Film crew wraps up shooting at Kids' Fishing Day

Charlea Mills

This year, Kids' Fishing Day garnered some extra attention thanks to a visit from a special fisherman. This year, Outdoor Channel's "STIHL Reel in the Outdoors with Joe Thomas" filmed a show for their upcoming season at the park.

During the day, Thomas and his film crew visited with children fishing, toured the park, showed off the Outdoor Channel truck and boat, and enjoyed the beauty of Roaring River. Thomas said that Kids' Fishing Day was nothing like anything he'd experienced before. He said, "I've done a lot of kids' fishing events across the country, mostly for charity, but I've never been to one where the fishing was as off the hook as it was here. The parents were all so into it. I'd have to rank it as the best kids' fishing event I've ever been to."

This year, the park handed out 1,062 fishing tags to kids 15 and under to fish the park. There were also a number of classes and special events, including music, for kids once they caught their limit.

Thomas said, "It was way better than I imagined, not that I didn't expect it to be great, but from the second the whistle went off, the kids were smiling, the fish were flopping and the parents were excited. It was great."

Thomas and his crew stayed at the Emory Melton Inn, and Campbell had nothing but glowing things to say about the accommodations. He said, "The rooms were amazing. It was great. They really rolled out the red carpet for us for sure." They also enjoyed breakfast at the

Exeter's drug dog's nose leads to two arrests Viney Creek to be operated by Missouri State Parks again

Exeter Police Chief Morgan Struble is kneeling beside Bailey, one of two police dogs he uses while on duty.

Charlea Mills

Two men are in jail thanks to the sniffing power of one particularly special member of the Exeter Police Department. Bailey, a three-year-old black labrador, helped Exeter Police Chief Morgan Struble arrest two men in the last week for possession of methamphetamine thanks to her nose and training.

When Struble pulled over Christopher Pulliam on Monday, May 12, on Glenda Street, Pulliam refused a search. However, when Struble brought Bailey out and walked her around the car, she indicated that the car contained narcotics. With probable cause established, Struble found drug paraphernalia and methamphetamine on Pulliam.

Then again on Monday, May 18, just before midnight, Bailey found methamphetamine in a vehicle when Struble pulled Scott Boden over on Merrimac.

Pulliam was charged with possession of a controlled substance, a class C felony. Boden is charged with intent to deliver a controlled substance, a class B felony.

Struble has been involved in training dogs for police use for over ten years, and after being hired as the chief in Exeter about a year ago, he trained Bailey to be his partner to help get drugs off the street.

Struble said, "I enjoy dogs, and I have a knack with them. I was always good with them. They respond well to me, and I've had a lot of people say that I was a natural." Struble started training dogs when he was 16, but knew by 18 that he wanted to be a police officer.

He said, "The training was fun, but I wanted to be the guy out there using the dog." Now, he and Bailey are a team and, where he goes, she goes.

Struble's been a police officer for the past six years and worked for the Reeds Spring Police Department before taking the chief position at Exeter. He got Bailey certified to detect narcotics in November, and since then, she has been responsible for multiple traffic arrests.

Struble said, "It's hard to say how many arrests she is responsible for because her presence alone has brought

Viney Creek to be operated by Missouri State Parks again

Charlea Mills

Missouri State Parks announced that, for the second year, they will be operating the Viney Creek Recreation Area on Table Rock Lake. Missouri State Parks entered into a temporary lease agreement for management and overseeing operations of the campground and day-use areas.

Viney Creek was originally tabbed for closure in early 2014 when the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, who operates the park, announced that they would not be opening for the season because it was the least visited site on Table Rock Lake. After the announcement, the Barry County commissioners looked into leasing the site to keep it open for area residents, but it was Missouri State Parks who ended up operating it last year.

This year, Missouri State Parks agreed to manage the side again after some controversy last year involving renovations that are needed to the septic system at the park. Information officer for Missouri State Parks Steph Deidrick said, "Missouri State Parks will operate the existing wastewater treatment facility in a manner to ensure compliance with the Missouri State Operating Permit. In the event that the facility is unable to properly treat the wastewater, it may be pumped and hauled to a municipal wastewater treatment facility for more effective treatment."

Missouri State Parks director Bill Bryan said, "During our first year operating Viney Creek Recreation Area, we received a great deal of the support from local residents, and we're pleased to be able to manage the property for the 2015 recreation season. This spot, located on Table Rock Lake, provides a great opportunity for guests who want to picnic, camp, boat and enjoy outdoor recreation in the area."

Viney Creek will open for the season starting on Friday, May 22, at noon, just in time for Memorial Day weekend. Staff have been on site for the last week preparing the area for the opening.

The area will remain open until September 13 of this year.

Viney Creek features day-use areas like a playground, picnic sites, and water access for free. The campground has 22 basic sites, 16 electric/water sites and seven electric/water premium sites which are all available on a first-come first-served basis. The boat ramp is a $5 fee daily.

Advance reservations can be made beginning May 22 through mostateparks.com or by calling (877) ICampMo (877-422-6766).

Viney Creek is located near Golden on Table Rock Lake in Barry County.

POLICE from FRONT

a lot of arrests. Just knowing that I've got the dog gets people to hand over whatever they've got." For those who don't voluntarily hand over their illegal drugs, Struble will walk Bailey around the car and, if she indicates the presence of drugs in the car, that gives Struble probable cause for a search.

When Struble takes Bailey out to work, she will either do free air passes around a car stopped for a traffic violation or when officers are executing a search warrant at a residence. Bailey's indication of the presence of drugs is known as a passive indication, meaning she will sit when she finds something. Struble said, "If I have consent to search a vehicle, she can help locate the drugs inside a car, as well."

Bailey's nose is actually so powerful that she can even detect lingering odors if something's been a vehicle fairly recently. Struble said, "If she indicates with a lingering or residual alert, it lets me know that this is someone I should keep an eye out for in the future, as well."

Bailey is certified by two different organizations: the National Narcotics Detector Dog Association (NDDA) and the North American Police Dog Association (NAPWDA). Her certifications are good in all 50 states, and Struble takes her to be recertified once a year with each organization. She is able to detect marijuana, cocaine, methamphetamine, heroin and all of their derivatives like hash, crack and others.

Even though Bailey is used by Struble on the force, she isn't owned or maintained by the city. Struble said, "She's my dog. She's not agency-owned, so she's my responsibility." Struble covers all of her expenses unless someone wants to donate to her care. This year, the Southwest Chapter of the Midwest Pet Breeders Association made a donation for food and veterinary expenses, but donations don't cover all of her costs.

Putting a value on Bailey is a hard thing to pinpoint because of how much training is involved, even on a continuing basis. Struble acquired her from a friend through a trade. She is the third dog that he has worked on the streets in his career. However, when Bailey came to Exeter, she needed to be trained. She had been a pet first in North Dakota before being chosen as a police dog. Struble got her from Iowa, and then worked to train her and get her certified. Police dogs that do what Bailey does are valued at anywhere from $3,000 to $10,000 each because of how much time and training is invested in them.

