispatched to the residence at 7186 Rolling Hills, the residence shared by Gonzales, Vardeman and their infant son, for a complaint of a fight in progress.

When Officer Earnest arrived, Gonzales was in his vehicle. The officer asked for his identification, but Gonzales denied having it with him. The officer then saw a wallet on top of a bag of marijuana sitting on the passenger seat of Gonzales's vehicle.

After searching the vehicle and home, officers found the pair to be in possession of 2.7 grams of cocaine, 44.4 grams of marijuana, a small glass pipe with residue, a set of digital scales, two containers of marijuana seeds and $500 cash. They also found an unregistered 9 mm pistol inside the home. Gonzales cannot be in possession of a fire arm because of a prior felony conviction.

Police Chief Gary Thornton stated that Gonzales had also been arrested on July 11 of this year in Oregon for a similar charge. However, his Oregon arrest was for an alleged possession and distribution of 37 pounds of marijuana.

Since Gonzales and Vardeman allegedly distributed drugs from the home where their infant son lived, both were charged with endangering the welfare of a child in the second degree. They are currently being held in the Barry County Jail on $10,000 bonds.

the FEMA building open for a tornado.

Many of the building upgrades are not yet installed, including the 450-470 chair-back seat pull-out bleachers. By purchasing collapsible bleachers, the building maintains its larger capacity for evacuations, but can also be used for events. Other upgrades include a 40' x 40' portable stage, acoustic panning and a light and sound system.

The first public event to be held in the FEMA building will be the annual Fall Show this October. The area should hold 750-800 people for any given event.

On a daily basis, the building is open in the event that the classrooms need an indoor recess area, complete with rubber floors and basketball hoops.

"We are excited to be able to offer this to our students and faculty, but also to our community," Asbill stated. "Rotary Club has been one of our biggest supporters, so we wanted to open it up for them to see first."

While the building has many upgrades and improvements to make it an appealing building, where it counts is safety. When the school drilled their evacuation protocol, all students and faculty were in the building in three minutes and 47 seconds. The building offers peace of mind for many in the community.

Cassville High School applied for a smaller FEMA structure because the school is outside the evacuation radius for the current structure. The high school's building will begin construction in two to three months.

Dr. Hall retires after 31 years

Samantha Barberio

Kenneth Hall, better known in the community as Dr. Hall, recently retired after 31 years of practice in dentistry, following his wife Ann who retired from 1st State Bank of Purdy in 2011, after 45 years as President.

Both Dr. Hall and his wife were descendants of the early day settlers of Barry county. They came from the Hall and Marbut families. Dr. Hall didn't always have aspirations of becoming a dentist; he started off working for G&R Machine Shop in Purdy during the Vietnam War. Eventually he met with Emory Melton in 1969 to discuss going to college. "Of course Emory encouraged me to go for it," stated Hall.

That fall, Dr. Hall began his journey at Crowder College in Neosho. After two years there he transferred to Drury University, receiving his bachelors of the arts in biology. Hall eventually moved north and attended the University of Missouri-Kansas City to acquire his Masters in Physiology. It was then he decided to come back to his roots in Barry County.

He started off teaching school at Southwest in Washburn. After one year as a high school biology and middle school physical science teacher, Hall decided he would apply to dental school.

He started in 1978 and graduated in 1982. Not long after, he started practicing dentistry in Cassville on August 2nd 1982. "I wanted to come back to my roots. I grew up in Barry County, and I wanted to stay here," Hall stated.

For years Dr. Hall has been treating a large number of patients in the area. However, it isn't just his dental expertise that kept the clients coming back. Many clients appreciated the fact that Dr. Hall assisted in the well being of the community by providing an honest service to the clients.

To most Dr. Hall is more than just a dentist. He is the man who made going to the dentist a better experience, with his relatable personality playing a key role in making clients feel valued and honored.

Dr. Hall also spends time with his hobbies. In the 1960's, before he attended college, Hall sung in a gospel quartet called the Messengers for eight years. He also restores old cars and tractors in his spare time.

"After 31 years, I'm hanging it up," says Hall of his local practice. However, the popular dentist will be missed by his many patients, spanning from Kansas City to Tulsa, Oklahoma and all points in between.

