Two California men sentenced for Monett meth conspiracy

Charlea Mills

Two California men were sentenced in federal court for methamphetamine conspiracy that involved distribution in Barry County.

Jamie Gonzalez-Alvarado, 33, a Mexican citizen residing in South Baja, Calif., and Camilo Acosta, 22, of Imperial Beach, Calif., were sentenced to September 30 by U.S. District Judge M. Douglas Harpool. Gonzalez-Acosta received 15 years incarceration in federal prison without parole, and Acosta received 11 years incarceration in federal prison, also without parole.

From March 2012 to October 2013, the two California men were involved in a distribution of methamphetamine being transported to Monett. Multiple people were arrested in connection with the trafficking scheme.

On October 11, 2013, Oklahoma law enforcement confiscated one of the meth shipments while enroute to Julio Vincene Mendoza, 33 a Mexican citizen living as a resident alien in Monett. The 15 bundles of methamphetamine in that shipment weighed 14.61 kilograms.

Seligman officers to get body cameras, new pistols

Shania Stumpf

At Seligman's City Council meeting on Monday, October 12, they decided the police department needed new equipment. The city held an auction, open to the public, of items that the city owns such as confiscated firearms and miscellaneous items acquired over the years.

Silent bids were submitted from people in the community and the money raised from the auction goes into the city's general fund. The auctions are only held every couple years.

Two of the highest priced bids that the city received were for two of the rifles they sold. The total of this year's auction was $2,340.03. The last auction the city held was approximately four years ago.

This year, with the money raised, the police department is ordering one vehicle camera kit, two body cameras and four new pistols.

Missouri law enforcement then did a controlled delivery of some of the methamphetamine confiscated to Mendoza's home in Monett. Mendoza and multiple others were arrested during the operation. A search warrant yielded $57,660 in a safe, $3,000 in a bedroom, a handgun and ammunition, 35 grams of methamphetamine as well as a drug ledger and paraphernalia.

Gonzalez-Alvarado was the director of the drug trafficking, but others were also charged for their involvement. Mendoza, Ernie Soto, 22, and Armando Arizpe, 24, both of Los Angeles, Calif., pled guilty to drug-trafficking conspiracy and were each sentenced to three years incarceration in federal prison without parole.

Law enforcement who aided in the investigation included the Missouri State Highway Patrol, the Barry County Sheriff's Department, the Barry County Prosecuting Attorney's Office, the Canadian County, Okla., Sheriff's Department and the Drug Enforcement Agency.

The body cameras and car kits are a fairly new move most police departments are installing. "There is a multi-purpose for the body cameras and the car cameras. It tells the public that we have nothing to hide and also creates a great level of trust. It will also provide as an evidentiary purpose and be an unbiased witness," said Seligman Police Chief Terry Burgess.

Along with the body cameras and car kit, the police department is also purchasing four new Glock pistols. At the moment, the department only has one issued pistol, the other officers carry their own pistols.

The price for the four pistols was $1,428, and the cost for the body cameras and car kit was $5,820.

The city's general fund will be used to purchase all the new police equipment. "My point at the city council meeting was that with