Bailey's continual training includes a lot of repetition and involves at least four hours a week of one-on-one time. Struble said selecting a dog with the right temperament is also important. He said, "Finding a dog that is obsessive about a toy, especially a ball, is helpful. They need to have a high prey-drive, and they need to like to find and chase a ball for training. Usually a dog needs to be at least six months old before you can tell if they'll work well."

Bailey will stay with Struble, just where she likes to be, for her entire career since she is his dog. He said, "Bailey's career will be a lot longer than some police dogs because she doesn't have a physically strenuous job. So she'll work with me as long as she's physically able, and then she'll retire with me."

Bailey is one of two dogs Struble uses on the force. The other is Mr. Bojangles, a bloodhound, who is used for tracking and search and rescue. Mr. Bojangles has been certified for two months and has already been used three times by Struble in partnership with various Barry County agencies. So far he was called in to assist in attempting to track a gun, lost child and a suspect who fled from the police.

Eight Barry County music students participate in JPTA honors recital

Eight students of Ruth Burnside performed at the Joplin Piano Teachers Association's Annual Williamson-Bellm Honors Recital in Memory of Lois Williamson-Bellm on May 3, 2015 at the Forest Park Baptist Church in Joplin. Those participating and their pieces performed were, Lexee Johnson, "My First Sonatinam, Movement III", Taylynn Banks, "The Lion Sleeps Tonight", Matthew Heatley, "Stately Procession", Myka Masters, "Sonata In C Major", Wayland Cha, "Star Wars", Chelsea Henderson, "Lean On Me", Lindee Mitchell, "On a Funny Sunny Day", and Susan Cha, "Take Me Out to the Ballgame". Free music was offered to all the students and refreshments were served afterwards. Gold medals were awarded and other awards were given the following week.

The history of Memorial Day Piano 88's music

Initially known as Decoration Day, Memorial Day is a day to remember those military members who died in service of the country.

Memorial Day as we know it today can likely be traced to Charleston, S.C., where teachers, missionaries and some members of the press gathered on May 1, 1865 to honor fallen soldiers. During the Civil War, captured Union soldiers were held at the Charleston Race Course and hundreds died during captivity. Upon their deaths, soldiers were buried in unmarked graves. When the Civil War ended, the May Day gathering was organized as a memorial to all the men who had died during captivity.

General John A. Logan is often cited as inspiring similar events in the north. As commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, a veterans' organization for men who served in the Civil War, General Logan issued a proclamation just five days after the Charleston event that called for Decoration Day to be observed annually across the country. Logan preferred the event not be held on the anniversary of any particular battle, and thus the day was observed for the first time on May 30.

In 1868, events were held at more than 180 cemeteries in 27 states, and those figures nearly doubled in 1869. By 1890, every northern state officially recognized Decoration Day as a state holiday. But southern states honored their dead on a different day until after World War I, when the holiday was changed to recognize Americans who died in any war and not just the Civil War. Nearly every state now celebrates Memorial Day, a name for the holiday first used in 1882, on the last Monday in May.

AMY JOANN WEBB

Amy Joann Webb, 47, of Cassville, passed away Monday, May 11, 2015, in Mercy Hospital, Springfield.

She was born July 2, 1967, in Kansas City, the daughter of Doug and Sue (Shepherd) Louk. Amy lived most of her life in Kansas City, and moved to Cassville around ten years ago to live with her parents.

Surviving are her parents, Doug and Sue Louk, of Cassville; three children, Cassey Parker, Tyler Jones and Wyatt Webb, all of Kansas City; one granddaughter, Ripley Parker, of Kansas City; and three sisters, Deborah Goodspeed, of Kansas City, Barbara Mead and her husband, Jerry, of Kansas City, and Lori Brown and her husband, Kyle, of Kearney.

Amy will be remembered for her love of God first and foremost. She was a great cook, loved fishing, gardening and was known as a Dog Whisperer. Amy didn't know a stranger and gave everything she was about to everyone she met and loved. She was especially fond of her granddaughter, Ripley.

She was a registered donor and gave the gift of life.

Memorial services will be held at 10:00 a.m. Saturday, May 30, 2015, in Cassville First Baptist Church. Pastor James Weaver will conduct the services. On Saturday, May 23, 2015, at 11:00 a.m. services will be held at North Kansas City First Baptist Church with Pastor Tiger Pennington officiating. Burial will be in Garnett Cemetery, Garnett, Kansas.

Cremation arrangements are under direction of Fohn Funeral Home, Cassville.

Contributions may be made to St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital in memory of Amy.

WILLIAM CLEBURN PRIEST

William Cleburn Priest, 88, of Cassville, passed away Thursday, May 14, 2015, in Roaring River Health and Rehabilitation Center, Cassville.

He was born November 24, 1926, at Exeter, the son of Ollie and Zuma (Easley) Priest and first grandson of Bill and Mollie Easley. On November 21, 1956, he was united in marriage to Lou Ann Periman, who survives. Also surviving are one sister, Louise Martin and her husband, John, of Ashland; one son, Dan Priest and his wife, Pam, of Forsyth; one daughter, Nancy Morgan and her husband, Vernie, of Seligman; five grandchildren, John Priest, Josh Priest, Zach Priest, Adam Morgan and his wife, Linda, and Kelsey Bradley and her husband, Luke, and one great grandson, Tristan Morgan.

Preceding him in death were his parents and one brother, Melvin Priest.

Cleburn received his education at Cassville. From 1949 until 1952, he served in the United States Army in Fort Carson, Colorado. For several years he was a truck driver for Pet Milk and hauled turkeys for Tyson Foods. In 1992, he retired from Forest Products. He loved fishing, especially the two trips they took with Lowell and Alberta Nance to Canada. He took great pride in his garden, growing corn and tomatoes. He was a member Cassville First Baptist Church, Pythagoras Masonic Lodge #383, where he was Tiler several years and a member of Abou Ben Adhem Shrine.

Funeral services were held at 10:00 a.m. Saturday, May 16, 2015, in Fohn Funeral Home, Cassville. Pastor John Duncan conducted the services. Burial was in Maplewood Cemetery, Exeter.

The family received friends Friday in Fohn Funeral Home, Cassville.

Contributions may be made to Pythagoras Masonic Lodge #383 in memory of Cleburn.

WALTER R. "REX" BIGGS

Walter R. "Rex" Biggs, 83, of Cassville, passed away Friday, May 15, 2015, in Bentonview Park Health Care, Monett.

He was born July 10, 1931, in Neosho, the son of Wayne and Charlotte (Jackson) Biggs. He was united in marriage to Mary Croach and to this union one son, Kevin, was born. Mary preceded him in death. Also preceding him in death were his parents and one brother, Leo Biggs.