Hall resides on a large farm with his wife north of Purdy.

Aurora Fire Dept. receives grant

During July and August, matching funds grant checks for rural fire departments are being distributed by the Missouri Department of Conservation, Forestry Division staff. One hundred eighty-two fire departments are receiving checks for up to $4,000 to help with the purchase of personal protective gear and fire fighting equipment, for wild-fire as well as structure fire suppression efforts.

The total funding awarded to Missouri fire departments through the matching funds grant program this year is $354,467. Fire departments are required to match 50% of the funds which are provided by the Missouri Department of Conservation and the US Forest Service, Volunteer Fire Assistance Program.

Throughout the last 30 years, over $7 million has been distributed to rural fire departments to help them increase the safety of their fire fighters and provide them with better fire fighting equipment.

Barry County Tax Sale results

Barry County law day court cases

Charlea Mills

Each year, the Barry County Collector auctions off property owing back taxes to the county. This year the auction was held in the historic courtroom in the Barry County Courthouse on Monday, August 26, at 10:00 a.m.

Janice Varner, Barry County Collector, offered 146 parcels of land to Missouri residents this year, a dramatic increase from 113 parcels in 2012. This year, 50 parcels sold, totalling $22,185.95, over $5,000 more than in 2012.

Of the parcels of land sold, all but two were sold to Barry County residents. The other two buyers purchasing land were from Joplin and Carthage. This year, 21 bidders took home the 50 properties offered at the sale.

While the primary purpose of the sale is to pay the taxes owed that are delinquent, other fees are included in the starting bid. Each parcel is offered for the amount of the back taxes owed against it, the publication fee and recording fee as required by law.

When a property sells for above the starting bid, the money is set aside to be distributed to the school district that each property lies in. The county does not see any profit from the auction.

The county has not sold every parcel offered at the sale in recent years. Prior to 2008, the county sold every property available.

In 2008, 65 parcel were offered. In 2009, the number jumped to 83. While each year fluctuates, there seems to be an upward trend of properties owing back taxes. In 2010, 62 parcels were available and 2011 had 75.

If a piece of land is not sold, it will be auctioned the following year. 96 of the parcels offered in 2013 did not sell and will be put up for auction again at the 2014 sale.

Anthony Lee Barnett, of Cassville, age 35, was charged with burglary in the 2nd degree. Barnett was sentenced to four years incarceration for his crimes.

On May 17 - 18 from 8 p.m. until 7 a.m., Barnett and an unknown accomplice kicked open the door of victim Dortha Clow's home on Farm Road 2070 in Purdy. They proceeded to enter the building and steal two lock boxes full of paper work belonging to the victim.

Jessica J. Biggs, of Cassville, age 34, was charged with passing a bad check and received five years supervised probation for the crime.

On March 19, 22, 23, 25, 26 and 27, 2010 the defendant passed several checks totaling $692.19. The checks were drawn upon 1st State Bank and made payable to Ball & Prier Tire and Shumaker Tire.

Biggs knowingly wrote checks that could not be paid. She must pay $6,789.58 in restitution at $125 per month beginning the first of October.

Charles C. Fonteneau Sr., of Seligman, age 45, was charged with assault in the first degree. He was then sentenced to five years supervised probation after receiving suspended execution of sentence for five years incarceration.

The felony took place on June 25, 2009, when the defendant attempted to cause serious physical injury to Charles McGarrah by hitting and cutting him with a knife.

Darien Hamm, of Marionville, age 19, was charged with stealing a motor vehicle. He was sentenced to four years incarceration on August 20th. On May 1, 2012, Hamm stole a red 2002 Hyundai Accent from Rheya Thomas. Hamm must also pay $125 in fees.

Kenneth Ray Hopper, of Cassville, age 52, was charged with assault in the 3rd degree. He was then sentenced to two years unsupervised probation after receiving a suspended imposition of sentence for two years incarceration. Hopper must also have no contact with victim, Chris Reagan.

On August 30, 2011, the defendant possessed a brown rifle, ready for use, and had an angry and threatening manner toward Reagan.