Showing kindness catches on

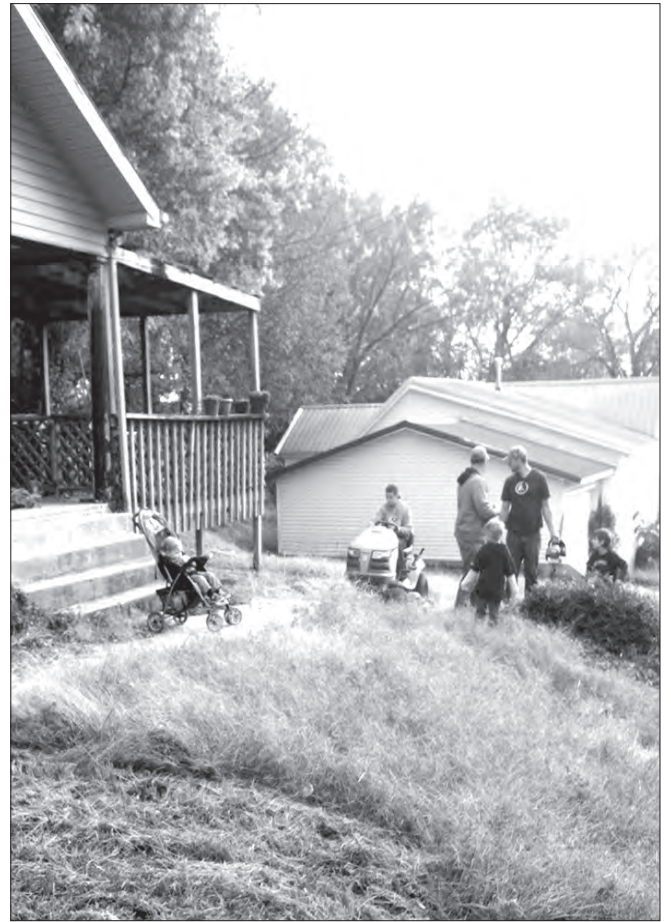

Charlea Mills

A growing trend in area churches lately involves members of the congregation abandoning the confines of the walls of their church and stepping out in the community to serve. With events like Kindness in Action Day, the local community is benefitting from the desire of churchgoers to serve others. Now a church in Seligman is following suit, as well.

Kindness In Action this year took place on Sunday, October 18. The movement, which began a few years ago, allows area churches to band together, forego traditional services on a particular Sunday, and have members go out into the community to help others.

Kindness in Action began as a way to show the community that the churches care about them just as Jesus does, even if they aren't members. Church members stepped out to do lawn work, clean up public grounds, re-stripe parking spaces and wash cars to give to the people around them.

One Cassville woman had church members go to her home and mow her lawn and clean up her yard. Cindy Sanders said, "They mowed it, raked it and did everything they could. It was amazing. I couldn't believe it. But I just wanted to tell everyone that they did a great job."

Now, another church is following suit on its own and three different families in smaller communities will benefit. The River of Faith Church in Seligman is opting out of their Wednesday night service on October 28 and doing a Faith in Action night. River of Faith's pastors Donny and Lora Garner said, "We're excited about how our congregation has rallied to support this special night of service to our community. Hopefully, neighbors that don't even attend our church will see the value of what we are doing and want to help. We invite everyone to join us."

Three arrested on drug charges after being found in elderly woman's house

Charlea Mills

Three were arrested on drug charges on Saturday when they were found in an elderly woman's home on Presley Drive in Cassville

According to an affidavit of probable cause, Christopher Youngblood, 31, of Cassville, Kevin Anthony Elkins, 45, of Cassville, and Rebecca Marie Drye, 35, of Exeter, were found after the Cassville Police Department was called about unknown persons being in an elderly woman's home. Then officers entered the residence; the front door was open. The homeowner said that there were strangers in her son's bedroom. Officers found Youngblood, Elkins and Drye in the bedroom with drug paraphernalia in plain sight.

When officers tested the drugs on the floor and dresser, they were positive for methamphetamine. Officers also found a cut can with methamphetamine residue inside and a syringe.

Each of the three were charged with possession of a controlled substance and possession with drug paraphernalia with the intent to use. They are each being held in the Barry County Jail in lieu of $15,000 cash-only bonds.

Project replacing Southwest senior photos lost in ‘74 fire begins

Charlea Mills

Walking the halls at Southwest High School, you can peruse the graduating classes beginning in 1975 up to the present. However, any graduates prior to 1974 are missing because photos were lost when the high school burned in 1974. Now, a member of the 1966 graduating class is working to find those seniors' photos and put them back up.

Freddie Napier graduated from Southwest High School in Washburn in 1966. The spring marks his 50th year reunion, and his class is in charge of organizing the all-school reunion. Napier said that when he started working to organize the reunion, he thought of replacing the seniors photos and having them ready for the reunion on May 28, 2016. He said, "No one's thought to do this in all this time, and I think all of us would like to see our pictures up with everyone else's."