On March 19, 1999, in Eureka Springs, Arkansas, he married Carolyn Sue (Smith) Mills, who survives. Also surviving are their children, Kevin Biggs, of Joplin, Rocky Mills, of Cassville, Angela Burmylo, of Berryville, Ark., and Kelly Mills, of Cassville; one brother, Billie Wayne Biggs, of Olathe, Kan.; eleven grandchildren, Ryan Biggs, Megan Biggs, Morgan Biggs, Nathan Mills, Jonathan Mills, Elizabeth Robertson, Sarah Sandoval, Riley Mills, Landry Mills, Aidan Burmylo and Colin Burmylo; twelve great grandchildren and several nieces and nephews, Shela Mitchell, Joe Biggs, Bo Biggs, Aaron Biggs and Angela Rhoades.

Rex received his education at Stella, where he graduated from high school. During the Korean War he served in the United States Navy and Marines as a corpsman from 1950 until 1954. He attended Joplin Junior College. Most of his adult life was spent working as a salesman and he was employed several years for Aramark in Joplin. He loved all sports, but his favorites were basketball and softball, which he played regularly for many, many years. He was a talented musician and loved music. He loved his family very much. At a young age, Rex was saved at Crossroads Baptist Church near Longview. He was currently a member of Corinth Baptist Church and loved his church family. He had been a member of American Legion Post 118.

Funeral services were held at 2:00 p.m. Monday, May 18, 2015, in Fohn Funeral Home, Cassville. Pastor Donnie Spears and Brother Rocky Mills conducted the services. Burial with military honors was in Oak Hill Cemetery, Cassville.

The family received friends from 1:00 p.m. until service time Monday in Fohn Funeral Home, Cassville.

The moment that you died my heart was torn in two, one side filled with heartache, the other died with you.

I often lie awake at night, when the world is fast asleep, and take a walk down memory lane, with tears upon my cheeks.

Remembering you is easy, I do it everyday, but missing you is heartache that never goes away.

I hold you tightly within my heart and there you will remain. Until the joyous day arrives, That we will meet again.

TOMMY EDWARD COX

Tommy Edward Cox, 73, of Cassville, passed away suddenly at his home, May 12, 2015. Tommy was a survivor of a courageous five year battle with lung cancer and COPD. Tommy was born in Warner, Okla. As a baby his family moved to California where he lived for 40 years before moving to Missouri. After graduating high school he taught Cosmetology and was later drafted into the U.S. Army and proudly served his country in Vietnam. Once returned from the war, he worked for the U.S. Postal Service as a Mail Carrier. He retired from the Post Office in Aurora.

He was one of seven children born to the late Garland and Reba Cox. He was a beloved husband of seven years to Sonya (Kidwell) Cox whom he married on June 2, 2007. Tommy will forever be remembered by his surviving siblings; brothers, Alvia and Kenneth Cox; and sisters, Peg and Kay Osborn; his beloved children, Brian Cox, Andrea Cox, Marlene Garland and Joseph Papp; his stepson Ryan Mankin; his treasured grandchildren, Nicholas, Garrett and Logan Cox, Shawn and Spencer Garland; and step-grandchildren Garrett Booher, and Dylan and Truman Mankin.

Tommy loved baseball in his youth. He played in High School and made it to the minor leagues. He also coached his children in baseball and softball. He loved fishing and went on deep sea adventures in California. He was talented and enjoyed wood crafting and made a number of treasures for his family. He was also a lover of nature and wildlife, often taking in stray animals and nursing them back to health. He spent countless days bird watching in his backyard and made sure they never went hungry. He enjoyed growing and eating vegetables from his garden each year. During his retirement years, he greatly enjoyed his time with his grandchildren. He liked to take long drives to look at the beautiful Missouri wildlife. He had a great sense of humor and liked playing card games which he could be quite competitive. He was a wonderful cook and often made food for his wife, family, and friends. WE LOVE YOU DAD! THANKS FOR MANY GREAT YEARS!

Tommy touched the lives of many people and will be greatly missed. In lieu of flowers the family requests any donations you would like to make be sent to National Wildlife Federation. (NWF) 1-800-822-9919.

Public invited to tour KAA camp in Golden

Located near Golden at scenic Point 22 on Table Rock Lake resides a camp that may appear typical at first. However, upon closer examination one will find a camp that builds Christian leaders by encouraging, equipping and empowering urban youth and their mentors through camping and education. Kids Across America (KAA) provides young people from urban America and towns experiencing urban issues the opportunity to enjoy the beauty of the Ozarks, engage in healthy outdoor activities and learn about Christ.

KAA welcomes all Taney, Stone and Barry County residents from Missouri and all Carroll and Boone County residents in Arkansas to tour, learn about and enjoy the KAA camps on Thursday, May 28. The gates open for tours at 5 p.m. and guests will enjoy a free barbecue dinner at 6:30 p.m. Following dinner, there will be a brief program inside the basketball dome, during which KAA will present its second "Good Neighbor of the Year Award." The First Baptist Church of Golden received the inaugural "Good Neighbor of the Year Award" last year.

"Through the experience of enjoying a camp meal, of being welcomed like the campers by camp staff, you will fall in love with what we are doing," said Danielle Stone, KAA1 women's director. "It will be an experience you will never forget. It's not just life-changing for our campers, it's life-changing for our staff and for our guests."

Camp officially opens May 31. During the summer, KAA will hold ten, seven-day sessions. There are a total of four camps on site: KAA1 (for ages 9-12), KAA2 (for ages 13-14), KAA3 (for ages 15-18) and Higher Ground (also for ages 15-18). The adult leaders who bring campers to KAA are called Kaleos, Greek for 'called ones'. While their groups enjoy camp activities, they, too, participate in refreshing outdoor activities, Bible studies and seminars.

There is no cost to attend the open house event. However, individuals planning to attend must RSVP by May 25. For more information, to RSVP and get directions, please call 417-266-4000 or e-mail kaateam@kaakamps.org. The physical address of camp is 1288 Twin Lakes Road, Golden, MO, 65658. To print directions, visit kaakamps.org.

The family of Dewey Swofford would like to thank all our wonderful friends and family for their support and concern during and after his passing. The prayers, food, flowers and support were deeply appreciated. Thank you to Steve Spillman, Brian O'neill and Larry Williams for the funeral service. Thank you to the staff at Mercy Hospital Cassville for providing the best care we could have asked for. There are many people who provided so much support for our family. Thanks to you all.

The family of Cleburn Priest thanks everyone that said a prayer for us, for all the flowers and memorial donations. Thanks to Bro. John Duncan and everyone at Fohn Funeral Home for a lovely service.

Campbell's show was invited to the park after STIHL expressed an interest in filming a special event to the National Association of State Park Directors. Initially, Missouri State Parks director Bill Bryan invited the show to film at Opening Day, however the winter weather made safe travel to the park questionable for the crew, so they opted to reschedule for Kids' Fishing Day instead.

Bryan said, "Filming this show at the park allows for a national audience to learn more about the premiere trout fishing available in the area. We hope that featuring Roaring River State Park will encourage even more visitors to plan a trip to Cassville and enjoy all the area has to offer."