Steven Bradley Hunter, of Cassville, age 26, was charged with three felonies: burglary in the 2nd degree, tampering with a motor vehicle and property damage motivated by discrimination. Hunter was then sentenced to four years incarceration for his crimes.

On March 31, 2008 the defendant entered a concession stand owned by the Cassville Booster Club and stole items. On April 2, 2008, Hunter defaced a 2007 Chevy Impala. On April 2, 2008, the defendant knowingly damaged a 1995 Toyota 4-Runner located in Cassville. Hunter spray painted the vehicle. The crime was motivated by the victim's race.

Anthony Larson, of Cassville, age 23, was charged with property damage in the 2nd degree. Larson was then sentenced to two years unsupervised probation after receiving a suspend imposition of sentence of two years incarceration.

On April 8, 2012, Larson was driving on 13th Street in Cassville in a 1995 green Chevrolet Camaro. He was attempting to pass another vehicle when he lost control of his vehicle. The Camaro travelled off the right side of the roadway, struck a barbed wire fence and a water hydrant before overturning.

The City of Cassville sought restitution for the damages on the hydrant totaling $4,420.91.

Spotlight on the Eagle Rock Library

Charlea Mills
For such a small space, the Eagle Rock Branch Library packs quite the punch when it comes to programs for adults and children alike. The library is run by Jennifer Cochran, branch supervisor, and Beth Casselman, library clerk. Cochran does her best to bring enlightening, useful activities to the community. One of the upcoming fall programs will be the Home-school Art Program, offered to homeschooled students for free through funds by the Friends of the Eagle Rock Library support network. The Art Program will occur twice a month on Thursdays from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. The first class begins on September 19. Preschool Story Time is also returning this fall on September 5 at 10:30 a.m. Each Thursday, the children will gather to read stories, do small crafts and special activities. It is a great opportunity for children, ages 3 to 5, to socialize and hone language and listening skills. If your child is older, the library also offers the After School program on the last Thursday of the month at 3:30 p.m. Children ages six through 12th grade can come to be introduced to different books, poetry and occasional crafts. This is a great way to introduce youth to all the local libraries have to offer and how to utilize their services. The Rocking Readers Club meets on the fourth Wednesday of the month at 2:30 p.m. They discuss a different book each month. The Eagle Rock LEGO Club also meets at the library on Thursdays and Saturdays. The Club spends time together building a new LEGO creation each week. Over the summer, the Eagle Rock Branch held many special programs for kids to enjoy. Cochran had zoo animals visit the library two different days, a scientist came named Heno Head, a day with the Eagle Rock-Golden-Mano Fire Department and an end-of-the-summer picnic at the Cassville Aquatic Center. Each season, Cochran strives to provide new, fresh programs for library patrons. She is always looking for new friends to come explore the 6,389 volumes in the small building joining the Eagle Rock Community Center. Later this fall, the annual Howl-O-Ween Fest and Car Show will take place on October 26 on the library grounds. For more information, stop by the Eagle Rock Branch Library located on Highway 86, south of Cassville, or call (417)271-3186. The library is open Tuesday through Friday 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Saturday 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. They are closed daily from 12:30 to 1 p.m. for lunch.

Annual Museum book fair

Charlea Mills
The Barry County Museum will hold its third annual book fair on September 6, 7 and 9. The book fair is part of the fundraising effort to keep the museum open and available to the public. The Barry County Museum is a non-profit organization. Without donations, they would not be able to operate within the community and preserve artifacts of Barry County's history. On the first two days of the sale, hardbacks will be

$1.00 each and paperbacks will be $0.50. On the final day, books will be sold as a $5.00 per box special. The Museum will provide a box for customers to fill up with books of their choice for a flat fee. Aside from bringing in money to keep the museum running, it also provides an incentive for first-time visitors to check out the museum and all it holds. For more information about the book sale, call (417)847- 1640.

BC DWI checkpoints

Charlea Mills
Missouri State Highway Patrol officers from Barry, Stone and Newton Counties performed sobriety checkpoints and DWI saturations on August 22 through 24. The locations were chosen based on high numbers of drinking and impairment-related traffic crashes as well as intoxicated drivers. The officers stopped a total of 617 vehicles. "The objective of DWI enforcement projects is to deter drinking and driving and to make citizens aware that drinking and driving will not be tolerated," stated Captain Juan Villanueva, commanding officer of Troop D, Missouri State Highway Patrol. The checkpoint yielded 18 DWI arrests and 5 drug arrests. Among the other charges were speed violations, hazardous moving violations, and other misdemeanors.