Napier approached the Southwest School Board to get permission to take on the project, but he also wanted to make sure that Seligman School graduates were also included. Prior to 1954, Seligman and Washburn had separate schools. The school board, Southwest Superintendent Bob Walker and Southwest Principal Tosha Watson were all in favor of the project, so Napier began looking for all of the older annuals to be able to pull photos from and compile composites to hang with the other graduating classes photos.

Napier is collecting annuals from Seligman and Washburn from 1944 up to the consolidation of the schools in 1954. He has already gathered all of the annuals for Southwest from 1954 to 1974 when the school burned down and the photos were lost. Napier said, "We've been taking pictures of the annuals as we've found them, then if we find a better copy, we use that one instead. It's been a lot of work, but I think it'll be worth it."

Napier said, "I'm still missing a couple of the Seligman annuals, but we're doing good. I still need 1944 to 1947 from Seligman, so if people have those, that would be great."

Once photos are taken of the original annuals, Napier has been taking the photos to the high school where one of the teachers is having her students help with the project. Sharesa Rodgers, who teaches advanced computer applications and web design, is having students print the photos and design the pages. Walker said, "The school will also provide the panels to display the finished pages."

When asked why the project was important and they decided to support is, Walker said, "I think it will bring a lot of enjoyment to the graduates and their families to be able to view their senior pictures during the reunion and at other functions at the high school.

"Pictures from the past always seem to be of interest to people. I also think having the pictures all together will bring a sense of unity that will enhance the tradition and history of our school district."

Walker continued, "This is not the school's project, but rather the vision of 1966 graduate Freddie Napier...He should be given credit for this endeavor."

Napier said that he and a few others have been working on the project, but he plans to share the work as soon as it is complete. He said, "I'll be giving flash drives of the copies of the annuals to Southwest and also the Barry County Museum to keep."

When asked why he decided to do this, Napier said, "We want to give the alumni a reason to come back. I wanted to do something for the school, and this is what I could do. We're trying to do stuff different than classes before. It will be a historical event."

Napier added, "I'm just doing this for my class, but also the school. All of the alumni deserve to be recognized and remembered."

Napier plans to unveil the new composites at the all-school reunion next year on May 28. Anyone wanting to make a contribution to help pay to have the composites done may do so at People's Bank in the Southwest Alumni bank account. Napier said, "We'd love for people to donate and be a part of history."

If you have questions or have copies of annuals from Seligman or Washburn, contact Napier at (479) 256-8801.

Halloween safety tips

• MOTORISTS: Young children excited by Halloween could dart in front of a vehicle. Slow down, and drive with extra caution. If you are headed to a costume party, make sure the costume doesn't hamper your vision while you're driving to the event. Motorists picking up and dropping off trick-or-treaters may increase the number of vehicles on the road, therefore affecting traffic patterns. Please be courteous and stay alert for trick-or-treaters of all ages.

• PARENTS: Tell your child to approach only familiar houses that are well lighted. Remind them they should never enter a stranger's house or vehicle. Consider trick-or-treating with your children for their safety and because it's fun way to spend an evening.

• TRICK-OR-TREATERS: Keep costumes short to prevent tripping and consider make-up rather than masks. Masks can make it difficult to see oncoming traffic. Wear light-colored clothing or add reflective tape to dark costumes to make them visible. Flame resistant costumes are the best ones. Remember to look both ways when crossing the street. Use sidewalks whenever possible when you're walking around a neighborhood.

Trick-or-treaters are urged to do so while it is light outside. Increase visibility by taking a flashlight with you, especially after dark. An adult should always accompany small children, and older children should stay in groups.

• ADULTS: Consider spending Halloween at home answering the front door. If you attend a Halloween party that includes alcohol, make sure you have a sober, designated driver for the trip home. Alcohol, even in small amounts, slows reaction time and dulls the senses. Drinking alcohol could have a sad and possibly deadly result.

Seen Around Town: Samantha Cosper

Cosper

Shania Stumpff

Samantha Cosper was born and raised in Barry County. Until her eighth grade year, she lived in Eagle Rock where her great grandparents owned the Eagle Rock Resort Motel.