Campbell also commented about Roaring River, "The park is extremely well-kept, that was the first impression I had. I was amazed. The second thing I noticed was the passion of the staff. It's one thing to be passionate about your job, but every single person was so passionate about this particular event. It was obvious that they really want to make a difference."

Bryan said, "It was exciting to see so many young people with their families enjoying the park, the event and the activities available. Kids' Fishing Day is a fun way to introduce kids to fishing and create a lifelong love of the outdoors."

When Campbell was asked what the most memorable part of the day was, he shared a moment at the beginning of the day. He said, "When we got there just before the whistle, this kid had on a little monkey backpack, knee-high rubber boots and a big floppy hat with his rod ready to go, and he was so cute and so ready to catch a fish. It was so cute we even took pictures."

The STIHL Reel in the Outdoors with Joe Thomas episode featuring Roaring River State Park's Kids' Fishing Day is expected to air sometime this fall on Outdoor Channel.

Two Crane teens injured in single vehicle crash

Charlea Mills

Two Crane teens were injured in a single-vehicle crash on Sunday evening, according to a Missouri State Highway Patrol crash report.

Tylor J. Kunf, 19, of Crane, was driving a 1997 Subaru Legacy eastbound on Farm Road 2005 three miles north of Crane on Sunday night around 10:45 p.m.

Kunf's vehicle then skidded off the right side of the road and struck a tree. Kunf and his passenger Toney D. Kyger, 18, of Crane, were both injured in the crash.

Kunf and Kyger were taken by ambulance to Cox South Hospital in Springfield for moderate injuries. Both teens were wearing seat belts at the time of the crash.

Barry County Museum acquires train engine for display

Shania Stumpff

If you have been by the Barry County Museum, then you may have noticed a new addition. The Museum recently acquired a 25-ton Plymouth train engine, similar to the one that ran on the C&E Railroad track.

The C&E Railroad celebrated the first run of the train on July 4, of 1896, and its last voyage was in 1956. It ran from Cassville to Exeter and, when it was finished in July of 1896, the length of it was five miles and 400 feet. It was the shortest standard gage railroad in the United States.

The rolling stock consisted of a box car, two engines, a combination baggage and a passenger coach. The railroad did everything from hauling mules being supplied to the army, hauling fruit, rock, timber, cattle, sheep, hogs, agricultural and commercial products.

Every summer a large number of visitors came to the C&E railroad. The ride over to Exeter and back was always fun for the locals, too. C&E maintained a regular freight and passenger schedule and had a total of seven employees.

The original C&E railroad engine was a 50-ton Plymouth engine made by the Plymouth Locomotive Company in Plymouth, Ohio. The engine was acquired by the Ashley family in the early 1950s, and the engine was taken to Kansas City on a short line railroad. Then in 1970 they donated it to the Railway Museum in Greenbay, Wisc., to be preserved.

Corky Stehlik, of Cassville, has been interested in the C&E Railroad since he moved to Cassville in 1958 as a young boy.

Out of curiosity, Stehlik later called the Railway Museum to see if the C&E Railroad engine was still there. The man he talked to said he thought it had been cut up for scrap years prior, and there was no trace of it that he could find.

Recently, Stehlik was on an auction site called PurpleWave and came across a railroad engine that was very similar to the one that ran on the C&E railroad. The major difference was that this engine is a 25-ton, and the one that ran on the C&E was a 50-ton.

The person selling it was a railroad contractor who had plans of restoring it but never got around to it. Stehlik noticed how well of a teaching tool this could be for the people of Barry County and said, "When I saw it, I just knew we had to have it."

Stehlik decided to give the Barry County Museum a call, and the museum was able to purchase it. It was brought down from Kansas City, unloaded using two large cranes and is now sitting out front of the museum on display.

Stehlik had previously purchased a wooden railroad car that did travel on the C&E railroad from a lady out of Joplin. The car currently has a good frame but the wood needs to be restructured. Future plans are to bring the car to Cassville, restore it and attach it to the back of the engine so it can be on display, as well.

The Barry County Museum is open Monday through Saturday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Donations are accepted to help with the upkeep and maintenance.

The C&E went through a number of different names, owners and managers over its 50 years of operation. For a full story, see The First 150

Years in Cassville written by Senator Emory Melton for the sesquicentennial year of 1995 when a celebration was held. Copies of the book are available at Litho Printers.

Area schools prep for summer school next week

Shania Stumpff

It's that time of year again, and summer school is just around the corner. Cassville, Exeter, Purdy, Southwest and Wheaton will all have summer school beginning in the coming week.

Cassville Summer School will be in session starting May 27 and ending June 19. Free of charge Breakfast and lunch will be served every day through funding of the Division of Health and Senior Services to school-aged children whether they are enrolled in summer school or not.

Summer school begins at 7:30 a.m. and ends at 3 p.m. at Cassville. The children will be on a rotation from teacher to teacher throughout the day. Jill LeCompte, Cassville assistant superintendent, said, "We have three main goals for the summer school program. The first goal of is to keep them learning. Studies show that children being out of school for three months straight represses what they learned that year. Our second goal is to provide a safe environment that doesn't cost money for children that don't have anywhere else to go during the summer. The last goal is providing these children with free meals that they might not receive unless they are attending summer

Many exciting things will be happening this year for the students attending Cassville Summer School. Field trips for the primary, intermediate and middle school students will include, the Native American Museum, in Rogers, Ark., Botanical Gardens, in Springfield, the Nature Center, in Springfield, and the Titanic Museum, in Branson, they will also be visiting local places such as the Cassville Aquatic Center, Roaring River, the library and the park.

If enough students are interested in riding the bus to Cassville, there will be bus routes available that will pick up students in groups from locations that the school organized. For more information concerning summer school, you can pick up a flyer at the Cassville School offices.

Exeter is also having summer school and their theme is "summer adventures." They will be taking some trips to Cassville Aquatic Center and doing other fun summer activities. Exeter's summer school is June 1 through June 16.

Wheaton will be taking some field trips, and giving an attendance recognition award this summer. They will also have a music program at the end of summer school. Wheaton's summer school is June 1 through June 25.

Southwest summer school is by invitation only. They are still in the process of planning their field trips. Southwest's summer school is May 27 through June 23.

Purdy has many field trips planned such as the Aquatic Center and the Monett YMCA. The teachers are incorporating outdoors and camping into the subjects the kids will be learning, and on the last day they will have a cook out and give out attendance awards. Purdy will also provide free breakfast and lunch. Purdy's summer school is May 25 through June 19.

For more information about summer school, call Cassville at (417) 847-2221. Call Exeter at (417) 835-2922. Call Wheaton at, (417) 652-3914. Call Southwest at, (417) 826-5410 and call Purdy at (417) 442-3216.

Mexican national pleads guilty to Barry County meth conspiracy

Tammy Dickinson, United States Attorney for the Western District of Missouri, announced that a Mexican national pleaded guilty in federal court today, as his jury trial was scheduled to begin, to his role in a conspiracy to distribute large amounts of methamphetamine in southwest Missouri.