Purdy church celebrates 130 years

Samantha Barberio
On September 6 through 8, the First Christian Church of Purdy will be celebrating 130 years with a homecoming event. There will be special services on Friday and Saturday night at 6 p.m. to complement their regular Sunday morning service at 10:30 a.m. David Thomas will be the guest speaker at the celebration. Thomas is from Vinemont, Alabama, and is the father of First Christian's Pastor Nathan Thomas. After each service there will be a pot luck meal provided by the church and congregation. The community is invited to attend. Cruisers meeting
The Cassville Cruisers Car Club will be holding a monthly meeting on Tuesday, September 10th. The meeting will be held at Papa Vito's at 7:00 p.m. and all car enthusiasts are invited to attend.

Getting lost in time on a Sunday afternoon

Laura Lee Gregory

The parking area was filled with classics from a '36 Studebaker, a '50 Plymouth to a '67 Chevelle convertible and many more in between. The grill in the pavilion teemed with hamburgers and hot dogs compliments of E.R.C.A. (Eagle Rock Community Association.)

It was a cruise-in! Eagle Rock marked the target spot for this month's road trip.

Member Pete Reed said, "We drive and eat and talk about our cars."

The Vice-President, Wayne Hendrix, said that the club offers camaraderie and fellowship among car enthusiasts. The monthly road trips allow the Cassville Cruisers to give others the opportunity to get "caught up in time" along with them. You should see the upturned smiles of nursing home residents. They remember.

The Cassville Cruisers Club began 4 years ago. President Troy Lowe has a '50 Plymouth previously owned by his dad. The car, loaded up for the chopping block, was rescued just before it was hauled away. Today it is fully restored.

The Cassville Cruisers hold their monthly meetings on the 2nd Saturday of the month at the Barry County Museum in Cassville. You can see them at Eagle Rock Daze on October 26th at the community center.

Meeks Shakin' Gold Sponsor

Meeks, of Shell Knob, is Shakin' in the Shell's Gold Sponsor for the 2013 event. Store manager Eddie Davison offered some answers as to why Meeks chose to support the festival this year.

Davison stated, "We support any event that goes on that brings people to Shell Knob. We used to joke that Shell Knob is one of the best kept secrets on Table Rock Lake, and I think to some extent, that is still true.

"It's the right thing to do to support the Shakin' in the Shell to bring exposure, someone sowing the seed out there by participating, maybe we can add a little fertilizer to help it grow. The life of Shell Knob still today is people moving to the area and building their home. That is our industry. If we stop exposing Shell Knob to people, then our growth will stop."

Davison's history with Shell Knob provides him valuable insight. He moved to Shell Knob in 1973 and took many different jobs, including working part time at one of the two lumber yards, as well as doing dynamite work for swimming pools, septic and road ditches.

In the summer of 1975, the local manager of what was then Shell Knob Lumber asked if he would be interested in coming to work. That began Eddie Davison's decades-long career in the lumber yard/home improvement business in Shell Knob.

Eddie said the current Meek's building was constructed in 1969 by the Putnam family, of Carthage, who at the time had around 25 lumber yards scattered around southwest Missouri and eastern Oklahoma. In 1976, a campaign was initiated to bring all of these stores under one umbrella and name: Tapjac.

The next owner, E. C. Barton, out of Jonesboro, Arkansas, bought Tapjac in May 2000 and operated until May of 2010 when Meeks bought the Shell Knob store along with six others in southwest Missouri. In its first year of ownership, Meeks made a substantial investment in the store itself, including changing out all of the store's fixtures and the addition of some 7,000 items to its inventory.

In the last 10 years, Eddie has seen a major change in the products used in homes, "For a long time our business was strictly new construction but now there is a lot more remodel/rework being done, even some situations where homes built on nice lots are torn down and new homes being built just because really nice lots are hard to come by."