"As a child, my mom worked from home, taking care of the office items and cleaning the motel rooms. As a little girl, I helped her with making the beds and things like that. I am not sure how much of a help I actually was, but to this day I can say that I absolutely hate to make my bed, so I blame it on making so many beds as a child," said Cosper.

Cosper is an only child, but since her family owned a motel, she said there were always plenty of kids to play with, especially in the summer time. Growing up, Cosper was involved in many activities such as softball and girl scouts.

Cosper stated, "My eighth grade year, we sold the motel and moved closer to Cassville. It was nice to live closer to town during my high school years. During high school, I was involved in FCCLA, serving as a state officer."

As it turns out, Cospers love for FCCLA came back around into her teaching years. After high school, Cosper attended Pittsburg State University, majoring in Family and Consumer Sciences.

"I decided to become a FACS teacher so that I could be an FCCLA Advisor," said Cosper. Along with her degree from Pitt State, she also acquired a Masters in Curriculum and Instruction from William Woods University.

Cosper eventually found her way back to Barry County and is now the family and consumer sciences teacher, FCCLA adviser, and student council co-adviser at Cassville High School. Cosper also works part time at the Cassville YMCA.

"The most challenging part of my job is balancing family and school time. I think most teachers would say that. I have a very strong work ethic and am a bit of a perfectionist. I don't like to leave items on my to-do list undone, but there are only so many hours in the day," Cosper added.

Cosper wants to be as active and involved as she possibly can and provide many opportunities to her students to be active as well. Cosper added, "I have been successful in life because I had great teachers who pushed me to be better and provided me with many opportunities to travel, network and develop my skills beyond the walls of the classroom."

Cosper says the most enjoyable thing about her job is her students. "People think you're crazy when you tell them you teach high school, but I really enjoy working with teenagers," said Cosper.

Cosper loves the fact that she gets to be a part of the students lives when they are trying to figure out who they want to be and what they want to become. "It is so rewarding when you see students months and years later after graduation and see how successful they have become," said Cosper.

A lot of things are changing in Cosper's life, but they are all good things. Her father and husband are opening a new business called C & H Auto Repair in November, and Cosper and her husband are expecting their first baby boy in January.

Cosper's biggest influences in her life are her parents, Jeff and Nancy Horner. "They supported me in everything and anything that I wanted to do. If I changed my mind halfway through, they made me stick it out and hold to true to my commitments. They showed me the importance of hard work and being someone who is honest and trustworthy," said Cosper.

Cosper is very thankful for the love and support she has always felt from her parents. "Even when I have fallen on my face, which I literally did at a softball game once running from second to third base, they have always been there to help me dust myself off and keep on going. They are the best people I know and I am very lucky that I got to be their daughter."

DARLENE TUTER

Darlene Tuter, 78, passed away Saturday morning, October, 17, 2015. She was born on February 12, 1937. She was a long term resident of Galena and Washburn where she resided with her husband, Sonny Tuter.

Darlene was born in Childress, Texas, to Edford Walker and Thelma Christina Walker. Survivors include her daughter, Vicky and Marvin Shockley, of Purdy; three grandchildren, Todd Taylor, of Cassville, granddaughter, JoVon Real and husband, Steve Real, of Bentonville, Ark., and Jesse Taylor, wife Katie Taylor, of Bella Vista Arkansas. She was the first of six siblings, Lynda Walker, Spokane, Wash., Jay Parker, Spokane, Wash., Debra Ward, Spokane, Wash., Chris Parker, Spokane, Wash.; five great grandchildren, Jordan Connolly, Jake Taylor, Josie Taylor, Luke Taylor and Aspen Real.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, Harold Tuter Jr.; brother, Teddy Walker, of Idaho. She was united in marriage to Harold (Sonny) Tuter on May, 1, 1957, in Las Vegas, Nev. Darlene and Harold moved from California to Springfield in 1966. Darlene and Harold owned their own business in Galena for several years prior to moving to Washburn, where she retired in 2003.

Obituaries

Darlene truly treasured being a wife, mother and grandmother. Her love for the outdoors was obvious. She thoroughly loved to garden and had a passion for flowers and loved walking in her "park" like yard. She was a member of Stone County Historical Society and helped with the preservation of the "Y" bridge. She was an avid member of the neighborhood watch and loved to debate on politics. She was proud of her Texas heritage.