Jaime Gonzalez-Alvarado, 34, a citizen of Mexico residing in South Baja, Calif., pleaded guilty before U.S. District Judge M. Douglas Harpool to participating in a conspiracy to distribute methamphetamine in Barry County, Mo., from March 1, 2012, to Oct. 11, 2013. He also pleaded guilty to possessing methamphetamine with the intent to distribute.

Co-defendants Julio Vincente Mendoza, 33, a Mexican citizen who is a resident alien residing in Monett, Mo., Camilo Acosta, Jr., 22, of Imperial Beach, Calif., and Ernie Soto, 22, and Armando Arizpe, 24, both of Los Angeles, Calif., have pleaded guilty to their roles in the drug-trafficking conspiracy.

By pleading guilty today, Gonzalez-Alvarado admitted that he directed the delivery and then the distribution of methamphetamine, which was being delivered from California to Mendoza's residence in Monett. This methamphetamine was then distributed by Gonzalez-Alvarado and others in the Monett area and throughout southwest Missouri.

On Oct. 11, 2013, law enforcement officers in Oklahoma seized one of these shipments of methamphetamine that was enroute to Mendoza's residence in Monett. Officers seized 15 tape-wrapped bundles of methamphetamine weighing 14.61 kilograms.

On the same day, Missouri law enforcement officers conducted a controlled delivery of a portion of the methamphetamine to Mendoza's residence, where they arrested Gonzalez-Alvarado and the other co-conspirators. Officers executed a search warrant and seized $57,660 found in a locked safe, $3,000 found in a downstairs bedroom, a Smith and Wesson 10mm semi-automatic handgun with 50 rounds of ammunition, packaging material consistent with the packaging of methamphetamine, approximately 3.5 grams of methamphetamine, a glass pipe commonly used to ingest methamphetamine and a drug ledger notebook which contained names, numbers, and currency amounts.

Under federal statutes, Gonzalez-Alvarado is subject to a mandatory minimum sentence of 10 years in federal prison without parole on each of the two counts. A sentencing hearing will be scheduled after the completion of a presentence investigation by the United States Probation Office.

This case is being prosecuted by Assistant U.S. Attorney Randall D. Eggert and Special Assistant U.S. Attorney Nhan Nguyen. It was investigated by the Drug Enforcement Administration; the Missouri State Highway Patrol; the Canada County, Okla., Sheriff's Department; the Barry County, Mo., Sheriff's Department; and the Barry County, Mo., Prosecuting Attorney's Office.

Power of the Pink raises over $10K

For the past five years, many have gathered on Mother's Day weekend to participate in the Power of the Pink run/walk 5K in an effort to raise money for local women battling breast cancer. This year, fundraising ef-orts brought in a total of $10,023.62, which was divid- ed between two women, Amy Graham and Megan Knox. Power of the Pink has raised and given away over $45,000 to date.

Class 2 District 12 base- ball at Joplin

College Heights handed Southwest a one-and-done 5-0 shutout in the opening game of the Class 2 District 12 tournament at Joplin on Saturday. Senior pitcher Josh Woodmansee stymied the Trojans, striking out eight while earning a complete- game victory.

Southwest managed only four hits against Woodma- nsee and did not advance a runner past second base in the contest.

The Cougars, already leading 2-0, erupted for three runs in the sixth inning to seal the victory.

But in the semis, College Heights fell to Pierce City, 10-0. Then, Purdy's Jonatan Salazar ripped a bottom-of- the-seventh, walkoff single to right to plate Tyler Keeler as the Eagles claimed a 10-9 victory over McAuley.

In the championship game on Tuesday, Purdy up- set the Eagles, 6-3, to claim the district title.

Class 4 District 12 base- ball at Seneca

After pounding East Newton 17-0 in the open- ing round of play on Satur- day, the Cassville Wildcats dropped a 3-2 decision to Carl Junction on Monday at Seneca.

Monett took out Nevada in the other Monday semifi- nal, 8-2.

On Tuesday afternoon, Carl Junction beat Monett 8-4 to earn the district cham- pionship.

Class 1 District 5 at Ex- eter

After downing Verona in a 5-1 victory on Friday, the Exeter Tigers faced Billings on Monday in their Class 1 semifinal.

The Tigers scratched a run in the top of the first inning, as Austin Tripp chased Terry Cook home with an RBI dou- ble to take a 1-0 lead under threatening skies. Then when Billings came to bat, the heavens opened. With water pooling in the outfield and on the basepaths, Billings wasted the top of the order in miserable conditions. The umpires stopped play after that one inning, and play was postponed until Tuesday af- ternoon.

When play resumed, the Tigers opened a 2-0 lead in the second inning when Dylan Henry scored courtesy of an Ethan Cordell RBI.

Cook was masterful on the mound for Exeter, Al- though Billings would tie the game with a pair of runs in the fifth frame, the Ti- ger hurler never faced more than four batters in any of his other innings. Nine times, Cook set the Wildcats down without a score as the extra innings piled up. He finally ran out of gas after throwing ten complete innings.

Billings earned a 3-2 vic- tory when Brent Truman laced a walkoff RBI single to left field to bring home Kaleb Clinton.

In the second semifinal, top-seeded Hurley held off Wheaton, 7-2. The Tigers opened a 4-0 lead in the first inning, but the Bulldogs an- swered with a pair in the top of the second. Elijah Kirk supplied an RBI single to score Tyler McGarrah, and then Bo Brattin trotted home on a bases-loaded walk.

But Wheaton would not score again as Hurley's Cody Austin threw a complete- game victory.

In the championship game, Hurley won an intense defensive struggle, 1-0, to claim the title.

Southwest Trap Team takes third at State

The Southwest Trap Team traveled once again to the Missouri State Trapshooting Championships held at the home grounds of the MTA in Linn Creek. Over 170 teams and close to 1000 individual shooters from across the State were at the competition. The Southwest Jr. High Team of Heather Windes, Jake Taylor, Ty Howard, Samuel Jennings and Leland Colf finished with a 3rd place in their respective division. Taylor led all Southwest shooters hitting 84/100 targets.

“I was very proud of the squad’s accomplishment at State. When you take into consideration that this is the first year for two of the team members, it was a great shoot for them,” said Southwest

Trap coach. “I was amazed at how quick they came together as a team and kept encouraging each other. Again, I am very proud of what they achieved at State.”

Barnes signs to play for Bible Baptist College

Southwest High School’s Blake Barnes recently signed a letter of intent to play basketball with Baptist Bible College in Springfield. During his senior year at Southwest, Barnes finished with 441 points, 90 rebounds and 46 steals for the Trojans. Southwest Trojans head basketball coach Rusty Roe stated, “Blake will be a great fit for BBC. Throughout his high school career he has spent countless hours in the gym shooting and traveling with teams to play in the off season. It is nice to see his commitment to basketball payoff by getting this opportunity to play at the next level.” Barnes will play under the lead of BBC head coach Mark Hedger. He is a graduate of Missouri Western State University with a Bachelors degree in Elementary Education. He also has earned a Masters of Science Degree in Educational Administration and an Education Specialist Degree in Educational Leadership from the University of Central Missouri. Coach Hedger has 11 years of experience coaching basketball at the high school level. He has coached at Knob Noster High School, Richland High School, and Holden High School. During this time he was an elementary teacher, teaching first grade. He has spent the past 7 years working as an elementary school principal, most recently at Ozark West Elementary.