Eddie observed, "Shell Knob has grown. It used to be if we had a really good crew built up during the summer, Shell Knob would fold up in the winter, and I would lay off half the crew. Some would be available the next spring, and some wouldn't. I haven't had to lay off anyone for several years. We are busy year-round."

Eddie believes it is very important that Meeks invest in any community project that brings people to town, including the Shakin' in the Shell. He noted, "Year after year we participate in the vacation/relocation guide, but I don't recall ever getting a project as a result of that. It is an investment in our community that continues to bring people here, and once they see it, then some day we may have an opportunity to serve them. I hope it [The Shakin' in the Shell] continues."

With the help of sponsors like Meeks, Shakin' in the Shell will continue for years, drawing people to the community.

Big God this weekend

Samantha Barberio

The 5th Annual Big God Across the Ozarks Conference is coming up, but with changes from previous years. The event will be held at the Body of Christ Event Center in Wheaton from September 4 through 8 beginning nightly at 7:00 p.m.

The Big God Conference will be slightly different this year, featuring local pastors and musicians in lieu of hired speakers from outside of the community.

Make sure to bring a lawn chair for the event. Big God will be held rain or shine.. Pastor Paul Wahlert also comments, "The emphasis is to share the gospel of Jesus Christ to the people of southwest Missouri."

For more information or directions to the Big God Conference, see ad on 5A.

Wildcats fall to Branson in season opener

Rachael Freeman

The Wildcat football team fell in their season opener to the Branson Pirates 35-28.

Branson struck first with a deep pass putting 6 points on the board. With the PAT good, the Wildcats were playing from behind the rest of the game.

Cassville suffered a few costly turnovers in the first quarter which put the down by 14 quickly.

The Wildcats would not let the game get out of reach, putting up their first touchdown with just under two minutes left in the first quarter with a 50-yard run by Brent Thompson.

The Pirates answered quickly, running back the kick-off for another touchdown.

The teams would continue to trade touchdowns with a 70-yard run by Cassville's Gabe Kirk.

The Wildcats started a fresh quarter down 21-14 but had momentum on their side.

A fumble in the second quarter would stop progress for the Wildcats. Branson would score once more before a pass connection from Kirk to Thompson for a Wildcat touchdown.

The Wildcats went into halftime facing a 28-21 deficit.

Branson would score their final touchdown in the third quarter advancing themselves to a two-touchdown lead.

The Wildcats wouldn't quit as they marched back in the final quarter. A pass from Kirk to Zach Rabourn lead to a 72-yard touchdown for the Wildcats.

Despite close attempts, the Wildcats were unable to reach the end zone again resulting in a 35-28.

Cassville showed their determination and will to fight against the Pirates showing future opponents they have no intentions of giving up.

The Wildcats will move on from Friday's game against Branson as they prepare for their home opener this Friday against McDonald County.

Lady Cats take second in Crowder Tournament

Rachael Freeman

Losing five seniors to graduation and no seniors on the squad this season, the Lady Cat softball team needed to form a new identity. The Lady Cats weren't going to let their youth be a crutch throughout the season.

The team took no time letting their opponents know they were ready to compete after taking second place in the Crowder College Tournament last Thursday through Saturday.

The Lady Cats first match-up was against the Southwest Lady Trojans. Both teams proved strong offensively with the Lady Cats coming out on top 12-8.

Junior Jayce Fink took the mound for the Lady Cats, only giving up four hits in the game and struck out five Lady Trojan batters.

ins dominated at the plate for Cassville going 2 for 3 with two singles and 2 RBIs.

For Southwest, pitcher Kaleigh Ennis lead the way offensively going 2 for 3 against Fink.

The Lady Cats fell in their game against Big 8 Conference rivals the East Newton Lady Patriots 6-2.

Cassville would fight back to defeat Strafford 10-6 and Purdy 7-3 to put themselves in the championship game.

The Lady Cats looked for redemption in the championship round facing East Newton once again.

The Lady Cats were able to get their bats rolling against the Lady Patriots with 13 hits to East Newton's 6 but weren't able to capitalize on runners in scoring position. The Lady Cats fell 10-6 in the final game of the tournament.