The book of her life was bound by faith, filled with selflessness and will be spread by her legacy. Darlene's lasting contribution will be those she left behind. Her smile, her kindness, her generosity, love of children, playing board games and spunkiness will be reciprocated by her family and those touched by her for decades to come. She taught us how to love, how to show compassion, and how to keep faith through the darkest of days. She will forever be remembered and endlessly missed, but her legacy will be perpetually felt in all that is good.

A memorial service will be held on Friday, October 23, 2015, at 2:00 p.m. at the White Funeral Home & Crematory with Pastor Jack Cain officiating.

Memorials in honor of Darlene may be made to the St. Jude's Children's Hospital and entrusted to the White Funeral Home & Crematory, PO Box 890, Cassville, MO 65625.

Cremation arrangements are under the direction of the White Funeral Home & Crematory, Cassville.

The Day God Took You Home

A million times I've needed you, a million times I've cried...
If love alone could have saved you,
you never would have died.
In life I loved you dearly,
in death I love you still.
In my heart you hold a place,
no one else can ever fill.
It broke my heart to lose you,
but you didn't go alone.
Part of me went with you the day that God took you Home.

It's been a year, but we still miss you every day.

Love your family,
Lynda, John, Shonda, Alyssa, Josh, & Justin.

the money from the auction raised and the other amount coming from the general fund, we aren’t going to be spending any tax payers’ money,” said Burgess.

The installation of the car kits will be performed by one of the Seligman reserve police officers. Police Chief Terry Burgess will be responsible for training the officers to learn about the new equipment.

The council also mentioned that since they will be spending the money on the new firearms, that there be a policy stating that the officers must use the gun issued to them through the department, and that they must qualify to use a Glock pistol.

Wildcats post 40-12 win over Seneca

Lee Stubblefield

The Cassville Wildcats improved to 4-5 on the season Friday night, posting a 40-12 victory at Seneca. River Phelps topped the 200-yard mark in rushing and scored five touchdowns on the ground to lead the Wildcats. The Cassville defense turned in a strong performance, intercepting Derek Burr three times and limiting Seneca's rushing attack.

Cassville took an early 7-0 lead when Phelps burst into the second level and scored on a 42-yard sprint with 7:52 left in the first quarter. Phelps encored with a 54-yard dash in the second quarter to build a 14-0 lead.

The Indians answered with a momentum-shifting drive. Lance Hymer broke loose for a 48-yard gain to the Cassville 27-yard line, and then Burr found Quentin Cotten open for a 14-yard slant to cut the lead to 14-6.

Seneca was driving again, but a Troy Rose interception led to a six-play, 55-yard drive. Phelps kept the drive alive with a 25-yard gain on a fake punt, and Garrett Knight rumbled and stumbled for another 25 yards on the next play. Leigh Cox scored from two yards out, and Cassville led at halftime, 21-6.

Phelps had 139 yards rushing at the break and continued unabated in the second half. He scored another touchdown in the third quarter and two more in the fourth.

Seneca's final touchdown came on a freak play when Rose's tip of a long Burr passed ended up in Cotten's hands for a 58-yard catch and run.

The highlight of the game was unquestionably Colton Dilbeck's recovery and 35-yard advance of a Shannon Haney fumble to the Seneca three-yard line late in the fourth quarter to set up the final Phelps score. That 3-yard burst gave Phelps 16 touchdowns for the season.

But the outcome had already been determined, as the Wildcats powered to the 40-12 victory. Cassville ends the regular season at 4-5.

Big 8 recap:

It was a wild night in the Big 8. Lamar shook off the demons of past seasons and finally claimed an outright conference championship with a convincing 56-34 win over defending champion Carl Junction.

TJ edges Southwest for Ozark 7 crown

Lee Stubblefield

On Thursday, October 15, Southwest hosted their annual invitational and the Ozark 7 Conference championship races. For spectators and coaches, this is a confusing day with the conference race scored from the finishers of the invitational field.

In the invite, Joe Stock of Crane, was the boys varsity winner, but Strafford easily won the team title with 39 points. Southwest finished 7th with 181.