“We’ll be gearing up the rest of the season to compete in the AIM youth shooting program through the ATA at the Southwestern Zone shoot and the Missouri State AIM shoot. “Once school lets out for the summer, we’ll be pushing hard to make a run at Nationals in August. All our shooters usually make great strides through the summer months, so it will be exciting to watch them grow as the season rolls along.”

Southwest's Mrs. Larson retires after 23 years with the district

Charlea Mills

After 23 years with Southwest Schools, Laura Larson is retiring and a whole school of former students is telling her goodbye.

Larson started at Southwest after teaching in Jefferson City for four years. She came to the school when then-principal Judy Randall interviewed her and was extremely excited about her experience with children with disabilities. Larson was hired as a preschool teacher because of her experience with children with cerebral palsy, autism, Asperger's and hearing impairments and other disabilities.

Larson taught preschool for ten years with the district before switching to kindergarten. A lot of her experience in special education helped her to deal with students over the years. She said, "My experience with special needs and the training I received before I came here really enabled me to be more compassionate and be a more empathetic teacher, because I know what its like for those students."

Larson moved to Southwest to be back closer to her family years ago. She said, "My family was back here and my mother was going to eventually need help in the long run. It was definitely a God thing." Now, Larson's mother lives beside her on her and her husband's property in Washburn. She added, "My calling to teach came directly from God, and there was a reason he wanted me here."

Part of the reason she feels like she was here was to serve the children and family in the community, regardless of their home life. When she was a preschool teacher, she visited a lot of families in their homes to work with them about the individual needs of the students. Larson said, "I love these kids no matter what their home life was. As a preschool teacher, I'd try to educate parents on how to work with them at home individually. I was never afraid of any place I went because I was there for the kids. It didn't matter where they lived."

With two generations of students who have received the foundation of their education from Larson, she can proudly said that she has a former student in every grade up through the graduating class, something that many teachers never experience.

Even though she is retiring, Larson said she still plans to visit the friends she's made during her years at Southwest. She said, "I've told my friends that I'll come in and make copies for you, but then I'll wave and say 'bye.' I just want to volunteer and then get to go home."

Now that Larson is moving on from the school, her faith is what is driving a lot of her and her husband, Ed's, plans for retirement.

Mrs. Larson is pictured above with some of her students from Southwest.

She said, "God brought me here because my husband recently retired, and we know that God wanted us to be available anywhere he wants us in the missions field."

The Larsons plan to go to Kentucky later this year to help families in Appalachia by helping with a Vacation Bible School, and Ed will do small construction projects. She also is volunteering with the Royal Kids Camp. Larson said, "We don't know what God's got in store for us, but we know he'll open the door and we'll be available."

Larson said that she plans to spend a lot of time with her family in her retirement. Larson has one daughter, Misty Leonard and one son, the late Robert. She also has two grandchildren, Robert and Paige. She said, "I'll really enjoy spending time with my family once I retire, but I'll also miss all of my friends that I grew to love here."

Superintendent of Southwest Schools Bob Walker said, "During Laura's 23 years of service to our school district, she has poured her heart into a couple of generations of Southwest kids. We'll miss her greatly, but wish her much happiness. She is certainly deserving."

Pry graduates magna cum laude

MoDOT mowing projects

May is Move Over and Slow Down month

Emily Pry, of Cassville, graduated from Columbia College on May 9.

Emily J. Pry, daughter of Mark and Regina Pry, graduated from Columbia College in Columbia on May 9. Emily graduated magna cum laude with a Bachelor of Arts in Biology. Emily was inducted into the following honor societies during her four years of college: Alpha Lambda Delta which is national honorary society for outstanding achievement for first year students; Alpha Chi which is a national scholastic honorary society for junior and senior students of good character who rank in the top ten percent of their class; Sigma Zeta which is a national honor society primarily for science students who have a high grade point average in science courses; and Kappa Delta Pi which is a national education honor society for students who rank in the top ten percent of the junior or senior class. She was also named Outstanding Science Student.

Prior to the graduation there was an Ivy Chain Ceremony. Ivy Chain is one of the most traditional Commencement Week activities. This is a ceremony that has been held at Columbia College since 1900. The ceremony began with seniors forming a circle. The circle symbolizes the unity of the graduating class and the continuity of friendships. The traditional ivy greenery is draped along the shoulders of the seniors as it was when they were freshmen during orientation week however at the end of the senior ceremony it was cut beside each senior, signifying that although graduates are entering a new phase of life, they will maintain a special bond with Columbia College and their classmates. Seniors presented a short program and then they finished with the presentation of the Ivy Chain royalty. Emily was chosen as the Ivy Queen by her graduating class.

Emily plans to continue her education completing her secondary teacher certification and obtaining her masters.

MoDOT mowing projects

Drivers across southwest Missouri can expect to start seeing MoDOT crews out mowing roadsides over the next few weeks, the Missouri Department of Transportation said.

Crews will focus first on local communities, addressing visibility concerns at intersections, and touching some of the highest volume traffic routes ahead of Memorial Day.

Crews set bush hog mowers to a height of 7 to 8 inches to minimize the risk of throwing rocks or large debris. Mowers will make one pass, or shoulder cut, at least six-feet wide on each side of the roadway.

MoDOT crews will mow 14,700 miles of vegetation in the 21-counties of the Southwest District to address safety concerns including high grass that obstructs visibility. The first phase of mowing for 2015 should be completed by June 11.

Drivers are urged to use caution around slow-moving operations such as mowers, as crews and equipment will be working in and near the roadways.

Weather delays could alter the work schedule.

Michael Middleton, Southwest District Maintenance Engineer stated, "We appreciate customer concerns about the vegetation height. We are currently running all of our mowing operations to address these concerns. We will have all routes mowed with this one pass by June 11."

May is Move Over and Slow Down month

Colonel J. Bret Johnson, superintendent of the Missouri State Highway Patrol would like the public to be aware that Governor Jay Nixon signed a proclamation designating May 2015 as Move Over And Slow Down Awareness Month in Missouri.

In 2002, the Missouri Legislature passed a law aimed at insuring the safety of the men and women who work roadside in emergency services, including state, county, and local law enforcement, fire and rescue workers, ambulance personnel, and tow truck operators. At the time, this legislation—commonly referred to as the "Move Over" law—directed motorists to take one of two courses of action upon approaching a stationary emergency vehicle displaying lighted red or red and blue lights. Motorists must proceed with caution and yield the right-of-way, if possible, with due regard to safety and traffic conditions by making a lane change into a lane not adjacent to that of the stationary vehicle, if on a roadway having at least four lanes with not less than two lanes proceeding in the same direction as the approaching vehicle. If it is not possible to change lanes, motorists must proceed with due caution and reduce the speed of their vehicle, maintaining a safe speed for traffic conditions.