Alesha Cousins finished the weekend with 9 hits for the Lady Cats followed by freshman Ashlea Large with 7 hits.

Cassville will take the field Thursday against Monett. The home game will begin at 5:00 p.m.

New Subway location impresses customers

Charlea Mills

For the first few days after Cassville's Subway opened their new location, customers had a bit of trouble finding them. Larry Eden, owner of both Cassville stores, said, "We had to figure out a way to tell people we had moved."

It didn't take long for the community to notice the shift. Thanks to the newly opened drive-thru and the larger capacity dining room, manager Willie Ragsdale said, "Things are picking up a lot. We are getting lots of compliments about the new store. The customers just love it."

When they opened their doors, the store even had a dancing sub sandwich out front, trying to alert customers to the location change.

Ragsdale has been with Subway of Cassville for ten years. He was promoted to manager of the Main Street location about six years ago when they opened their Walmart store. He and the rest of the staff really appreciate their new space, boasting seating for 38 instead of the 20 capacity at the old store, plus more room for storage in the back.

"A lot of people think we sacrificed our parking lot to move here, but we had to share the old lot with six other businesses. We really have more room here all around," Ragsdale said.

The new store alone has 14 employees. Eden purchased the stores about a year ago from Jason Kruse. He is energetic about the new location and the opportunities it presents to the staff and community.

Eden stated, "We are just happy to be a part of such a wonderful community." The atmosphere of the restaurant and employee attitudes resonate that feeling.

"The best part about working here is the customers," stated employee Megan Schoelzel.

Thanks to the larger store, wait times are less. The bigger space means employees aren't bumping into one another while serving customers, and more people can work during peak hours. That was part of the requirement for opening the drive-thru, which Ragsdale said is extremely popular with customers.

Eden plans to host an official grand opening for the location to be announced at a later date. Subway offers a full menu for breakfast, lunch and dinner.

The store hours are Monday through Wednesday from 7 a.m. to 10 p.m., Thursday and Friday from 7 a.m. to 11 p.m., Saturday from 8 a.m. to 11 p.m. and Sunday 9 a.m. to 10 p.m. For more information or to place an order, call the 53 Main Street store at (417)847-3345.

After a grueling three-year process, the Purdy Recycling Project took a big environmental step on August 21st toward further energy independence.

With assistance from a Coover Grant from the Community Foundation of the Ozarks, the building, operated by the Purdy High School Spanish Club, now has a chance to produce all the power it needs from 18 solar panels mounted on the roof. The project was completed by installer Derek Fulp and Davis & Son, LLC electrician Jay Biloki.

The Empire District Electric Company conducted field tests on the installation and then installed a net meter which records power consumed and power fed back to the Empire grid. The system initially generated about 1.3 kilowatts and has gradually increased to 2.2 kilowatts.

It appears to be generating more power than the machinery in the building will consume, although it will take a month to see where the monthly bill ends up. The club hopes that the monthly bill will be reduced as much as possible by selling excess power back to The Empire District Electric Company.

The direct current produced by the panels runs through a Kako inverter, which converts it into alternating current like that of the existing power grid. Several key safety features are built into the inverter so that it will shut down during a power outage.

All of these features had to pass a battery of tests before the connection could be completed. After an hour of consultation between all parties, the net meter was installed and the final testing was conducted. Electrician Jay Biloki noted, "Davis & Son, LLC is glad to be a part of the Purdy High School Spanish Club's Solar Project. We support renewable energy and are happy that people are looking into it."

"It was an amazing exercise in careful collaboration," said Spanish Club advisor Gerry Wass.

"We learned so much from working with Empire today, and it was fascinating to be part of the whole process. The Empire workers, including Nate Morris, Tom Kirsch, Mike Haynes and Wade Palone, really impressed us with their professionalism and intense curiosity."

The building, which also powers the school sign and the baseball scoreboard, currently uses between $38 and $111 of electricity per month, depending on the season. So there is new reason to focus on shutting off every switch when workers leave the building.

The Spanish Club is proud to have completed the first known school-affiliated, commercial-scale renewable energy project in southwest Missouri, helping Purdy distinguish itself in the areas of environmental consciousness and innovation.