Austin Flake, of Thomas Jefferson, was the girls overall winner with a her 23:13. The Clever Lady Blue Jays won the girls title by default, as they were the only complete team entered.

In the Ozark 7 races, Max Ostmeyer, of McAuley, was the boys champion, running 17:51. Thomas Jefferson edged Southwest for the team championship, 27-28. The Trojans were led by Landon Hendrix, third in 18:47. Jarrett Pike was 4th in 18:58, Jay Fields was 6th in 20:45, Cody Brooks was 10th in 21:20, Skyler Willer was 13th in 22:17, and JR Henry was 16th in 25:24.

Wheaton, with only four runners, did not figure in the team standings. The Bulldogs were led by Marek Smith, who finished 7th in 20:46. Gerardo Nunez placed 15th in 25:07. Kevin Foster was 17th in 26:16, and Hilsden Mosely placed 19th in 27:33.

Purdy upsets School of the Ozarks to claim district volleyball title

Lee Stubblefield

Purdy was the only area team to reach a district final in volleyball, and the Lady Eagles weren't satisfied to stop there. Purdy downed School of the Ozarks, 18-25, 25-20, 25-12, to claim the Class 1 District 7 championship.

In district action at Purdy on Monday night, Wheaton dropped Galena, Hurley defeated Sparta, and Purdy downed Exeter, all in straight set matches.

Then in Tuesday night's semifinals, top-seeded School of the Ozarks defeated Wheaton, 25-23 and 25-16 while Purdy won against Hurley in straight sets. Then the Lady Eagles pulled the three-set upset over S of O.

Purdy advances into the Class 1 state championship bracket and will play Miller at Winona at noon on Saturday, October 24.

The Southwest Lady Trojans won their match with Forsythe in Class 2 District

1 action at Clever on Monday night. It marked the 10th consecutive year that the Lady Trojans won an opening-round district game. But Southwest dropped the ensuing semifinal match against Crane on Tuesday, 25-16 and 25-17.

The Class 3 District 10 Tournament at Monett saw Cassville drop an opening round match to East Newton, 2-0.

New sidewalk improves accessibility to CHS sporting events

Approximately 950 feet of sidewalk has been laid at Cassville High School improving the accessibility to the soccer, softball and baseball fields as well as to the concession stand.

"We began working on this project in early September and are excited to have everything finished before our fall sports season comes to an end," said Dusty Reid, Cassville Director of Facilities and Operations.

Patrons and fans will benefit from the additional sidewalk while attending baseball, soccer or softball games at Cassville High School. The new sidewalk connects all three fields, is easily accessed from the parking lot and provides an easy route to the concession stand from all three fields.

"We feel it is important that our facilities are safe and easy to navigate for everyone," stated Reid. "The addition of the new sidewalk will be an improved safety measure and an added convenience for our students, staff, visiting team and spectators."

Handle With Care.

Some jobs require a long-handled tool to reach the work effectively. But remember, a long handle also requires that you work cautiously to avoid contact with power lines.

When using any tools or machinery with a long reach, be sure to pay attention to both ends, so you don’t expose yourself or others to the risk of electric shock. Look up, look out, and get the job done safely.

Haven of the Ozarks Pet of the Week

Meet Clay, the Haven of the Ozarks Pet of the Week! Clay was picked this week because he is the favorite of one of our young volunteers, and I know he'd love to see this sweet boy get a great home. Clay is an older guy who is great with other dogs and loves people. He's gentle, good on a leash, and would be very happy to have a comfortable home where he can relax for the rest of his years. He would be a great farm dog, a perfect fishing buddy, or an inside companion. Really, he'd be happy anywhere his person was! Do you have room in your family for this precious boy? Please call 417-835-3647 or visit us to learn more about Clay! You can also find us on Facebook to see more featured pets.
If you are interested in adopting a dog or cat please call

Les Jacobs donates to Cassville seniors

Les Jacobs Ford of Cassville recently donated $2,000 to the Cassville Senior Center. Jacobs said, "We're giving back. We want to show appreciation to other businesses in the area."