Nine members of the Missouri State Highway Patrol have been killed in the line of duty and several others seriously injured after being struck by vehicles in the performance of their duties. Four of those line of duty deaths occurred after the Move Over law passed. Emergency personnel working on the side of the road remain in danger of death and serious injury from being struck by a vehicle.

In 2012, the Missouri Legislature expanded the Move Over law. The law was amended to include vehicles owned by the State Highways and Transportation Commission and operated by Missouri Department of Transportation employees. Thus, drivers of motor vehicles approaching stationary MoDOT vehicles displaying amber or amber and white lights "shall proceed with caution by making a lane change away from the stationary vehicle, if possible." The act further modified the definition of "emergency vehicle" to include any vehicle owned by the commission and operated by a Department of Transportation employee that is marked as an emergency response or motorist assistance vehicle (Section 304.022 RSMo.).

"Missouri's Move Over law is designed to protect the people who are serving and protecting all motorists," said Colonel J. Bret Johnson, superintendent of the Missouri State Highway Patrol. "May is Move Over And Slow Down Awareness Month. Every day our safety is in the hands of each motorist on the road. Please pay attention when you drive. Recognize that flashing lights of any color warrant careful reaction from you, the driver."

Don't raise the risk.

During any kind of project around your home or property, remember there's more overhead than buildings, trees, and sky. A ladder can easily reach high enough to cause potentially fatal contact with power lines.

Always look up before raising or moving a ladder, to make sure it's at least 10 feet from any electrical lines. Keep your eye on power lines and your mind on working safely.

Second graders learn to dial 9-1-1 at special assembly

Charlea Mills

For the past six years, the Barry County E9-1-1 Center has done a special program at area schools to ensure kids know the proper reasons for dialing 9-1-1.

The program is run by Ann Hennigan, GISTech for the E9-1-1 Center. She said, “I love visiting with the second graders, so I’m happy to say that I get to go to all the schools.” The program is directed at the seven and eight year olds in all Barry County Schools. Hennigan visits Cassville, Exeter, Purdy, Southwest, Shell Knob and Wheaton each at a different point during the year, but the program is the same at each school.

During the assemblies, Hennigan is interactive with the kids, asking questions like when would the fire department, police or ambulance respond to a 9-1-1 call. She also makes sure the kids know when to call 9-1-1 and to always stay on the phone to make sure the dispatcher gets all of the information they need to send help.

Hennigan said, “We’ve all seen news stories about children calling 9-1-1 who need help for themselves, a parent or caregiver or even a stranger. I believe that it is important for kids to know when, why and how to call 9-1-1 and what to expect when they are talking to a dispatcher. It also gives us an opportunity to remind kids how important it is to know their address and, if they are travelling or in a strange place, what things they should be looking for to help dispatchers pinpoint their location.”

During Cassville’s assembly, Hennigan talked about how to look at landmarks while the kids are travelling. She talked about water towers, street signs, specific buildings and others that could help a dispatcher locate where an accident happened or where to send help.

The E9-1-1 Center also provided tips for parents to discuss with their kids about how to deal with emergencies and dialing 9-1-1:

- Help your child learn their address.
- Post your address on the refrigerator or other conspicuous place in case of emergency.
- If your child accidentally dials 9-1-1, tell them not to hang up. They should talk to the dispatcher and explain that it was an accident.

- Children should not dial 9-1-1 for a prank, because they’re bored, or as a joke.
- If your child hangs up after calling 9-1-1, a dispatcher will call back to make sure everything is okay. If no one answers, they may send an officer to make sure.
- When you call 9-1-1 in an emergency, make sure to speak clearly. Don’t hang up until the dispatcher tells you it’s okay to hang up.
- (Parents) Before you give your child an old cell phone to play with, make sure to remove the battery, even if the phone is not activated, it can still dial 9-1-1.

Henigan added, “We appreciate all of the schools and teachers allowing the E9-1-1 Center the opportunity to talk about 9-1-1 awareness. Everyone is very welcoming and the kids are always attentive and ask great questions. it is truly my favorite work-related activity, and I look forward to it each year. If any group or organization is interested in having the 9-1-1 Center talk with them, please contact us at (417) 846-49-1-1 and speak with Mike or Danna.”

Mill Street Church of Christ

Franklin D. Roosevelt died on April 12, 1945. Upon his death America was without a president for two hours and twenty-four minutes. The swearing in of Vice President Truman was delayed for a number of reasons. First, his wife Bess and daughter Margaret had to travel to the White House for the occasion. Secondly, there was a delay in finding a Bible to use for the ceremony. Eventually, a Gideon Bible was located in the office of the chief usher, Howell Cain. One would hope that of all the houses in this country, the White House would have Bibles readily available. How available is the Word of God in your household? Sure, we all have a least one somewhere but do we use it, and how often at that? The 119th Psalm is the longest psalm in the Bible. In fact it is the longest chapter in the Bible. The Holy Spirit uses this longest chapter to address the importance of God’s Word. Verse 97 declares, “Oh, how I love Your law! It is my meditation all the day.” At the Mill Street church of Christ we love the law of God. When you come visit us it is God’s Word and only God’s Word that you will hear from our Bible classes and our pulpit. Please be our guest!

Mercy enters into lease with CC Senior Center Southwest competes at Pitt State math contest

Central Crossing Senior Center announced that officials with Mercy Hospital entered into a lease agreement with Shell Knob Seniors, Inc. to utilize a portion of the new Senior Center addition.

Mercy will use the space for rehabilitative services beginning in July. Area residents will now be able to receive rehabilitation therapy services locally rather than having to travel to surrounding communities for the same services.

On June 17 at 11:30 a.m., Chris Hoge, Director of Therapy Services, will host a “Lunch and Learn” to discuss the new Mercy Therapy Services facility. He will explain the services to be provided, hours of operation and will introduce Nick Whelan, Doctor of Physical Therapy who will staff the new facility. Both men will be available to answer questions and area residents are encouraged to take advantage of this opportunity.

THE CLEAR ALTERNATIVE TO BRACES

The low-down

You no longer have to straighten your teeth the old-fashioned way, with metal braces. The Invisalign Teen™ system lets you do it the modern, hygienic way. Your new smile is created with the most innovative technology – a series of clear aligners that are custom-fit to your teeth.

The Aligners. . .

- snap on your teeth easily.
- are comfortable and practically invisible.
- allow for your growing permanent teeth.
- gently and continuously move your teeth in small increments.
- are worn for about two weeks. Then you swap them for a new pair.
- have a Blue Dot Wear Indicator; designed to show an estimation of wear-time. The dot is designed to fade to clear over a two-week period if you wear (20 to 22 hours everyday) your aligners properly.
- can be removed for eating, brushing, and flossing, or going to a special event.

Middle School FCCLA raises money for charities

The Cassville Middle School Family, Career, and Community Leaders of America (FCCLA) for 2014-2015 members have worked hard to better the lives of others around them in the community and school.

Each month, the FCCLA goes to the local animal shelter Haven of the Ozarks to help care for the dogs and cats in need of love and care. They walk the dogs and occasionally bring treats for them. Later in the year, the FCCLA members held a supply drive at the Cassville Wal-Mart for Haven of the Ozarks and raised almost $1,000 in cash and over $700 in supplies. The goal was to inspire people to donate money or supplies to support the animal shelter.

In February, the FCCLA sold Crush soda bottles to fundraise for charity, earning a total of $437.73. They donated the money to Heifer International. The Heifer Project supplies animals, food, clean water and other things to third world countries. Using the money, the FCCLA purchased "a gift of water" (well), "flock of hope" (animals), and "the gift of a healthy home (housing materials) for the Heifer Project.

To show appreciation for the bus drivers, FCCLA made cupcakes for them. They also made cookies for the sixth grade D.A.R.E. graduation and food for the track officials.

The FCCLA had fun helping the community. All of the events led the students to grow and mature in the way they think and act.

Tractor Supply to host adoptions, animal clinic

Tractor Supply Company in Cassville at 1011 Old Exeter Road is hosting a pet event Saturday, May 30, to encourage adoptions and support local animal groups. The Saturday event is part of Purina Days, which lasts from Wednesday, May 27, to Sunday, May 31.

All Purina Days events are open to the public and their pets. Along with all the products to care for a variety of pets and animals, Tractor Supply will have free adoption kits on hand throughout Purina Days for the first 10 customers who adopt a pet or animal from a local shelter or rescue. During the event, the store will host the following groups and activities:

- Haven Of The Ozarks: On site to 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. on May 30 for pet adoptions.
- Crane Creek Ranch Alpacas: On site to 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. on May 30 for a large animal clinic.

"Raising a pet or animal can be great fun, but it's a big responsibility, too," said Stephen Smith, manager of the Cassville Tractor Supply store. "We want pet owners to have all the tools they need to make their home pet ready from day one."

Contact the Cassville Tractor Supply store at (417) 846-1844 for details about Purina Days. For more information and tips

SOUTHWEST SCHOOL BOARD MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

As part of continued efforts in keeping patrons informed, the Southwest R-V School Administration provides monthly information concerning Board meetings.

A recap of the May 14 regular meeting is as follows:

The Board convened for its meeting at 7 p.m.

Consent items were approved, including accepting the resignations of kindergarten teacher Shawn Ragan and paraprofessionals Amy Miles and Bea Roller. In addition, the following were hired for the 2015-2016 school year: Desiree Burkett as 3rd grade teacher, Leah Jones as 4th grade teacher, and former Purdy High School principal Bob Vice as the Special Education director.

Under old business, the Board approved contracting with the Scott Regional Technology Center for the 2015-2016 school year.

New business items included the approval of the district Program Evaluation Plan for the 2015-2016 school year. The board also reviewed a proposal that would make all phones on campus part of a single uniform system. Currently the district buildings operate with a blend of two separate systems. No action was taken.

Under administrative and program evaluations, the Board reviewed the district's spring sports report submitted by Athletic Director Kenny Ferguson, as well as the monthly maintenance and administrative reports. Included in the discussions was possibly replacing the elementary cafeteria floor tile over the summer. Also discussed was data from the recent kindergarten prescreening, which indicated a positive impact of the new preschool program. Parents of youngsters who will be three, four or five years of age next fall are encouraged to contact the elementary office for information concerning preschool services. Another screening date is planned for May 26.

The Board moved into Executive Session at 7:28 p.m. for approximately one hour to discuss various personnel items, reconvening in open session and adjourning at 8:28 p.m.

The next regular meeting is scheduled for June 11 in the high school library at 7 p.m.

Highway Patrol offers safety tips for Memorial Day weekend

The first long week-end of summer will be here soon. Memorial Day weekend is an opportunity to enjoy visiting family or friends, go to one of Missouri’s lakes, or enjoy any number of recreation opportunities in our state. It is also an opportunity to put safety first. Be aware of construction along your route, pay attention while you are driving, and buckle up. If alcohol is part of your holiday, make sure driving a vehicle or a vessel is not. If you are planning time on or near the water, make sure you wear a life jacket.

The Patrol will be participating in Operation

C.A.R.E. (Combined Accident Reduction Effort) during the long holiday weekend. This means every available officer will be on the road enforcing traffic laws and assisting motorists. In addition, the Patrol will assign troopers to 20-mile intervals along Interstates 29, 44, 55, and 70, and U.S. Highways 60 and 61 on May 22, 2015 and May 25, 2015. Troopers taking part in the 20-Mile Trooper enforcement project will be alert for all traffic offenses, and be especially vigilant to aggressive driving violations.

Motorists or boaters in need of assistance or who want to report a crime should use the Highway Patrol’s Emergency Assistance number 1-800-525-5555 or *55 on a cellular phone. For road condition reports, travelers can visit our web site at www.mshp.dps.mo.gov and click on the Road Condition icon to view road construction areas throughout the state or call 1-888-275-6636.

Over the 2014 Memorial Day holiday weekend, nine people died and 407 were injured in 946 traffic crashes. Last year, 146 persons were arrested for DWI. This year’s fatality counting period for the holiday weekend begins at 6 p.m., Friday, May 22, and ends at 11:59 p.m., Monday, May 25, 2015. Troopers will focus their attention on seat belt use, use of child safety seats, intoxicated drivers, and speed violations.

Motorists are encouraged to be safe and courteous drivers. Speed, inattention, and impaired driving are leading causes of traffic crashes. Please do your part. Obey all traffic laws and buckle up.

The Memorial Day weekend is also an unofficial start to the boating season. During the 2014 Memorial Day weekend, there were seven boating crashes which included two injuries; no one drowned over last year’s holiday weekend. Troopers arrested 20 people for boating while intoxicated. Boating is a great pastime and troopers want everyone to enjoy themselves. Please be courteous to others on the water, wear a lifejacket, and obey the law regarding safe operation of a vessel and no wake zones. Never operate a boat while you are impaired; never ride with an impaired operator.

“Missouri State Highway Patrol troopers will be available to assist you during the long holiday weekend should you need us,” said Colonel J. Bret Johnson. “Please do your part. Whether you’re on the highway or on the water, be courteous and pay attention. If alcohol is part of your plan, don’t operate a vehicle or vessel. It truly is that simple. We want all of you to have a safe and enjoyable summer beginning with this holiday weekend.”

Central Crossing addition nears completion

The 7,000 square foot Melba Eakin Addition to the Central Crossing Senior Center is nearing completion. Drywall is installed and will be finished this week. Next, the ceiling will be installed and the interior painted. Additional work will include bathroom fixtures, flooring installation and painting; however, work is moving “full steam ahead” and is on track to be completed prior to a July 1 Open House. The Center is located on YY-15 in Shell Knob and offers low-cost lunches from 11:15 a.m. to 12:15 p.m. Monday through Friday.
